FOUND DEAD.

Found dead—dead and alone;
There was nobody near, nobody near,
When the cutcast died on his pillow of stone;
No mother, no brother, no sister near,
Not a friendly voice to soothe or cheer,
Not a watching eye or a pitying tear,
On the city steps when he died alone,
In the roofless street, on a pillow of stone.

Many a weary day went by,
While wretched and worn he begged for bread,
Tired of life, and longing to lie
Peacefully down with the silent dead;
Hunger and cold and scorn and pain,
Had wasted his form and seared his brain,
Till at last on a bed of frozen ground,
With a pillow of stone, was the outcast found.

Found dead—dead and alone.
On a pillow of stone in the roofless street;
Nobody heard his last faint moan,
Or knew when his sad heart ceased to beat;
No mourner lingered with tears and sighs,
Not the eight locked down with pitying eyes,
And the chill winds passed with a wailing sound
O'er the lonely spot where the form was found.

Found dead—yet not alone;
There was somebody near, somebody near
To claim the wanderer as his own,
And add a home-bred one to those here;
One, when every human door
Is closed to children accursed and poor,
Who opens the heavens' portal wide;
Ah! God was near when the outcast died.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under date of 1857.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign records, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials hel ow given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he feels no shrinking from the test, which can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

He also has the best extended library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, reader this able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable as well as honorable practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and worthy, and more capable of getting their applications in the form desired for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such uniform success proves talent and ability on his part; I can, therefore, recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be secured by him at less cost than by attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on behalf of rejected applications SEVEN ARRIVALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the wrought iron than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large roasting oven, and beneath it is also a tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former models, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the fire, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on top of the cover can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the shortest way of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the first one for sale made to season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Greaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq., Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum, Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber.

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a sixpence, when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, as cheap as upon the base of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is much easier to the tender gums of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same no. of blocks that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTING is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. CLEMENT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.

All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of a popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

BARNUM AND TOM THUMB.—Burleigh, in a recent letter from New York, says:

An attempt was made to black-mail Barnum the other day. A woman walked into the private office and called Mr. Barnum's attention to a book that she was about to put into the market, unless Mr. Barnum should see fit to buy it. It was called the "Priest and the Pigmies." It was to show that Mr. Barnum was not only the proprietor of the Museum, but of Grace Church also, and the pigmy wedding was shown up in a most terrible way. Great was the surprise of the woman when Mr. Barnum gave her to know that he would be pleased to see the book circulated. He would rather pay something than not have it done. That if there was a bit or two of scandal in it, or a little calumny, it would be all the better for him. "Go ahead, my good woman," said the great showman, "only be kind enough to say something," and the chopfallen dame carried her wares to a more appreciative market.

COUNTRY STOCKS.—A travelling gent in passing a farm saw a boy at work in the cornfield by the roadside, and being of an inquisitive turn of mind, stopped his horse and thus addressed the youth: "My son, whose farm is this?" "Dad's," was the laconic reply. "Does your father raise any stock?" "Yes, lots of 'em." "What kind?" continued the stranger. "Cornstocks mostly," was the reply, as he proceeded to hoe a hill of the article, and the stranger went on his way musing.

THE REBELLION.

The Richmond Enquirer says—"There are some indications that the Yankees are moving in South Carolina. It is supposed that their intention is to make a raid in the vicinity of the Coosawatchie, probably to attempt to destroy the railroad between Savannah and Charleston." The Enquirer also states that U. S. troops have occupied the county of Fauquier, Va., in large force, it is reported from 20,000 to 30,000. They are said to have 15,000 infantry and 8000 cavalry. Their infantry camp was at last accounts on the Orange and Alexandria Railroads, below Warrenton Junction, and their cavalry pickets on the Rappahannock.

The Washington Intelligencer of Tuesday morning announces that Gen. Hooker commenced a forward movement Monday morning. Heavy masses of artillery and troops were crossing the Rappahannock at sunrise. The N. Y. Tribune says the 7th and 11th corps and the cavalry took the lead.

A Baltimore dispatch says the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad may now be regarded as perfectly safe. No property was taken in the recent rebel raid, nor were any of the bridges injured, except a small one near Oakland, which was slightly damaged. Large Government forces have been moved to all important points on the line, which guarantees ample and permanent protection. The delay of the prompt and regular working of the road will not exceed 24 hours.

It is said the rebel force at Morgantown, Va., is only 800 strong.

The steamer Empire City, from New Orleans 20th, reports that news had been received from Gen. Banks. He had taken possession of the Opelousas railroad, and opened communication with Adm. Farragut above Port Hudson. Gen. Banks captured a large number of prisoners, a large amount of stores, cotton, ammunition, &c. About 500 rebel prisoners are daily arriving at New Orleans.

The N. Y. Post has a report, via New Orleans, that a U. S. Paymaster, with $600,000 for our troops, was on board the steamer Fox, captured by the rebels.

A correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat says Gen. Vandever surprised a rebel regiment, the advance guard of Marmaduke's army, on Sunday night, near Jackson, Mo., and all who were not killed or wounded were taken prisoners. Their horses, guns, etc., and several thousand dollars' worth of stolen plunder were taken. Gens. Vandever and McNiel are pursuing their main body.

Gen Price is reported to be at Little Rock, Ark., with 8000 troops, preparing to invade Missouri.

Rebel dispatches say that our troops at McMinnville, Tenn., destroyed several bridges, burnt the cotton factory, the depot buildings, 1 engine and 3 cars, and then retreated to Murfreesboro.

Important movements are being made by the rebel army in Tennessee, and it is thought that if Rosecrans does not advance Bragg will attack him.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Lt. Col. Coughlin's health has been restored, and he intended to start Wednesday for his regiment—the 10th.

—— On the night of the 16th Col. Donahoe, with a detachment of 200 men from the 89th New York, and 10th and 13th New Hampshire, made the first trip across the Nansemond, for the purpose of a reconnoissance. It was considered quite a hazardous exploit, but our gallant Colonel was nothing daunted. He accomplished his purpose and returned in safety.

—— About twelve o'clock, at noon, on Monday, the two-story dwelling house of Mr. John Whitney, in Goffstown, caught fire, it is supposed by sparks from the chimney alighting on the roof, and was totally destroyed. The furniture was saved. Loss $2000. Insured.

—— Mr. Edwin P. Richardson, recently appointed Engineer in the U. S. Navy, and assigned to the steamer Violet, has been compelled to resign his position in consequence of ill health and has returned to Manchester.

—— William Durgin, a Lynn Expressman, who for some years past has been employed to transact business for some of the journeymen shoemakers in Pittsfield, and vicinity, has recently vanished to parts unknown, taking with him a considerable sum of money belonging to the jours. The amount is not known, but it is estimated as high as three or four thousand dollars. One of his victims, to whom he owed twenty dollars or more, was a man who has lost both legs by a railroad accident, and has a wife and three children dependent upon him.

☞ Two officers from each regiment in Washington have been detailed to organize regiments out of the convalescents in the hospitals around the city.

TERRIBLE DISASTER.—The steamship Anglo Saxon, from Liverpool 16th inst. and Londonderry 17th, for Portland (or Quebec, should the St. Lawrence be open) with 360 passengers and a ship's crew of 84 men, was wrecked four miles east of Cape Race at noon on the 27th, during a dense fog.—Seventy-three persons escaped from the wreck by means of ropes and spars, and twenty-four in two life boats. The total number saved is 97. A dispatch from St. Johns, N. F., says the deck broke up in about an hour after the Anglo Saxon struck. Nothing but the mizzenmast is standing. Several persons clung to the rigging until the foremast fell. No assistance could be rendered.

The Boston Advertiser says the Anglo Saxon was an iron propeller steamship of 1764 tons, with double deck and vertical direct engine. She was built in Dunbarton in 1855, by W. Denny & Brother, and is owned in Liverpool by the Canadian Steamship Company. She had five water tight bulkheads and was barque rigged.

The Canadian steamship line has been singularly unfortunate, the Anglo Saxon being the fifth steamer lost since its establishment. The first steamer lost was the Canadian, which was wrecked upon the "Pillars" below Quebec, in June, 1857.—The Indian went ashore at Marie Joseph, on the eastern end of Nova Scotia, Nov. 21, 1858, and became a total wreck, with a loss of 34 lives. The Hungarian was wrecked on a rock near Cape Sable, Feb. 19, 1860, and all on board, 205 in number, perished. The Canadian, No. 2, struck a sunken iceberg near the Straits of Belle Isle, June 4, 1861, and went down, by which 30 lives were lost.

☞ The Portland Courier says Messrs. Pierce & McMichael of that city, who have been so successful in their carpenter work on the gunboat Agawam, have contracted to furnish the material and build the wood work of a light draft monitor for the Globe works, South Boston. This craft is to be 225 feet long and 42 feet beam, single turret, two propellers and to be iron-clad. The contractors agree to have her completed in September next.

☞ At one of the windows on Broadway there is on exhibition a piece of plate that attracts attention. It is a massive silver butter dish, in a crimson case. The cover of the dish has on it as an ornament an elaborately enchased cradle, which holds the figure of a child. It has been made in accordance with an old and quaint custom of the graduates of Columbia College. The butter dish is made at the expense of the graduating class, and becomes the property of the member of the class who is first father of a child.

☞ The steamer Virginia, which was launched from the Clyde for the rebels, is reported in the British Channel, near the French coast, where she took in her guns, stores, &c., sailing westward immediately. She is described as being of great strength, very fast, armed with ten heavy guns, and 2 of Whitworth's 68-pound pivot guns.

☞ Vera Cruz dates of the 5th, state that the French are making very slight progress in Mexico. A small fort near Puebla had been captured, with a loss to the French of over 700 men. A heavy storm at Vera Cruz destroyed over $20,000 worth of French stores. Reinforcements for the French army were continually arriving.

☞ The Leavenworth News of April 23, has news of another raid into Kansas. It states that Capt. Dawdna, at Humboldt, reports the advance of 3000 rebels on the southwestern border. The Osage Indians have, in part, allied themselves with the rebels, and are with them in this new movement. Every precaution has been taken at headquarters to ward off this attack.

☞ The Indian Superintendent, Mr. Thompson, has completed arrangements in St. Louis for the removal of the Winnebago and Sioux Indians from Minnesota, the removal to begin immediately. Those under sentence of death will be sent to one of the Southern seaboard forts, probably Tortugas.

☞ The signs of activity along the lines of all our armies are cheering. So far they promise complete success. At present it looks as if the month of May was to be more crowded with striking events than any previous month since the war began.

FAST DAY.—There is to be a general meeting of the citizens of Bangor in Norombega Hall, to be conducted by the respective clergymen, Fast Day forenoon, and in the afternoon, services in the churches.

☞ Gov. Andrew of Massachusetts has approved an Act by which a Fast or Thanksgiving Day recommended by the President of the United States, is made a legal holiday.

A gentleman being asked by a lady to send her his photograph,—accompanied the carte de visite with the following epigram:

"I send the picture. (Say it on the shelf:)
Another time I wish your gentle heart
Would kindly bid me bring my solid self,
And not (God bless me,) send an empty carte!"

☞ We commend to those people so ready to worship military "heroes" who always keep out of the reach of lead and smell of gun-powder—the following extract from Headley's "Napoleon and his Marshals," on the daring fighter Murat. He seems to think, like many others, that to incite soldiers to fight, the leaders must fight themselves.

MARSHAL MURAT.—He was a good General, though I know this is often disputed. Nothing is more common than the belief than an impulsive, headlong man cannot be clear-headed, while history proves that few others ever accomplish anything. From Alexander down to Bonaparte, your impetuous beings have always had the grandest plans, and executed them. Yet, men will retain their prejudices, and you cannot convince them that the silent, grave owl is not wiser than the talkative parrot, though the reverse is indisputably true. There could hardly be a more impetuous man than Bonaparte, and he had a clearer head and a sounder judgment than all his Generals put together.

Murat's impulses were often stronger than his reason, and in that way detracted from his generalship. Besides, he was too brave, and never counted his enemy. He seemed to think he was not made to be killed in battle, or to be defeated. Bonaparte had great confidence in his judgment when he was cool, and consulted him perhaps more than any other of his Generals upon the plan of an anticipated battle.—J. T. Headley.

GEN. BUTLER AND THE COMMITTEE ON THE CONDUCT OF THE WAR.—Gen. Butler was asked whether intoxicating liquors are used in the army. To this Gen. Butler replied, "They are to a most woful extent." As an illustration, Gen. Butler said:

We used to send a picket guard up a mile and a half from Fortress Monroe. The men would leave perfectly sober, yet every night when they came back he would have trouble with them on account of their being drunk. Where they got their liquor from we could not tell. Night after night we instituted a vigorous examination, but it was always the same. The men were examined over and over again; their canteens were inspected, and yet we could find no liquor about them.

At last it was observed that they seemed to hold their guns up very straight, and upon examination being made, it was found that every gun-barrel was filled with whiskey—and it is not always the soldiers who do this.

I ordered a search of the Adams Express Company, and examined the packages sent to the soldiers by their friends, and in one day I have taken one hundred and fifty different packages of liquor from the trunks, boxes and packages sent to the soldiers by their sympathizing friends at home. Gen. Butler says he took measures to suppress this abuse.

[Communication.]

FAST DAY.

This day of fasting, humiliation and prayer, is to be observed throughout the nation, in accordance with a resolution of the U. S. Senate, and with the President's Proclamation. In both these documents, the Government of Almighty God is distinctly acknowledged, and his help invoked, to deliver us from national calamity.

In the States of New Hampshire and Maine, the day is also kept as the annual State Fast:—and in this State Gov. Berry invokes the help of the Great Ruler of men and nations, and calls on God to save us from degeneracy and crime by "giving religion greater prevalence and power among the people," and to "render the gospel a more efficacious instrument in the suppression of intemperance, Sabbath breaking, slavery, and every form of vice and sin."

It is to be hoped and expected that many thousands of people, all over the land, will join in the public assemblies and prayers,—sincerely and truly pending their hearts and not their garments.

This is well:—we have occasion for repentance and humiliation, not only for national guilt, but for desperate wickedness in our own community,—nothing new indeed, nor strange, but the natural fruit of unchecked vices and of a debased public opinion, of neglected Sabbaths, of deserting the sanctuary, and of upholding those who do iniquity.

No doubt we should feel both sorrow and shame, when we consider that a score of "lewd fellows of the baser sort," in defiance of human and divine laws, assemble as a troop in one of the dens of iniquity on the Lord's Day, and commit the basest of all crimes, sending sorrow to the innocent members of their own families, and shocking the moral sense of the whole community.

Sorrow and shame, we repeat, are called for, on this fast day:—but we are told in the prophecy of Isaiah, chap. 57 and 50,—that it is not bowing down the head like a bulrush, nor to sit in sackcloth and ashes, which makes a fast such as God approves: but as communities suffer for lying, injustice, oppression, uncleanness and violence,—therefore reformation is the only true course, and without it the fast is useless.

But if we will do justice, break every yoke and let the oppressed go free: if we deal bread to the hungry, "if we bring the poor that are cast out to our house," if we cover the naked, and satisfy the afflicted soul,—then the Lord shall guide us continually, and we shall be like a spring whose waters fail not. U. T.

☞ It is said there are seven million dollars worth of property in the District of Columbia liable to confiscation.

☞ Last week the trustees of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher's church, at a regular meeting, resolved that Mr. Beecher be granted a leave of absence from the first of June, of four months, and that his expenses to, in and from Europe be defrayed by the Society. The trustees than proceeded to the parsonage, and informed Mr. Beecher of their determination. The offer was accepted.

Special Notices.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS.—The true Type of Cathartic.—By the application of true Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent putting such quantities of indigestible drugs into the stomach, the griping pains so erroneously judged to be the evidence of thorough action, and to require from 4 to 6 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, was the study in this development. The dose seldom exceeding One, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy, and character can be best known by confidence to test them in DYSPEPSIA, COSTIVENESS, BILIOUSNESS, LIVER COMPLAINT, all derangements of the stomach and Bowels, and as a Family Pill. spno

Services will also be held at the Pearl St. Chapel.

The Unitarian Church will not be open this morning, but services will be held there this evening, Rev. J. DeNormandie officiating.

FORT SULLIVAN.—The old earthworks on Jenkins Island are being renewed, and heavy cannon are to be mounted there. During the past week the Engineers at Portsmouth Navy Yard have been busily at work erecting batteries on the island, and a large gang of men, with teams, have been employed. They expect soon to have in position several large guns that will throw shot far enough, probably, for all practical purposes.

☞ The store of Mr. H. L. Garrett, on Market street, was entered on Friday night last, and about one hundred dollars' worth of scrip stolen. On Tuesday night last the stores of Messrs. Richard Walden, on Water street, and Thacher Emery, on Pleasant street, were also broken into; from the former about two dollars in cents were stolen, and from the latter sundry small articles are missed. We understand the Police have arrested a man suspected of having committed the last two robberies.

☞ The Concert of the Portsmouth Cornet Band, at the Temple this (Thursday) evening, is worthy of being "well remembered." Their notes are worth more, and cost them more, than the pile of greenbacks they will get, even if the house is full—so don't let them come short of that.

☞ A room has been taken by the ladies over Mr. B. Cheever's store, Market St., where donations of clothing, money, and other articles, are received for the National Freedman's Relief Association.

☞ Mr. Wm. B. Wait, the old favorite salesman with Fisher Brothers, and since of Wait & Dunyon, has made an engagement with Messrs. Bachman & Co.; and his numerous friends will henceforth find him at that enterprising dry goods house. By the way, see their announcement of new goods.

☞ We are glad to learn that Mr. B. B. Davis, the popular and successful music teacher in Concord, proposes to open a singing school in Portsmouth. There is room and need of such, and we think every friend of music here would welcome and aid him, for the cause.

☞ A large and splendid yacht, the "Eclipse" from Boston, which has been lying at the wharf foot of State street for a week past, attracts much attention and admiration from all the critical in such matters. She is certainly hot easily eclipsed, be she never so easy an Eclipse.

☞ Mr. Lamprey announces his Summer Term of Dancing School to commence next Wednesday. Let all the children have a chance to learn music and dancing.

☞ Don't forget Mr. Wendell's great auction sale of Linen goods, on Friday.—See his advertisement.

☞ All work will be suspended at the Navy Yard to day.

☞ We are requested to state that the Alms House will be open on Fast Day, from one till six o'clock, P. M., for all who choose to visit it.

☞ Letters from New Orleans, received in this city on Tuesday, state that the 16th N. H. Regiment, which contains a company from this city, Capt. Thacher, had been left, with a Mass. regiment, for the defence of Brashear City, both under command of the Lieut. Col. of the 16th N. H. regiment.

☞ The body of J. W. Berry, of York, Me., a soldier in the 17th U. S. regiment, who was drowned at Portland about three months ago, was found in the harbor on Tuesday.

☞ Side wheel steamer Sonoma, 14, Com'r Stevens, was spoken 12th inst., 45 miles S E Cape Antonio.

☞ The packet-ship Manhattan, which left Liverpool for New York Dec. 23, four months ago, is generally supposed to be lost, as nothing has been heard from her since her departure. She was commanded by Capt. Thomas Dixon, and had 175 passengers in steerage, besides a valuable freight. She was a first-class ship, built in 1860.

☞ The pilot of the Keokuk, who has been arrested on a charge of having run her ashore that the rebels might capture her, is said to be the same fellow who piloted Mason and Slidell out through the blockade. His true character seems to have been unknown until after the Keokuk was run ashore. That vessel was in no danger of sinking.

☞ Capt. J. C. Cook, alias Lee, a well-known slave-trader, who had run away from his bail in Boston, was arrested in Brooklyn, N. Y., on Saturday night and sent back for trial.

☞ The Clerk of the United States Prize Court at Key West has absconded with about $90,000 Government funds.—He obtained permission to visit Havana for the alleged purpose of procuring a sword, which was to be presented to Col. Good, and forgot to return.

ALTERED GREENBACKS.—The two dollar notes of the United States Government, altered to fifty dollars, and ten dollar notes altered to one hundred dollars, are in circulation. The alteration is done in so bungling a manner that it can easily be detected upon inspection.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

EYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOVD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named. ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

Read the following recommendation from the Cashier of the Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H.

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipiscogee, Nov. 10, 1862.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS.:—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an increased quantity this next Spring. Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn about two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crops. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, Respectfully,
ABEL HALEY,

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, made on reasonable terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials here given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full access to all patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay thereby, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part needs not to be commended to all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be assured having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at the reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twenty rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are lined with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water, also a large tin warming closet, in which every article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of a kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this failure. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases, as they must pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are found in other Furnaces, and out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without being going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of section or adhesion can be obtained for it.

3d. The upper portion is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when inflated the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the RIGHT TO VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as former; if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept sweet and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the union is thus made much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of all the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

WISE MEN OF THE EAST.

A writer in Illinois says:—"As in the olden time, all our wise men came from the East." Some of them reached our prairies before the bees arrived. Bees always follow, never precede civilization. In that part of our beautiful State known as Egypt, many of these 'wise' men have exercised their 'squatter sovereignty' for the last 40 years, dwelling, even now, in habitations as primitive as were those of the patriarchs.—They may be seen on any fair day, sitting about the village tavern, relating events that occurred when the 'red skins' and buffaloes inhabited the northern half of the State, and a two year-old steer was the 'smallest change' in the circulating medium.

As late as 1837, when railroads were first talked of in this corn region, they were supposed to be identical with the corduroy roads, where the rails are laid crosswise over the bottomless 'bottom!' In 1840, one county gave, it is said, a nearly unanimous vote for General Jackson, for President, under the full conviction that 'the report of his death was a Whig lie!'

When it was first reported that Professor Morse had succeeded in conveying intelligence between Baltimore and Washington, through the wires of the Magnetic Telegraph, one old sawan, who had been a schoolmaster, and member of the Legislature, gave it as his opinion that the report was 'a humbug.' In fact, from his knowledge of 'astronomy,' he said he knew the thing could not be done!

Shortly after O'Reilly's men were seen setting the poles directly by the old man's dwelling. One day he joined the crowd who were witnessing the operation of stretching the wire. Upon being asked what he thought of the matter then, he hesitated a moment—assuming an air of importance—and then replied:—'Well, gentlemen, while in the Legislature, I gave the subject considerable attention, and after much investigation and reflection, I have come to the conclusion that it will answer very well for small packages, but will never do for large bundles—never!'"

☞ Linen cloths are almost exclusively manufactured in Ireland, England and Scotland, in which business nearly 200,000 persons are employed, producing annually from 35 to $40,000,000 worth.

'Tis never for their wisdom that one loves the wisest, or for their wit that one loves the wittiest; 'tis for benevolence and virtue, and honest fondness, that one loves people; the other qualities make one proud of loving them, too.

☞ Over sixty millions of people travelled three hundred millions of miles on the German railroads last year, and only thirteen were injured and five killed. They are slow but safe roads.

Navy Tobacco.

We would invite the attention of dealers to the above Tobacco made by us. It is warranted to be of BETTER QUALITY than any in the market, and as good as the best from Virginia. Those disposed to encourage HOME MANUFACTURES, and all in want of GOOD TOBACCO in place of the very inferior quality with which the market is flooded, can obtain it in any quantity for trial.

SATURDAY, MAY 2, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Dodge, on the 22d, attacked the rebel Col. Chalmer at Tuscumbia, Ala., and after a hard fight drove him out and now holds the place; our losses are stated at 100; the rebel loss is not given.

Advices from Port Royal, S. C., state that our troops are going to Folly, Cole and Kiawah Islands, and that the attack on Charleston will be made May 3. North Edisto is occupied by a strong force. The troops on Folly Island are entrenching.—The Iron-sides remains off Charleston. The Monit[illegible] are been filled with shot and [illegible]n every department the utmost [illegible] prevails. All the Monitors, except Weehawken, had left Port Royal.—[illegible]he health of the troops was suffering somewhat from warm weather. Rebel deserters report that new obstructions have been placed in Charleston harbor.

Letters from East Tennessee say that there are but few rebel troops there, who could be easily driven out by 5000 men from our own side. Though still tyrannically oppressed, the great mass of the people remain loyal.

The Washington Star of Tuesday reports a battle at Cheat Mountain, Western Virginia, in which the rebels were badly beaten and driven back.

We have Newbern news to the 26th.—All was quiet. The troops are engaged in strengthening the fortifications at Newbern and Washington. No forward movement is to be expected for some time. Gen. Foster is still at Newbern.

The Navy Department has received official information of the destruction of the ram Queen of the West, in Berwick's Bay, after a fight of 20 minutes,—also of the destruction of the Diana and Hart. At later dates our forces were in pursuit of two other vessels, which are believed to be the only rebel vessels now in those waters.

Gen. Ellet's Marine Brigade, on its return from the expedition up the Tennessee river, was fired upon by the rebels under Major White. The fire was returned by the gunboats. The rebels fled with a loss of 10 killed and 20 wounded. Maj. White was mortally wounded. Our loss was 2 killed and 4 wounded. Gen. Ellet has destroyed every grist and saw mill and every distillery on the Upper Tennessee, besides 500,000 feet of lumber. The towns of Hamburg and Eastport were also destroyed.

Gen. Grant's whole army is said to be in motion, with six days' rations.

Rear Admiral Farragut reports to the Navy Department that on the 8th inst. he captured the steamer J. D. Clark. She had on board Maj. Howard, of the Rebel Commissary Department, who was making extensive arrangements for the crossing of cattle over to the eastern shore of the river at various places, all of which are frustrated by his capture. Several schooners, running the blockade, have been captured by our fleets.

A dispatch to the New York Herald, dated five miles below Fredericksburg, 10th, at 7 A. M., reports that smart skirmishing was going on. Our batteries had just opened on the rebels, but failed to draw their fire. Signal lights were busy on the heights to warn the rebels of our movements.

Special dispatches state that on Monday morning the 5th, 11th and 12th corps, of Gen. Hooker's army, moved to Kelley's Ford, and on Tuesday and Wednesday crossed the Rappahannock by means of pontoons. The rebel pickets attempted to fire but their powder was wet. No enemy was to be found. On Tuesday the 1st, 3d and 6th corps crossed 4 miles below Fredericksburg, capturing the rebel picket and reserves. 20 of our men were wounded. Two miles further down Gen. Reynold's 1st built a bridge in the face of the enemy's rifle pits and crossed. Resistance was stubborn and short. 87 prisoners, taken here, report Jackson as commanding the right wing. The 5d corps was in position in the rear of Banks' Ford, with full facilities for crossing. The N. Y. Tribune's report estimates the number of prisoners taken at from 300 to 500. The corps which crossed at Kelley's Ford, was moving up in fine order towards Chancellorville, south of Fredericksburg. Gen. Hooker intends crossing at Kelley's, United States and Banks' Fords and then give his corps commanders a plan of his movements. His headquarters are now in the saddle.

☞ The large engine house of the Erie R.R., Com'y, in Jersey City, some 200 feet long, and three locomotives, were destroyed by fire on Wednesday evening. Loss about $50,000.

☞ The official list shows that from the steamer Anglo Saxon there were saved 33 cabin and 103 steerage passengers, and 71 of the crew. The mails are all lost. The vessel is in 14 fathoms of water, and is broken up. None of the cargo has been saved.

☞ Globe Steam Mill, Newburyport, has declared a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated — By Uncle Tony.

Mason and Bancroft in 1686—droll doings—Rev. Gilbert Laurie.—Mason had not yet succeeded in retaining possession of any of the cultivated lands, but he still expected to substantiate his claim to the unimproved part of the province. Jonathan Tyng, with several other persons, purchased of the Indians, a tract of land six miles wide, lying on both sides the Merrimac river, extending from Soubegan river to Winnipisseogee lake. To complete their title they obtained from Mason, on the 16th of April, a deed confirming the grant, in which he reserved an annual rent of ten shillings. "This was called the million acre purchase," but none of the lands included in it are now held under this grant. On the 15th of May, Mason farmed out to Hezekiah Usher all the ores and minerals within the province, reserving one quarter part of the royal ores, and one seventeenth part of the baser kinds. But Usher derived no advantage from this grant. No ore excepting iron has been discovered in New-Hampshire, and wherever that has been found, the owners of the soil have always claimed the exclusive right to it.

Notwithstanding the directions to Cranfield from the Lords of trade, that all proceedings in law relating to Mason's title should cease until the decision of Vaughan's appeal, Mason made another attempt with Barefoote's assistance to carry the judgments he had recovered into execution, but without success; it produced some personal rencounters with the inhabitants, in which he was treated with great severity and without much respect.

An attempt being made to levy one of the executions in Dover, a number of persons forcibly resisted the officer, and obliged him to relinquish his design. Warrants were then issued against the rioters, and the sheriff with his attendants attempted to seize them, whilst the people were assembled for divine worship. This caused an uproar in the congregation in which a young heroine distinguished herself by knocking down one of the officers with her Bible. They were all so roughly handled that they were glad to escape with their lives.

That nothing might be wanting to show enmity of the people to these measures, and their hatred and contempt for the authors of them, there are still preserved the original depositions on oath, of Barefoote and Mason, relating to an assault made on their persons by Thomas Wiggin and Anthony Nutter, who had been members of the assembly. These two persons came to Barefoote's house, where Mason lodged, and entered into discourse with him about his proceedings; denying his claim, and using such language as provoked him to take hold of Wiggin, with an intention to thrust him out at the door. But Wiggin being a stronger man seized him by his cravat, and threw him into the fire, where his clothes and one of his legs were burned. Barefoote, attempting to help him, met with the same fate, and had two of his ribs broken and one of his teeth beaten out in the struggle. The noise alarmed the servants, who at Mason's command brought his sword, which Nutter took away, making sport of their misery.

A farther specimen of the contempt in which these men were held, even by the lower class of people, expressed in their own genuine language, may be seen in the following affidavit:

"Mary Rann, aged 30 years, or thereabouts, witnesseth, that the 21 day of March, '84, being in company with Seaback Hog," I heard her say; it was very hard for the governor of this province to strike Sam Seavy before he spoke; the said Hog said also that it was well the said Seavy's mother was not there for the governor, for if she had, there had been bloody work for him. I heard the said Hog say also, that the governor and the rest of the gentlemen were a crew of pitiful curs, and did they want earthly honor? if they did, she would pull off her head clothes and come in her hair to them, like a parcel of pitiful beggarly curs as they were; come to undo us both body and soul; they could not be contented to take our estates from us, but they have taken away the gospel also, which the devil would have them for it.

Sworn in the court of pleas held at Great Island the 7 of Nov. 1684.

R. Chamberlain, Protbon."

In the course of the spring Mason again embarked for England, to attend the trial of his actions against Vaughan, which were then pending before the Lords of Trade. Barefoote's administration was very short. He was superseded by Joseph Dudley, who was appointed President of New-England, which included the government of Massachusetts, New-Hampshire, Maine, and Narragansett, called likewise King's Province. This form of government went into operation on the 24th day of May. Robert Mason and John Hinkes, both of Portsmouth, were of the Council. After Mr. Moodey's removal, the town had been destitute of a constant supply in the ministry, but had only occasional preaching as opportunities offered. On the 14th of June they sent Captain John Pickering and Mr. Samuel Keais to inform him that, "considering his former obligation to the town and the towns to him, the cause of his removal being taken away, the town doth desire and expect his return, on the terms he formerly was settled for his future maintenance." Mr. Moodey's answer was not explicit, and on the 29th of October they contracted with the Rev. Gilbert Laurie, who had been preaching here, to continue with them six months longer, for which they agreed to "pay him thirty-six pounds, and the expense of removing from Boston, and to provide convenient house room for himself and family during said time."

LETTER FROM NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, April 18.

Did you ever imagine a city where business had ceased, where the sources of revenue were all closed—where the people were living on the accumulation of the past, where the out-go was continual, and the income was a cipher, where the ledger was all on the debtor side? Did you ever consider how long a large city, filled with people brought up to the enjoyment of every luxury, and bred in as free a use of gold as most are of water, could continue? Did you ever think of a population—high-spirited and quick to resent an insult—living under the sword of Damocles, meeting a bayonet at every turn, and seeing numbers of their own hue here guarded by, or subject to, a race which they have, with reason, considered inferior? If you have not, then you have little idea of the condition of New Orleans at the present time.

Gen. Banks' expedition up Bayou Teche appears to be meeting with great success.—Already the rebel gunboats Queen of the West, Diana (captured from the Federals) and Hart have been destroyed, and the armament of the first two recovered. Besides these, a number of transports have been destroyed, and the transport Cornie captured. About four hundred prisoners have arrived from the scene of action, and are now quartered in the Belleville Iron Works, at Algiers. The portion of country thus in process of reclamation is the Feder at rule is the most fertile of the fertile State.

It may interest your citizens to know that the 16th New Hampshire is taking part in this movement, as was also the case in the late advance toward Port Hudson. As yet no casualties are published in its ranks.

This success is due, doubtless, in great measure to the intimate knowledge of the country possessed by Brig. Gen. Weitzel, obtained in years past while exercising his avocation of engineer in service of Government.

Mexican news attracts much attention here, and truly 'tis a doubtful struggle 'twixt bombast and gasconade. The whole country is one vast stew, in which red pepper and garlic are each striving for the preponderance. Ion.

LOCAL ITEMS.

☞ Capt. I. F. Jenness, recently of the 17th N. H. regiment, has been appointed recruiting officer for the purpose of enlisting men for the company of heavy artillery to be stationed at Fort Constitution, and will open a recruiting office at No. 3, Congress Block. The company is to comprise 140 officers and men, enlisted for three years, and to receive the same pay and bounty as for this arm of the regular service.

☞ Mr. Nathan Jones has purchased the Cameneum lot, which joins his land on Vaughan street, and it is stated intends to erect a substantial hotel on the site of his present residence the coming autumn. All our hotels are doing a good business.

☞ Two gold watches with chains, one valued at $250 and the other at $450, were stolen from the sleeping apartment of Hon. Daniel Marcy, at his residence on Pleasant street, on Wednesday night. There were no traces seen of any robber entering the house.

☞ One of the sad sights on Fast Day was three young women, perhaps 20 years of age, who in the afternoon went staggering up Islington street, grossly intoxicated, shocking the passers-by with their loud and shameless profanity.

☞ We learn that a little boy, 6 or 7 years of age, was severely bitten by a dog at the West End on Thursday noon.

☞ The 10th Maine regiment passed through here on their return home on Friday. They were enlisted for two years.

Rev. E. B. Eddy, the Baptist minister residing at Portsmouth, preached two very able sermons at the Whitefield church last Sabbath, in the absence of Mr. Gage. Mr. Eddy is one of the ablest men in the Baptist ranks, and we trust that his talents are fully appreciated in the city of his residence. —Newburyport Herald.

☞ The Clerk of the U. S. District or Prize Court at Key West, who is reported in a Hilton Head letter of the 20th instant to have absconded with $90,000 belonging to the Government, was still at his post on the 21st instant. Letters on official business up to that date have been received from him at the Departments, and there is no evidence there of the fact alleged.

Metal-Tipped Shoes.—Shoes are an important item in the expense of clothing children, as every parent will understand. They invariably wear out their shoes at the toe first, and not unfrequently before the other parts are a quarter worn. Children's shoes with Metal tips never wear out at the toe, and it is safe to say that on an average one pair with them will more than out wear three pairs without them! We believe all the shoe dealers keep them. 1*

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS —The Great Vegetable Cathartic.—By the application of our Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent putting such quantities of indigestible sugar into the stomach, the griping pains so generously lodged to be the evidence of thorough action, and to require from six to 8 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, were the study in this development. The dose seldom exceeding One, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy, and character can be best known by confidence to test them in DYSPEPSIA, COSTIVENESS, BILIOUSNESS, LIVER COMPLAINT, all derangements of the stomach and Bowels, and as a family Pill.

Local.

FAST DAY was pleasant, and favorable for public assemblies. Sermons were given in the morning to fair audiences (large for Fast Day) in the Pearl st. church by Rev. Mr. Reed, and in the North by Rev. Mr. Rankin, which we hear spoken of as loyal and valuable.—Sermon also in the Universalist church by Rev. Mr. Patterson, eloquent, earnest, and thoroughly loyal to government, liberty and humanity.

In the evening a very large audience assembled in the Stone Church, where the new pastor, Mr. DeNormandie, delivered a discourse full of patriotism and christian loyalty, tracing the present troubles back to their true source. His text was in Micah 7:8—"When I fall I shall arise." He characterized every compromise with wrong as a fall; and while he admitted that we might yet fall, looked forward with cheerful hope to our nation's rising again, pure and peaceable.

☞ The Cornet Band's Concert, Thursday evening, was beyond question an excellent one; and could scarcely have been improved, unless changed in character. In larger cities, and with bands having more members—solos, and strings and reeds, and vocal music, can be introduced, which gives greater variety. But our glorious Band, as it is, and their pains-taking leader, Mr. C. H. Tompson, deserve great credit for their general performances, and especially for their concert. We doubt if any band of the sort, even the most celebrated from abroad, has ever given better music here. The audience, we much regret to say, was not so large as was to be expected—nor was it, by any means, an index of the esteem the Band is held in by our citizens generally. Various things conduced to thin the house,—chief among them, no doubt, being the very large audience which gathered at the Stone Church for Fast services. But then, for such a benefit concert, most of the tickets should be sold in advance by the members themselves, as is usual, in such cases everywhere; and no man who is anybody at all, would fail to be glad of the chance to take at least one ticket, whether he could attend or not. As it is now, we have no doubt that funds could be readily collected among our citizens who appreciate the Band, to pay for a series of out-door concerts, this summer, if any friend of theirs will but take the trouble to do it.

And as editors are supposed to be deadheads on all such occasions, (though in fact they generally render an equivalent ten times over for all "complimentary" tickets bestowed,) we will just say that we enjoyed the concert all the more for paying our quarter at the door for admittance, and keeping our complimentaries so kindly furnished, in our pocket. And further, we will give, or pay, as much toward the out-door concerts, as any other man who works as hard for his money, and has not got more than we. A fiver is ready to commence with. We believe in the Portsmouth Cornet Band, we do; and we should not only regret to see them languish or get discouraged, but are ready to "do what we can" to prevent such a calamity—though we hope nothing of the kind is possible. Of course these remarks are entirely voluntary on our part.

☞ The Operatic and Dramatic entertainment of the Holman Family, at the Temple Wednesday evening, was one of the most completely successful and agreeable performances we ever attended. The performers were mostly children or young persons, but did everything up in the best style; and the agents, managers and all connected with the troupe, conduct themselves everywhere as becomes true gentlemen and business men. The only fault we can find is, that they failed to commence their entertainment until fully quarter of an hour after their time announced. Little Miss Sallie, the prima donna, is a charming singer and actress, and we predict will win wide fame yet, should no accident befall her. And the others were hardly less attractive. The dancing was first rate, and the drumming ditto; and "Mrs. Partington," and especially Ike, was depicted with a truthfulness which would not have displease B. P. S. himself. The lady pianist did her part very satisfactorily—as in fact did each and all. We understand the Holmans are to appear at the Tremont Theatre, Boston, for a couple of weeks, soon; and we are sure they can call out a full house here when they visit us again. The audience on this occasion was large.

☞ On the evening of Fast Day, about 10 o'clock, some evil-minded person entered the court leading from Washington street to Mr. J. F. Adams' Soap Works, and sawed the spokes on the wheels of three wagons, the shafts of the same, and a sleigh, nearly ruining all the carriages, and doing other mischief. Mr. Adams offers $100 reward for the detection and conviction of the criminal who did this wanton mischief.

POLICE COURT.—Abraham Locke, for breaking and entering the store of Richard Walden, on Water street, was committed to jail to await his trial at the October term of the S. J. Court.

☞ Mr. Fred. Moses has opened the spacious store in Nowell's fine block, as a confectionery and fruit store, and advertises the same this morning. Fred understands the business, and will attend to it carefully and courteously—and so can hardly miss success, especially as he has a good location and hosts of friends to commence with.

The veteran fruiterer, Mr. H. C. Gerrish, also advertises a nice summer drink—which while it cheers does not inebriate, but cools instead of exciting,—"pops" well, but goes down the throat, and never "into the head."

Messrs. C. W. Carter and J. W. Bell are also fitting up the store, corner Chesnut st., for an oyster and refreshment saloon.

☞ The elegant estate known as the 'Cutts Place,' eligibly situated on North Road, at Christian Shore or North Portsmouth, has been sold to Charles Amory, jr. Esq. of Boston, whom we are glad to learn has taken up his residence there, and will of course render it in all respects a habitation worthy his ample means and good taste. The fine yacht Eclipse, referred to a day or two since, belongs to Mr. Amory.

☞ Mrs. H. Rand, mother-in-law of Mr. E. N. Anderson, who in the fire last winter that rendered the family homeless lost all she possessed, publishes a card in the Journal in which she expresses her gratitude to the benevolent ladies and gentlemen of Portsmouth who contributed to her necessities by making up a purse of $57.75; also to the ladies and gentlemen of Middle Street Baptist Church, who presented the sum of $31.90 for the same object.

☞ Acting Assistant Paymaster F. W. Hackett, U. S. N., is "Fleet Paymaster" at Newbern, N. C.

☞ GRANDMA YOUNG, M. D., who is so highly spoken of by the ladies, will remain at the Franklin House for a few weeks longer. Advice free to all. Room No. 44, second floor, near the entrance. She has just received a fresh supply of roots and herbs from Canada. m2 2t

Read the following recommendation from the Cashier of the Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H.

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipisceogee, Nov. 10, 1861.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS.—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. It was pleasant and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an increased quantity this next Spring. Plastic season some late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crops. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a HANDFUL to each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, Respectfully,
ABEL HALEY,
Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro, N. H.

NAVY YARD.—His Exce. [illegible] is to be next month) w[illegible] (t[illegible] his lady on Wednesday, a[illegible] with [illegible]ard and Fort Constitution, in [illegible] Navy Y[illegible]ty Agent, Mayor Dearborn, Ex-[illegible] with the N[illegible] Payne, Senator Hatch, and seve. Walker, Lieu[illegible] were handsomely received at the al others. They [illegible]son, Capt. Murray and Lieut. Yard by Com. Pea[illegible]king the circuit of examin-Bradford; and after ta[illegible]dad, the Franklin, Ordnance rooms, and the various [illegible] places of interest on the Yard, the company visited [illegible] the Commodore's fine mansion, and partook of th[illegible]t hospitality which he so liberally bestows. Here a[illegible]so was presented as rich a treat for the eye as for the palate, in the rare products of Chinese and Japan ingenuity—a display of their superior skill in arts which are exclusively their own, and which neither European nor American genius has yet been able to equal. Com. Pearson has been in positions to select these specimens in the places of their production.

There are now employed on the Yard about 1800 mechanics and laborers. The Iron-clad is rapidly progressing, and important improvements in the Yard are being made.

FORT CONSTITUTION.—When this Fort received this name we cannot say. When the Revolution commenced, it bore that of "William & Mary."—After the Revolution it was not garrisoned until 1801, when a company of about thirty soldiers was sent there from Boston. It was then only about half the present size. It had but one house in it, and in that house lived Mr. Duncan previous to 1801, who had charge of the light-house.—In 1808 it was enlarged and the present walls erected.

The Fort is now being enlarged to about double the present size—the battlements on the south side will be extended about half way to the light house. The work is progressing under the the direction of Lieut. Payne, and about one hundred men are constantly employed.

To the Editors of the Portsmouth Journal,—

I was glad to see in your last Journal a short editorial headed, "our Congress Delegation," vindicating them from an insinuation, by the Portsmouth reporter for the Ballot, that they are either incompetent, or are lacking interest for the prosperity of the Navy Yard at this place.

He says, "we sometimes wish we could have had those hard working members of Congress from the old Bay State exchanged for some of ours."—Indeed; we think, the writer must be alone in his occasional wish. We believe there is hardly a Republican here, that is not proud of our delegation in Congress, and willing to compare them with the delegation of the Old Bay, or any other State. The intimation that they have not given so much attention to the interests of the Portsmouth Navy Yard as they should, appears to us, not only unjust, but ungrateful, particularly to Hale, Rollins & Marston, who have always evinced a deep interest in this yard, looking after and working for its enlargement and improvement—even unsolicited. Ever ready, in season and out of season, to conduct and carry out the wishes of our citizens in regard to it—they deserve, and I doubt not, have, the hearty thanks of our people.

Besides, they have accomplished much; their influence is felt in Washington and secu here.

If all has not been done at the Yard that should be, we fear the blame lies at our own door. We have not backed up the labors of our faithful servants with the zeal we should have done; let us do that, and we shall soon get all that belongs to us. PORTSMOUTH.

Mr. Lamprey's School, for instruction in the polite departments of education, it will be seen, will be opened on Wednesday next, May 6th.—The good standing of Mr. L. is a guarantee that he will acquit himself in a manner satisfactory to those entrusted to his care.

Health Regulations.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH of the City of Portsmouth call the attention of the public to the following sections of City Ordinance No. 4, and invite all interested in the preservation of health in the City to aid them in the execution of their duty.

SEC. 3.—All waste water of houses yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c. shall be conveyed by their own sewers or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the Health Officers may direct.

SEC. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance, or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

SEC. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of building having such vaults or privies as may require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

SEC. 11. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain, time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode—shall neglect to comply therewith, the said health officers may, by direction of the mayor and accompanied by the city marshal, forcibly enter such building, vessel, or enclosure and cause the said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

SEC. 14. The owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure shall be liable to pay the expense of the removal or destruction of any such nuisance or other thing, as aforesaid, including fees of the health officers who order or cause the same to be removed; and the same may be recovered by action to be brought in the name of the city.

SEC. 16. And whenever any person or persons shall violate any rule or regulation, or commit any act forbidden in any section of this ordinance, to which no special penalty is annexed, shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than one dollar nor more than twenty dollars, to be recovered by complaint before the police court of this city.

Morning Chronicle

SPRING.

The grass is springing, springing,
On hillside and on lea,
Its tiny banners flinging
Everywhere, to hail the dawning
Of Spring's glorious morning—
And I'm glad, so glad.

The Crocus hastes to greet us,
Waiting not for tardy leaves,
First of all the flowers to meet us,
Resting on its white stems, gleaming
Like a little bare-foot child
Awaked from dreaming,
And I'm so glad, so glad.

Sine-bird and robin singing
Their flight from southern climes,
Surprise us with their singing;
Cheery notes their throats are filling,
Spite of leafless trees and winds so chilling,
And I'm so glad, so glad.

The violet, too, is singing
From her little nest of leaves;
Her song is perfume, mingling
With that other sweet song of birds;
It touched me—this music without words,
And I'm so glad, so glad.

Cuddlike joy my heart is filling;
Yet another thought is there,
All my nature gently thrilling,
Turning happy thoughts to praying—
To the Giver reverent saying,
I am glad, so glad.

A POST OFFICE WITH A REVOLVING TURRET.—Col. A. N. VanAlstine has been removed from the Postmastership at Canajoharie, and John C. Smith, President of the Canajoharie Bank has been appointed in his stead. VanAlstine's name was among the first of appointments under the Lincoln Cabinet. Then he was removed, and Brown Stafford appointed in his stead.—Then Mr. Stafford was removed, and Mr. VanAlstine re-appointed. Then again Mr. VanAlstine was removed and another gentleman given the place. Then the other gentleman was removed, and VanAlstine reinstated. Finally, by way of variety, VanAlstine is removed, and John Smith—we've heard the name before—became the lucky man.—Schenectady Star and Union.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Also, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed, if not unexceptionably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below prove that none ARE MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES ARE DERIVED, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States, and Foreign Countries since, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are hence saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is some pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sureof having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and put out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without coming to relight.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.'

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

NO. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, N. H., Jan. 1, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the Right of VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of all the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,
A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by DR. WM. GRACE surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

MAY.

I feel a warmer life in every gale,
The winds that fan the flowers,
And with their welcome breathings fill the sail,
Tell of serener hours.—
Of hours that glide unfelt away
Beneath the sky of May.

The spirit of the gentle south wind calls
From his blue throne of air,
And where his whispering voice in music falls
Beauty is budding there.
The bright ones of the valley break
Their slumbers, and awake.

The waving verdure rolls along the plains,
And the wide forest waves,
To welcome back its playful notes again—
A canopy of leaves;
And from its darkening shadow floats
A gush of trembling notes.

Fairer and brighter spreads the reign of May;
The tresses of the woods
With the light dallying of the west wind play;
And the full brimming floods,
As gladly to their goal they run,
Hail the returning sun. J. G. PERCIVAL.

Not long ago, a Methodist local preacher in one of the coal-mining towns of England was brilliantly discoursing to an audience of considerable size. He proceeded to wind up with a peroration of great force, and in his fervor raised himself even above his natural height, which was not diminutive; the front of the pulpit was not high, and the preacher overbalanced himself; down he went, head foremost, into the singing pew, fairly turning a somerset, and landing upon a music stand in a sitting position, with such force as to shiver the woodwork in a terrible manner. The female portion of the auditory screamed, and even the men were disconcerted; but the preacher rose to his feet, declared that if he had fallen twice as far the Lord would not have allowed him to be killed, and then went on with his sermon with no less fervor than before.

—— John C. Learned, a native of Dublin in this State, is to be ordained as a Unitarian minister, and installed as pastor of the Unitarian church and society of Exeter, next Wednesday afternoon. The Ballot states that Rev. Mr. Alger, of Boston, will preach the sermon, and that Rev. Dr. Peabody of Harvard College will take part in the exercises.

—— They've got "an elegant Hack of modern style" in Exeter.

☞ The rebel gunboat Webb, it is confirmed, was completely destroyed by our gun boats, in the fight at Port Hudson.

"WHERE IS FANCY BRED?" The "Southern Chivalry" are fond of boasting that they are the best bred people in the world, and yet they have lately had, at Richmond and elsewhere, the worst bread riots that ever the world heard of.—[Vanity Fair.

☞ The Charleston Mercury says that a rebel naval officer is about to start with a vessel to meet the Alabama. Another will be ready early in May.

☞ The Richmond papers deny the story of Fernando Wood that rebel overtures of peace have been made to our government, and so Fernando has come between two fires.

☞ The Ellsworth, Me., American says almost all keepers of honey bees complain this spring of the death of all their bees. There is hardly a hive in the region that wintered well; in most instances all are dead.

☞ Amun L. Parker of Carthage, Me., recently killed near his residence, a wolf measuring 7 feet 6 inches in length, and standing 3 feet 4 inches in hight. A hundred dollars had been offered for his capture. He was killed by poison.

☞ A deed of wild land recently recorded in Houlton, Me., required $380 worth of revenue stamps. The consideration was $200,000.

☞ Some of the musket contractors are getting anxious in their minds. The high exchange will take off all their profits, as they are obliged to import the gun barrels.

☞ The Cunard Company announce a fortnightly independent new line to New York, beginning May 19.

MONDAY, MAY 4, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

From semi-official dispatches from Gen. Banks, dated near St. Martinsville, La., April 17, it appears that the results of his expedition are—accomplishing a march of 200 miles; beating the enemy in three battles—two on land, and one on Grand Lake; dispersing the rebel army utterly; destroying the rebel navy; capturing the foundries of the enemy at Franklin and New Iberia, and demolishing the salt works 10 miles southwest of the latter place; capturing the camp equipage, also several guns and between 1000 and 2000 prisoners, and so deranging their plans that the rebels cannot for some time reorganize their land or naval forces in that portion of Louisiana.—Other successes, already known, are mentioned. Our loss in the two land battles was 600 or 700. Nothing could exceed the conduct of the officers and privates in Gen. Banks' command. The dispatches say—"We have not only destroyed the army and navy of the enemy, and captured his materials for the reorganization of his forces, but we have also in our possession his ablest officers of the sea and land."

The rebels have been driven out of Williamsburg, Va.

Our troops have taken Mabew, Miss., on the Mobile & Ohio R. R. Unionists from Corinth have destroyed 20 miles of the Central Mississippi R. R., from Ducktown to Winona.

It is confirmed that Gen. Grant's army is in motion, and it is stated on what is considered reliable authority that our troops under Gen. Osterhaus now occupy Grand Gulf.

The Charleston Mercury admits that the Federals captured at Grand Lake, La., 1000 prisoners, two rams, four transports and three gunboats.

Gen. Carter crossed the Cumberland below Somerset, Ky., on Thursday, with 5000 men, attacked the rebels at Monticello, and after a severe fight drove them from the town.

Information from Western Virginia up to Friday afternoon, received through private sources, is that the Union forces under Gen. Mulligan were repulsed near Fairmount, and that the Baltimore & Ohio RR. at that point was entirely destroyed by the rebels. A large force of rebels now occupy Morgantown. The Baltimore & Ohio R. R. has suffered severely. The bridge at Fairmount, on the Chester river, was blown up.

April 21st, Gen. Banks occupied Opelousas and Washington, La., and the column was resting at the latter place. The rebel fort Butler La Rose, on the Atchafalaya, 60 miles north of Brashear City, capitulated to our gunboats on the 20th. 56 prisoners were taken, 2 cannon and a considerable quantity of ammunition.

The N. Y. Tribune says the movement of a portion of Gen. Hooker's army down the river was a feint. Late Wednesday night the 3d corps, marched up again and joined the 2nd Corps at Banks' Ford, and early Thursday morning the 1st Corps followed, so that on Thursday morning there were three corps across the Rapidan, marching straight on the rear of Fredericksburg by way of Chancellorsville, a village 12 miles distant from that city, and three more are at Banks' Ford, with the road to the United States Ford open and communications established with the advancing columns. All six are in position to move directly upon the rebel line of communication. The 7th Corps is still, with a formidable display of force, threatening to cross below and assail the other flank of the enemy.

Saturday night's dispatches give many rumors from Gen. Hooker, among them that there was a panic at Fredericksburg; that the train from Richmond failed to reach Fredericksburg on the 30th and it was believed that Stoneman's cavalry had got between the rebel army and Richmond, and would cut off their supplies: also, that a strong diversion has been made from Suffolk in the direction of Richmond. Gen. Wade has occupied Chancellorville.

By Telegraph, Sunday, to Messrs Hutchings, Haley, and others.

Gen. Hooker has issued the following general order, dated Headquarters Army of the Potomac, Camp near Falmouth, April 30:—

"It is with the most heartfelt satisfaction that the Commanding General announces to the Army that the operations of the last three days have determined that our enemy must either ingloriously flee, or come out from behind his defences and give us battle on our own ground, where certain destruction awaits him. The operations of the 5th, 11th and 12th corps have been a succession of splendid achievements."

A Baltimore dispatch says the crisis will, the Baltimore and Ohio R. R. is now past. The rebels have all left it, moving westward. Our military forces, in great strength, are following and endeavoring to intercept them. The damage to the main road is confined to the large iron bridge one mile east of Fairmount, and to 5 others within 30 miles west of it. 3 bridges on the Parkersburg branch, within 20 miles of Grafton, were also destroyed. The track is uninjured, except at these bridges. A Philadelphia dispatch says the military authorities seem convinced that Wheeling is the object of attack, and troops are being concentrated there. The reports state that Gen. Mulligan lost 250 man taken prisoners, but he escaped with his artillery. The rebels at Fairmount are said to be 12,000 strong.

The Jackson Appeal says the recent cavalry expedition into central Mississippi, threatening Columbus and Grenada, excels in daring all former Yankee raids. The Appeal has late intelligence from Arkansas that the rebels are rapidly reorganizing under Kirby Smith and Sterling Price, and will soon give the Unionists trouble in Missouri.

A New Bedford dispatch, 2d, says that Capt. Skiff, of brig Leonidas, just arrived from St. Domingo, reports that he was driven into St. Domingo by the pirate Retribution, which waited off the port three days for the Leonidas to come out. On the 4th day the U. S. steamer Alabama came down and captured the Retribution, and when last seen had her in tow.

A dispatch from Washington, Saturday night, says advices from every section of the country were of the most cheering character; all the rumors prevailing at a distance, of defeat or disaster of any kind, were unfounded.—200 rebel prisoners arrived in Washington on Saturday.

A New England Church and Society and its Pastor.—Rev. Dr. Vermilye, of Newburyport, has closed a pastorate of thirteen years with the First Presbyterian church and society in Newburyport, on account of ill health. This society has for a long series of years been one of the largest and most flourishing in New England. It has never quarrelled with or sent away a minister, and the connection between pastor and people has always been pleasant and friendly. * * * * * *

We wish that churches and pastors of this character may be greatly multiplied in our land. Although at times an arrogant pharisee or a busybody in other men's matters may have crept into its sanctuary, yet as a body it has always been an exemplar church. Neither pastor nor people have been ambitious to take the government of the world out of the hands of the Almighty, and shape it in accordance with their own short-sighted vision and limited intellect. They have believed that the church of God should be the home of love, of long-suffering, forbearance, and the crowning grace of charity, rather than the arena of strife and the promoter of political and social animosity. Our sympathies are with such. We have enough of anger and contention, six days in the week; enough of unholy ambition and self-righteous assumption, outside of the sanctuary. In the name of Him who refused not to eat with publicans and sinners, and who wept over the delusions of a people who, deeming themselves the exclusive and chosen people of God, rushed madly upon their own destruction,—let us beware how we become puffed up, vaunt ourselves and behave unseemly. May we have one day in the week in which the professor may leave his spiritual pride behind him, and the non-professor retire from the struggles of the work-day world; one place, even the Temple of the Most High, where we can meet, not as saints and as sinners, but as all sinners,—thankful for undeserved blessings, and ready to lay our peace-offerings and sacrifices, with proper reverence and humility, upon the altar of the Lord God of hosts.

Happy will it be for that nation and that people who become thus imbued with the true spirit of Christianity. Then will the number be greatly lessened of those, who passing from this state of existence to the judgment seat of Christ in the confident belief that they are the elect of God, and are about to pass into mansions of bliss, become astounded by the terrible sentence, —"depart from me, I never knew you!"—Traveller.

Stabbing Case.—A fellow named Abbott stabbed Marshal Tarbox, of Biddeford, Me., on Fast Day, because the marshal was endeavoring to do his duty in keeping order, and said as much to Abbott, who thereupon became abusive. When the marshal undertook to arrest him, Abbott stabbed him in the neck, and then cut his own throat, but fortunately Mr. Tarbox was not dangerously wounded, and both men are doing well.

☞ A young woman of respectable character, aged 19 years, committed suicide on the 23d inst., by throwing herself into the Lamoile river in Milton, Vt. She had been for some time much distressed in mind from the treatment she received from her family, on account of her leaving the Romish Church and joining the Protestants, about a year ago.

The Knoxville Register calls Gen. Rosecrans "the quondam soap boiler." The Register has found out that he can lather the rebels, and certainly it ought not to grumble at that, for a dirtier set of dogs never befouled the air.

☞ A Newarker has just invented a patent adjustable saddle, suited to any horse or mule, irrespective of size. Also a saddle which may be converted into a pack saddle, or ambulance, at will.

☞ The Boston Post says bay brings the enormous price of $440 per ton in Virginia.

☞ The only States in the Union which have no banks are California and Oregon.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The body of Rob't Means, Esq., who died at Newbern a short time since, was brought to Exeter on Wednesday.—He was a native of Amherst, was Collector of Taxes two years, City Marshal two years, in Manchester; was Mayor of Sioux City, and held various offices under government. He was brother to Wm. G. Means, Esq., and of Rev. James Means, who lately died at the same place. He was very popular, a very genial, companionable man, and the news of his decease will cause sadness among his many friends.

—— The census of Nashua, just taken, gives a population of 8055—of whom 3484 are males and 4571 females. This shows a decrease of 2010 since the census of 1860, when the population was 10,065.

—— A fire in the woods near Dover, on Thursday last, burned over about one hundred and fifty acres of woodland.

—— The monthly tax of Rochester under the Excise law for the month of March amounted to $321,58 which is probably not exceeded by more than four towns or cities in the State.

—— A Concord correspondent of the Dover Enquirer says "Allen Tenney will be elected Secretary of State, as has been the custom, for the third time. He is universally liked and capable in the performance of the duties of his office." True as a book. And when you've elected him for a third time, make a new custom and elect him for a fourth.

—— The Statesman says the next House of Representatives will be the largest ever chosen in New Hampshire. It will consist of 331 members. Only two places failed to make a choice; the town of Gorham, and the classed town of Errol, Cambridge, &c.

—— Betsey Whitney, a maiden lady of Concord, 73 years of age, was found dead on Thursday morning, in her dwelling near the North Church. On Wednesday evening she expressed a desire to retire early, in order to be strengthened for attendance upon the religious services of Fast Day. She had been ill several years, but recently was in better health than usual.

—— The Statesman's Washington correspondent writes that the following persons have been recommended for appointments under the new conscription law, in addition to those mentioned last week. Second District: Hon. Anthony Colby, Marshal; Dr. R. B. Caswell, Weare, Surgeon; Henry F. Richmond, Commissioner. Third District: Dr. Dixi Crosby, Surgeon; Hon. Ethan Colby, Commissioner. Col. R. N. Batchelder preferred to retain his place in the Army to becoming Marshal of the 2d District.

—— Mrs. George R. Moore, of Manchester, committed suicide on Thursday morning by hanging. Her husband died a year since, and she has been since subject to fits of despondency. She was 35 years of age.

—— The Com. Bulletin mentions among new counterfeits, 5's on the Rochester Bank.

—— Messrs. McFarland & Jenks, of Concord, the publishers, have just issued their neat annual, The Political Annual for the State of New Hampshire, A. D. 1863. It is full of valuable tables, very conveniently arranged.

—— A correspondent of the Manchester Union states that a little girl, 12 or 14 years of age, named Josephine Bosworth, who says her father is an Englishman and her mother a Yankee, and reside in Providence, R. I., was left at the depot in Concord on Saturday. Her story is, that she had lived a year with the Shakers at Canterbury, had left them and returned home to Providence. Her parents sent her back without consulting with the Shakers, who refused to take her. The city authorities sent her to the City Farm at West Concord.

—— Miss Hannah D. Lane, who, has taught a primary school in Manchester, in the same building, for 18 years, recently resigned. Her scholars have presented her a silver fruit basket.

—— The American says the 10th regiment has moved four miles from Suffolk, on the Nansemond river. Eleven of Capt. Madden's men, Co. K, have been taken prisoners. The regiment is under marching orders.

—— Wm. H. Bell's jewelry store in Fisherville was broken open last Sunday night, and merchandize stolen to the amount of $60.

—— S. L. Gardiner, Esq., has been appointed recruiting officer for Claremont and vicinity, to enlist men to garrison Fort Constitution, under Lt. Col. C. H. Long.

—— Judge Alvah Smith's house and tannery, at Lempster, were destroyed by fire on Monday afternoon. There was one thousand dollars' insurance on the property, which was worth five or six times that amount. This is the second time within a few years that Judge Smith has been burned out.

☞ A robin in New Canaan, Conn., has been taking music lessons somewhere, and astonishes the people of that town by singing the song of "Whip-poor-will" as perfectly as the original performer.

☞ The attempt to light St. Nicholas Hotel, New York, with gas made from petroleum was a failure. At first the proprietors were pleased, but the trial of a few weeks led to its discontinuance.

☞ Within a few weeks, Mr. Rufus Welch, of Topsfield, Mass., has lost 7 children from diptheria. He has one left.

The other is, Spectacles for Young Eyes: Pekin. By Sarah W. Lander. 218 pages.

Both books are for sale here by J. H. Foster.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy through for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be secured, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHEAL AND ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

For sale in Portsmouth by THACHER and PRESTON,

Local.

☞ Concerning the "rape case," so called, at the Pine Tree Cottage, last week—we give on the fourth page to-day, the remarks of the Journal. It was evidently expected that we would publish the evidence in the case, given before the Police Court, as there was an unusual outside demand for our Daily next morning; but we don't insert such filthy matter, of course. We will only add here, that while the testimony of the unfortunate girls referred to, shows that they were not obliged to go to the den where they were found, yet they were most brutally treated while there, though not by him who took them there—but the facts in the case being undoubtedly revolting enough, it is needless to hear, believe, or repeat the numerous extravagant and ridiculous stories which are greedily circulated about the affair,—implicating several persons who were not really there nor likely to be.

☞ A Concord correspondent of the Manchester Union gives a variety of news, and states, among other things, that "seven companies" of the consolidated 2d regiment are at Fort Constitution. This is an error; there are only two companies there. 150 soldiers are an ample supply for that fort at present. Other forts are unarmed, and if the militia force of New Hampshire were formed and drilled as they were in 1812, and as they should be, now, our port might be considered well defended.

Our legislature meets in June,—and it should revive the militia, on the basis of the United States law.

☞ A small, one-story wooden house, No. 7 Marlborough street, and directly in the rear of the Portsmouth jail, owned by Ira Haselton, Esq., and occupied by Mr. John L. Green, caught fire near a chimney, soon after 7 o'clock on Sunday morning, and was almost wholly destroyed. The furniture was removed in safety. The house was insured for $300. The new Hook & Ladder Carriage, the Garibaldi, was on the ground promptly and attracted much attention from the crowd assembled. We believe the popular verdict was favorable, although there may have been a half defined feeling that it was too pretty to be used in the midst of smoke, mud and dirty water,—just as a certain individual once remarked of his umbrella, that it was too 'nice' to be carried out in rainy weather.

☞ Eph Horn, one of the most famous and popular of Ethiopian delineaters, and Newcomb, also a great favorite, and well known here—announce one of their grand concerts at the Temple to-night. They have beyond doubt a talented company of assistants, and will give an excellent entertainment.

☞ An investigation has taken place at Sheffield, Eng., regarding the forging of American treasury notes in that town, by two persons named Hides and Tight, engravers and lithographers. It was shown that large amounts had been issued in fives, tens, and twenty dollar notes, principally tens. The case was remanded to the 8th of May.

☞ On Tuesday, a lady who was going in the cars from Haverhill to Newburyport, was asked, when at Georgetown, by another lady to be so kind as to hold a little girl, two or three years old, till she could step into the depot and drink! The woman did not return, and the lady still has the child.

☞ The lots (about 12,600 square feet) and buildings occupied as the office of the National Intelligencer, in Washington, were sold at auction on Wednesday for $80,000.

☞ The French still make little progress in Mexico. They now claim one-third of Puebla, after 15 days' fighting. But the principal fortifications remain; there are 64 fortified buildings intact, including three fortifications of great strength.

☞ Mr. Adams having granted a special license to a vessel from England to Matamoras, considerable trouble has been occasioned in England. The London Daily News thinks there can be no doubt that the irritation between England and the United States is gradually increasing.

A gentleman who recently escaped from East Tennessee, says that the rebels are so enraged at the loyal citizens, they frequently shoot them down while cutting wood, or plowing. The approach of rebel cavalry, is the signal for a general flight to the woods. The Union men hide by hundreds in caves, thickets and ravines.—Nashville Union.

☞ By the falling of a shed at Little Washington, N. C., during a severe gale on Thursday night, Co. D of Mix's 3d N. Y. Cavalry, lost nearly all of its horses, they being either killed or disabled.

☞ The editor of the Atlanta, Ga., Confederacy, having a large amount of gold, has been arrested in New York on his way from Canada.

INCREASE OF RATS.—The Farmers' Gazette (English) asserts and proves by figures that one pair of rats will have a progeny and descendants amounting to no less than 651,050 in three years. Now, unless this immense family can be kept down, they would then consume more food than would sustain 65,000 human beings. It will be far wiser in the farmer to turn his attention to the destruction of rats than of small birds.

Certainly it will. Whoever engages in shooting small birds is a cruel man: whoever aids in exterminating rats is a benefactor. We should like some of our correspondents to give us the benefit of their experience in successfully driving out these pests. We need something besides dogs, cats, and traps for this business.—Eds. Scientific American.

We can give our experience in a very few words. "Costar's" Rat Exterminator is the simplest, safest, cheapest, and surest remedy; the most perfect Rat-ification meeting we have ever attended. Every rat that can get it, properly prepared according to directions, will eat it, and every one that eats it will die, generally at some place as distant as possible from where the medicine was taken.—Lake Shore (Mich.) Mirror.

See the advertisement in this paper. Sold in Portsmouth by W. R. Preston.

☞ GRANDMA YOUNG, M. D., who is so highly spoken of by the ladies, will remain at the Franklin House for a few weeks longer. Advice free to all. Room No. 44, second floor, near the entrance. She has just received a fresh supply of roots and herbs from Canada. m2 2t

Read the following recommendation from the Cashier of the Lake Bank, Wolfboro' N. H.

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipisseogee, Nov. 10, 1862.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS.:—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an additional quantity this next spring. Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crops. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, Respectfully,
ABEL HALEY,
Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro, N. H

From the Journal

A DEMONIAC REVEL.

The feelings of our community were greatly shocked by the disclosure, on Monday last, of the grossest outrages which have taken place here for many years. On Friday of last week, two young girls, one 14 and the other 17 years of age, belonging to respectable families, were missing from their homes. As no trace of them could be found on Saturday, their parents gave information to City Marshal Bragdon, supposing that they had gone off in the cars, or were secreted somewhere in this vicinity. On Sunday afternoon, some circumstances disclosed the probability that they were at the Pine Tree Cottage, a house of low repute on the Sagamore road in Rye next beyond the almshouse. It was after sunset when the City Marshal, accompanied by Assistant Bailey, visited the house. Around it were eight or ten carriages and horses—and the sound of a violin was heard within. They entered the house without notice, and into a room where a company of men and boys were dancing. They made enquiry of the keepers of the house, John Varrell and wife, for the missing girls. They said they had no knowledge of them. The Marshal with his authority told them the girls were there, and demanded to be shown at once to their room. They then went up stairs—the Marshal went ahead and opened the chamber door—and such a disclosure! Even the rudest savages would have blushed at the scene, and devils only would have looked on with complacency! No less than twelve or fifteen of these demons in human shape, some of them married men, escaped from the chamber with such speed that in the dusk of the evening they could not all be recognized. The girls were fortunately rescued, and were glad to be taken to their homes; and have made a full disclosure of the fiendish violence to which they were compelled to submit.

Six or eight of those who were participants in the outrage have been arrested and bound over to appear at the Supreme Court. Others have left the city, but will be arrested as soon as found.—And if justice is done the State Prison will have an addition to its numbers.

As the crime is a heinous one, which would ruin the reputation of any man, we defer the publication of the names of those arrested until the Court decides whether any and how much or all are guilty.

Varrell and his wife are in Portsmouth jail, awaiting trial.

CLAIMS FOR DAMAGES FOR DEFECTS IN HIGHWAYS.

Extracts from the Revised Statutes of this State, Chapter 57.

Sec. 1. "In case any special damages shall happen to any person, or his team, or carriage, by reason of the obstructions, insufficiency or want of repair of any highway or bridge, in any town, the person injured shall recover his damage in an action against such town.

Sec. 2. The town shall have a remedy over against any surveyor of highways through whose fault or neglect the said damage happened.

Sec. 7. Every town and surveyor of highways shall be liable for any damage arising from the snow encumbering the same, as from any other deficiencies."

Such are the most important provisions of the present law of New Hampshire in regard to "defects in highways," and from the operation of which the City of Portsmouth has, within a few years, paid thousands of dollars, and under the present law is liable, at any time, to pay more; whenever a protruding ledge, rock, stump of a tree, gully made by running water, or snow and ice, or any other obstruction, however trifling, may be considered the cause of or made a pretext for claiming damages. In the course of a year, obstructions might arise a thousand times without the knowledge of the city authorities, and none of them might be observed in season to prevent accidents, even if a man is riding all the time to discover them. Under the circumstances, is not the law as it now stands unreasonable, unequal, and unjust; leading to litigation, cupidity, in unjust prosecutions for extortionate damages, not founded in reason or equity?

As a remedy, would it not be well for our city government to request the representatives from this city to the State Legislature to use their exertions to have an act passed as an amendment to Chapter 57, reading somewhat like the following:

Be it enacted, &c., As an act in amendment to Chapter 57 of the revised Statutes relative to cities and towns being liable for damages from defects in highways, that no city, town, or surveyor of highways, shall be liable for damages for said defects, for any cause, unless it can be removed at reasonable expense, and not until they shall have had notice of the same, and sufficient time has elapsed for removing or repairing the same; and in case of differences of opinion as to time and expense, the case shall be decided by the County Commissioners, or, as far as may be, by disinterested referees, the expense (if any) of which shall be borne by the party that the case may be decided against.

The above, which is the substance of a law now in force in Maine, or something similar, seems necessary to remedy the the unequal operation of the existing statute. It is to be hoped that when the reference to committee is again made in the House, it will be sent to the committee on Towns, rather to that on the Judiciary.

Health Regulations.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH of the City of Portsmouth call the attention of the public to the following sections of City Ordinance No. 4, and invite all interested in the preservation of Health in the City to aid them in the execution of their duty.

SEC. 3.—All waste water of houses yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c. shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the nearest public sewer, or to such places as the Health Officers may direct.

SEC. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance, or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or cellar; or into any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

SEC. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the ground. And all owners or occupiers of houses having such vaults or privies as may require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

SEC. 11. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein, and in case such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode—shall neglect to comply therewith, the said health officers may, by direction of the mayor and aldermen, by their order, cause forcibly enter such building, vessel, or enclosure and cause the said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

SEC. 14. The owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure shall be liable to pay the expense of the removal or destruction of any such nuisance or other thing, as aforesaid, including fees of the health officers who order or cause the same to be removed; and the same may be recovered by action to be brought in the name of the city.

SEC. 16. And whenever any person or persons shall violate any rule or regulation, or commit any act forbidden in any section of this ordinance, to which no special penalty is annexed, shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than one dollar nor more than twenty dollars, to be recovered by complaint before the police court of this city.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 2 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. All the oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be confined day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise

MAGEE COOK.

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—the hollow bottom—to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth supported upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. Which in all works is better, as in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that he has of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertices of open joints to collect food, and consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best dentists; and I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country.
S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do in the best manner. It will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TEALDWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

The Chronicle.

"Round to no party—to no sect confined:
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

A MODEL COMPOSITION.—To boys and girls who are perplexed to know what to write about and how to write it when required by their teacher to bring a "composition," we commend the following model:

Winter.—Winter is the coldest season of the year because it comes in the winter In some countries winter comes in the summer, and then it is very pleasant. I wish winter came in the summer in this country. Then I could go skating bare-foot and slide down hill in linen trousers. We could snow-ball without our fingers getting cold—and men who go out sleigh-riding wouldn't have to stop at every tavern to warm, as they do now. It snows more in the winter than it does in any other season of the year. This is because so many cutters and sleighs are made at that time.

Ice grows much better in winter than in summer, which was an inconvenience before the discovery of ice-houses. Water that is left out of doors is apt to freeze at this season. Some people take in their wells and cisterns on a cold night and keep them by the fire, and they don't freeze.

Skating is great fun in winter. The boys get their skates on when the river is frozen over, and race, play tag, break through the ice and get wet all over, (they get drowned sometimes;) fall and break their heads, and enjoy themselves in many other ways. A wicked boy once borrowed my skates and ran off with them, and I could not catch him. Mother said a judgment would overtake him one day. Judgment will have to be pretty lively on his legs if it does, for he runs bully.

There ain't much sleigh-riding except in the winter—folks don't seem to care about it in warm weather. The grown up boys and girls like to go sleigh-riding. The boys generally drive with one hand and help the girls hold their muffs with the other. Bro. Bob let me go along a little away once when he took Celia Crane out sleigh-riding, and I thought he paid more attention to holding the muff than he did to holding the horse.

Snow-balling is another winter sport. I have snow-balled in summer. But we used stones and hard apples. It isn't so amusing as it is in the winter somehow.

But enough. I have dashed off these little things about winter while sister is getting ready for school. Good bye. NEDDY.

TENNESSEE.—The Nashville Daily Union says "one of the most sensible positions advanced in the Declaration of the Nashville Union Club, is the cordial invitation to the lovers of enlightened and law-abiding freedom in every land, to come and settle among us, and also the declaration that it is the duty of all Union men to shape our institutions so as to give every possible inducement to immigration.

It is far more desirable that Tennessee should have 275,000 intelligent white farmers and mechanics, all having a deep personal interest in the welfare of our State, and Society, than that she should have 275,000 slaves.

It is better for our printers, shoemakers, carpenters, blacksmiths, and other workmen, and also for our teachers, preachers, lawyers, physicians and merchants, to have one hundred families living on two hundred acre farms, for customers, than to have ten families, occupying two thousand acre plantations each.

It is better to have free schools dotted thickly over our Commonwealth, where the children of all classes may attend, than to have a few Universities, Academies, and private schools, at which the children of the rich only can attend, while the children of the poor grow up ignorant and uncared for.

Finally, it is better, oh how infinitely better, that we should be a Commonwealth of independent farmers, daring to speak and write our thoughts upon all subjects, than to cower at the feet of a bigoted, intolerant, and selfish negro aristocracy, numbering about one twenty-sixth of the white population of the State."

TUESDAY, MAY 5, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Gens. Vandever and McNeil returned to Cape Girardeau, Mo., from their pursuit of Marmaduke. Marmaduke finally escaped across the White Water river, burning the bridges behind them. Their raid has met a most inglorious end.

The Cairo correspondent of the N. Y. Times says all the railroads connecting with Vicksburg have been cut by our troops.

Advices from New Orleans to the 26th report that our land and naval forces had taken Alexandria, near the head of the Red river. Butte a la Rose was captured by three of our gunboats on the 20th: we lost one seaman killed and two wounded. The army is living on provisions confiscated on the march; meat, poultry and corn are abundant, but there is no flour.

Galveston dates of the 7th ult, state that the rebels have heavily fortified the point running from that city to the fort. A steamer — supposed the Harriet Lane — had come down the river to Galveston, and it was believed the rebels were endeavoring to raise the Westfield.

On Sunday morning the 13th N. H. and the 89th N. Y., with cavalry and infantry, were sent by Gen. Peck across the Nansemond on a reconnoissance; and when two miles out they charged upon the rebels' rifle pits and took some prisoners. Our loss was small; that of the rebels much greater.

Moseby's rebel guerillas were defeated at Warrenton, Va., on the 3d, and 23 taken prisoners. Moseby was wounded, and Templeton, his spy, killed.

Advices from the Rappahannock up to Sunday morning, received at the N. Y. Tribune office, state that our left wing was then in possession of Fredericksburg, and of the first line of redoubts on the hill behind it, and was feeling its way to the second line. The river was crossed and the redoubts were carried with great ease, and with slight loss of life. The rebels had marched away in the direction of Chancellorville, ten miles above Fredericksburg, to attack our right wing, leaving not more than from 5000 to 7000 men in their works. A great portion of our Falmouth batteries were engaged on Sunday with the rebel batteries, firing across the river and city. The firing, both of musketry and cannonading, on the right, was very heavy. The enemy had been forced to fight on the ground of Gen. Hooker's choosing, as he promised his soldiers should be the case. It was believed in both wings that Gen. Stoneman's expedition to cut the railroad between the rebels and Richmond had proved successful, thus cutting off the only path of retreat.—There are also rumors that the rebels' stores near Fredericksburg and at Stoneman's Station had been burned; that our right had captured 16 pieces of artillery; that the Irish brigade had taken 3 rebel batteries; that our cavalry were tearing up the railroad tracks on the rebel lines, destroying rebel property, crossing their country, carrying consternation and dismay to the rebels; and that our forces advanced a mile on Saturday, driving the rebels, and were still driving them with great slaughter.

☞ A horrible steamboat explosion occurred at San Francisco April 27th, killing 40 out of 60 passengers, and wounding many more. Among the killed are Capt. Salay, and Hiram Kimball, the Mormon missionary.

☞ In the pockets of each of the three Ohio deserters who are to be shot in Western Virginia this week, letters were found from their fathers advising them to desert. Governor Tod has advised the President to shoot the fathers instead of the sons.

Some brute says it is supposed that hurricanes are caused by all the women in the world talking at once; but their infrequency seems to mitigate against the theory.

☞ A postal convention of all nations is to be held at Paris next month, its object being to establish a uniform rate of postage on foreign letters.

A colporteur going with tracts into a log house of a dweller in Ohio, asked the woman if they had the gospel there. She said, "No; but they have a dreadful bad about four miles below."

☞ The "loyal" Boston Saturday Evening Gazette pitches into the secret Union Leagues, and gives a graphic description of the kind of men who compose them.

☞ The Copsecook Paper Co. of Gardiner, Me., have recently filled an order for eleven tons of paper to be shipped to Siam.

☞ The Louisville Journal reports that the growing wheat in that part of Kentucky presents a most promising aspect.

☞ Steam sloop Kearsarge, Capt. Pickering, was at Fayal, April 9th.

☞ It is reported that Madame Varian and Edward Hoffman who recently gave concerts in Augusta, Bangor and Portland, have since been united in marriage.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

——The bells were rung in Exeter at half past 11 o'clock on Sunday evening, to arouse the citizens to find an old gentleman named Beecher, who left his residence at about 8 o'clock, and could not be found.

—— Daniel Barber and wife, of Epping, celebrated their golden wedding on the 22d of April. They have had 11 children—8 sons and 3 daughters. 25 of their descendants were present at the anniversary, which was celebrated at the old family homestead, which has been occupied for 108 years—three generations.

—— The Windham people observed Thursday April 23d, as the National Fast Day appointed by the President. The church was opened and religious services held. The Windhamites evidently believe in taking "time by the forelock."

—— The ordination of Mr. Samuel B. Stewart as pastor of the Unitarian Society in Nashua, postponed on account of the illness of Rev. E. E. Hale and J. F. Clark of Boston, will take place on Wednesday, May 13th, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

—— A term of the S. J. Court will commence at Amherst, Tuesday, May 5. Judge Nesmith will preside. The most important case is that of S. V. B. Bennett of Manchester, charged with causing the death of a woman by poison.

THE QUESTION OF FACES.—A small rebellion occurred in Antioch College, O., last week, caused by the introduction of a negro student from Oberlin. Two classes withdrew, en masse, but the faculty compromised by making a new classification, with other students, so as to avoid the offensive association.

The city of Chatham has always been noted as the centre of attraction among the colored population of Canada. During the past week a jury was called in one of the courts of the city, among whom was a colored man. Five of the white jurymen peremptorily refused to act unless he was removed. The Judge, however, stated that he recognized no distinction on account of color, and accordingly fined the white men $5 each for contempt of court. Four of them paid the fine, but the fifth, unable to raise the money, was sent to prison, but was subsequently released.

☞ The piles sustaining the London bridge have been driven 500 years. In 1845 they were critically examined, and found to have been decayed but slightly; these piles are principally of elm. Old Savoy Place, in the city of London, is sustained on piles driven 650 years ago; they consist of oak, elm, beech and chestnut, and are perfectly sound. The bridge built by the emperor Trajan over the Danube, affords a striking example of the durability of timber in the wet state. One of these piles was taken up, and found to be petrified to the depth of three quarters of an inch, and the rest of the wood had undergone no change, though it has been driven 1600 years.

THE BARBERRY.—It has always been supposed that the barberry was originally brought from Europe into this country, but a writer in the North American Review says there seems to be a certain specific difference between the European and American plant; as people in Europe are cautioned against cultivating the barberry near their houses, on account of the disagreeable scent of its flowers, which are extremely offensive. As this cannot be said of the American plant, the two are probably not identical.

☞ The Boston Commercial Bulletin closes an account of a late social festival of the Brokers of that city, by saying that the occasion "was a most enjoyable one indeed. The festivities were protracted into the dark potentia hours of the night, and we presume many of the participants were "called"—to their breakfasts in the morning" Probably it took a pretty wide-awake fellow to "see" some of those dark doings, didn't it Br. Guild?

☞ There are two thousand eight hundred streets in London, measuring three thousand miles. If placed in a straight line they would extend for more than twice the distance from Calais to Constantinople, and walking ten miles a day, it would take a person more than a year to traverse them, while in the interim a new city, with from sixty thousand to seventy thousand inhabitants, would have sprung up.

POISONOUS GREEN.—The first representation of a new piece was given recently at Hamburg, in which the female dancers appeared in green costumes, to represent water-nymphs. The stuff of which these costumes were made, contained such a quantity of arsenic that the needlewomen who made the dresses all fell ill, and the dancers were attacked with violent symptoms of poisoning while on the stage.

☞ It is said that Geo. F. Train will hold a debate in public with Miss Dickinson, the Republican crinoline champion. George, it is asserted, has netted between thirty and fifty thousand dollars by his lectures in the west.

EDITORIAL JOTTINGS.

MAY DAY was "something like" May this time—and many of the people "made the most of it," too; as some other folks would like to, of what they call "treason," or traitors. However, it is not of that we were going to speak, nor "stratagems or spoils," nor of war,—but of something far more attractive and beautiful—how we went a Maying.

The ladies of the Unitarian Society at Exeter, have annually held a public social gathering at the Town Hall, (which is not much like Portsmouth's City Hall) on May Day; and this time, several of our citizens went up to help enjoy the gay and festive occasion.

An early start—(that is, what by most would be called pretty early, though to one who has risen at 4 o'clock, summer and winter, most of the time for a dozen years or more, 6 is not so very early)—gave our family carriage load of ladies and gentlemen, a chance to improve the picturesque Bay Road, and also to climb Stratham Hill, on the way, for variety. And if the scenery is not so luxuriantly lovely as in June, the lack of vegetation on tree, bush and sward, is at least partially compensated for, in the broader and clearer view which is everywhere afforded through the leafless forests. Among other new beauties thus disclosed, was an immense rock, as large as a one-story house, on the premises of Mr. George Brackett, near the Bay—a handsome moss-covered brown boulder, the largest loose rock we ever saw, probably weighing some thousands of tons, sitting majestically on the green lawn, with several smaller companions,—one of these strangely-beautiful curiosities which instantly set all unscientific beholders to wondering "how they came there."

A glance at that old favorite summer resort, Diman's Highland Cottage, and a regret at the absence of its popular landlord and beautifier, as we passed—and then for Stratham Hill.

A couple of young gentlemen friends of ours, some years since, being about to climb this little mountain,—one thought he could do it in ten minutes, while the other said he only wanted five. Well, on reaching the panting summit, the first found he had struggled up in just two minutes; while his five-minute friend cut down even that short time just fifty per cent!

Now we didn't undertake to make anything like so good time as that—and Old Time himself would have overtaken us if we had, according to that gauge; but all the toil of the ascent, even with breakfast waiting at Exeter, was richly repaid by the view from the top. And, by the way, we believe our last visit here, was on the memorable occasion of that Fourth of July celebration—when Alexander the great delivered an oration; and Bob O'Lincoln, the President's son, read the Declaration of Independence—that brilliant string of "glitter ng generalities;" and the Secretary of Utah introduced both of them in his usual good style; and Diman added the strawberries and cream, &c.

But this morning the scenery was as lovely, and all the more enjoyable from its very quietness. No wonder the pen of the sage of Stratham Hill is inspired by the sight.—But we need not describe the view—only the Shoals appeared singularly near, and the sea seemed to be very much higher than the land or the blue waters of Great Bay.

Now away for Exeter again, stopping only for a few minutes, as all passers should, at the inviting Greenhouses and "Botanic Gardens" of Mr. Wiggin, in Stratham, where are to be seen and purchased a large variety of flowering plants in fine order,—and a most courteous attendant did the civilities of the occasion.

In the woods near Mr. Wiggin's we have before found the ground myrtle in the richest profusion; but

"Though sudden longings wake anew
To wander north ere dries the dew,
And search again the forest wide,
Where pink arbutus loves to hide,"—

we couldn't indulge them,—and are long found ourselves at the Squamscott, then in Exeter Hall, ready for breakfast, and breakfast fortunately also ready for us.

Cromwell's "grace" at table was

"Some can eat, but have no meat,
And some have meat, but cannot eat;
And so the Lord be praised"— that he and his had both, probably—appetite, and something to eate it. And plenty there was, too, here—and of the nicest, with the extra flavor imparted by a fifteen or twenty mile ride in the clear morning air and bright sunlight. And such nice young ladies to serve you, too, with the lightest of bread and the sweetest of butter, and pork and beans which Jonathan himself might be proud of, and all the extras.

The hall was prettily trimmed with evergreen, and there was quite a display of flowers, including several exquisite callas, and rare white and buff roses. These May Festivals are a sort of Fair or Sale for the benefit of the small Unitarian Society at Exeter; and usually net several hundred dollars for the object.

Among the visitors we met Rev. Mr. Lanphear, of the Congregational church; and our old friend Hilliard, without whom, of course, Exeter could have no Fair, especially in the absence of Connor,—he of the Courts, we mean; though we should recommend both of them to terminate the present participle of the single ah of that word, by the addition of "ed" to their present i-so-late-d condition.

We found the carriage manufactory of Head & Jewell in operation, but with only a comparatively small force; and a call on Br. Whittem of the Ballot, shew him in good health and spirits, except a slight attack of indigestion of our jokes. He has got the largest printing office in the world, we guess—the old Town Hall; and has worked hard enough and long enough to lay back now, if he had his deserts from the party he served so well. But "Republic(an)s are ungrateful," ain't they, Thomas?

There was to be a theatrical and tab'eaux show at the Hall in the evening; but we couldn't well stay, and so left all in charge of the dozen delegates from Portsmouth, including the agent of the Arctic Hand Organ, and a gentleman friend of his whom time no longer calls young, but one of those whose hearts will never grow old, and so will always be welcomed in any circle—with ladies of course, they being men of good taste.

Our ride home was through North Hampton and Rye: and on the way we plucked, at the roadside, our first violets, innocents, and anemone—and also came within one of picking up a couple of snakes, for variety. However, we must wind up, and need only say that the ladies (being "safe" in the carriage,) were not afraid of the sinuous reptiles; nor does this deponent say that anybody was skeered. Oh, no—only we hope we shall get a chance at another such May Breakfast—that's all.

Handkerchief Lost.

A nice linen HANDKERCHIEF, bordered with lace, was dropped on Sunday morning, about 10 o'clock, near the corner of Hanover and High streets. A young lady was seen to pick it up; and on leaving it at the Chronicle Office she shall be suitably rewarded, and receive the thanks of the loser, who values it highly as a keepsake.

Special Notices.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true facts.

Local.

☞ The reader will share in the sorrow which we feel, as we record the death of Lieut. George T. Wildes of this city, which occurred at New-Orleans, April 20, after an illness of 10 days, which were preceded by a longer term of slighter indisposition. He was in comfortable lodgings at New-Orleans, and had good attendants, among whom were Messrs. Smith and Payne of this city.

The body is properly prepared, and will be sent home for burial.

Lt. Wildes had resided here for several years, was known to nearly all our people, and justly esteemed one of our most valuable and promising young men. He was active in the promotion of temperance, order and religion at home: and he left a good business and an interesting family, when he entered the army, not for love of military life, but from a sense of duty, and because he loved justice, and liberty, and right; and thus laid himself a living sacrifice, on the altar of his country. He dies—but not in vain: and we sorrow—but not without hope; for he has fought the good fight, and finished his course, and now, with the noble army of martyrs, he wears the crown.

☞ We understand that the Iron Foundry of Ira Haselton, Esq., in this city, which has been closed for some months, is to be opened soon for work. Repairs are going on vigorously on the Sagamore Mill, under the direction of Thomas Norton, Esq.; and the West End will soon resume its wonted activity.

SAIL, Ho!—We enjoyed the seemingly-premature luxury of a sail down river, on Saturday afternoon, May 2d; and so were unable to give on Monday morning any account of our delightful May-Day trip to Exeter—the attractions of a boat-ride, to us, on such a day, being so much stronger than that of penning "notes" to "print 'em." Not only was the weather decidedly summerish most of last week in town and country; but rarely are better sailing days found, in midsummer even.

☞ It has been very sickly at the Shoals during the past two months. There have been over 30 cases of scarlet fever and diptheria—some of them extremely malignant. But fortunately only one in ten have proved fatal. Doctors Folsom of this city and Parsons of Rye have each made a visit there.

GEN. BUTLER, in reply to the question of the Congressional Committee on the war, whether he had any means of knowing the cause of his removal from command at New Orleans,—answered that "had asked everybody he saw in Washington what he was removed for, and nobody had been able to tell him."

Hooker, Grant, Rosecrans and Banks are all moving toward the enemy—some of them fighting him at this moment: Dix is watching him "near Suffolk"—Foster is following his tracks in North Carolina, while Schenck is replacing the rails and rebuilding bridges secesh has torn up and destroyed on the Ohio and Baltimore Railroad, and which Gen. S. never should have allowed to be touched by the foe.—Post.

☞ Among the enlisted in Newburyport last week was Rev. George W. Burnham, of the Advent church. He signed his name "George W. Burnham, of Newburyport, aged 42 years—a minister of God." He belongs to a family that has furnished several clergymen of eloquence and ability.

☞ At a recent performance at the Varieties Theatre in New Orleans, a very exciting time occurred. A demand was made for National airs, which was refused, but subsequently granted amidst loud cheering. Quite a serious emeute was at one time threatened, but was suppressed by the Provost Marshal.

☞ California is pushing the Pacific Railroad vigorously. Beside the regular State aid, several counties have also voted assistance, and it is said that the road will soon be finished across the Sierra Nevada The first division is already graded.

DEATHS.

In this city, on Sunday, May 3, Mrs. LYDIA A. STILES, aged 26 years 5 months, wife of Thomas H. Stiles and daughter of Robert H. Marden.

Funeral from the residence of her father, No. 8 Cabot street, this (Tuesday) afternoon at 3 o'clock. Friends and relatives are invited to attend without further notice.

In Boston, April 30th, Mr. JOHN E. ABBOTT, aged 42 years, formerly of Portsmouth.

At Gosport, April 16th, KATIE J. ROBINSON, aged 5 years, child of William and Mary Ann Robinson.

At Gosport, April 26th, ANDREW J. RENDALL, aged 5 years, only child of Josiah and Eliza E. Rendall.—On the 28th, J. LAWRENCE RENDALL, aged 2 years, only child of James and Abbie A. Rendall.

The fathers of these children are brothers, and the mothers are sisters. The parents of the latter child had but just returned from the funeral of their nephew, whose death was distressingly unexpected, to find their own remarkably fine little boy, previously bright, now sinking in death. A sad case. Still, indeed, is heard that same kind voice saying as of old, "Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God." COM.

Read the following recommendation from the Cashier of the Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H.

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipiseogee, Nov. 10, 1862.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS.—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an increased quantity this next Spring. Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crops. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, Respectfully,
ABEL HALEY,
Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro, N. H

HOW TO LIVE.

BY S. BONAR.

He liveth long who liveth well!
All other life is short and vain;
He liveth longest who can tell
Of living most for heavenly gain.

He liveth long who liveth all
All else is but living away;
He liveth longest who can tell
Of true things truly done each day.

Waste not thy being; back to him
Who freely gave it, freely give;
Else is that being but a dream,
'Tis but to be, and not to live.

Be what thou seemest! live thy creed!
Hold up to earth the torch divine;
Be what thou prayest to be made;
Let the great Master's steps be thine.

Fill up each hour wi h what will last;
Buy up the moments as they go;
The life above, when this is past,
Is the ripe fruit of life below.

Few truth, if thou the truth would'st reap;
Few souls to God, if souls be the vain;
Live and round thy conscience keep;
From hollow words and deeds refrain.

Sow love, and taste its fruitage pure;
Sow peace, and reap its harvest bright;
Live such as one on the mount of prayer,
And find a harvest-home of light.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR
Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Eldridge, a well-known merchant of Galveston, Texas.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, Rhode Island.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged 14, had an affection of humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Pensacola, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Druggist, of the firm of Gage, Morrill & Co., manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable nuisance. I tried almost every thing a druggist of 20 years's standing could think of, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might, but in a short time it began to heal, and the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any humor or blotch of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Smith, Pleasant St., Newton St., New York.

"Dr. AYER. I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have your cover on attack of Erysipelas and Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From Dr. H. Johnson, Delaware, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took barrels of dollars worth of medicine. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and hearty as ever my body. Being in a public place, any one is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Moore, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to all who need it."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Tuskingum Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attended by physicians in this place. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. The skill of the physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began using your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had taken the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood proclaimed that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Dr. Hiram Stout, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a more efficacious remedy for the secondary and tertiary stages of syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. A. Hayes, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"DR. AYER: Dear Sir, I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary types, and effectual in some cases where other remedies had failed to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Ness, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful sores on his legs, caused by the abuse of "mercury," or mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, until he tried this remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA relieved him. The sores healed, the pains and distress ceased, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulceration, and are cured by the use of this, the best effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, in aid of the SARSAPARILLA, the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrill, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia,

when caused by Scrofulous taint in the system, are rapidly cured by this EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not domonstrate them to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly reserved, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall Stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the size large being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large square reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the, constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the fire, thus saving at least 25 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue in the top of the fire can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used.

We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Asryo H. Hill,	Charles H. Bridge,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of retention or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depression—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as may be seen in a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, as shown in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth.

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that he is now prepared to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases, of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the tissues of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertions or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

For one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country.

S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my FORCE EXTRACTOR is still in use.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. HOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER and H. H. HERSEY, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,

A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by DR. WM. GRACE surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find the Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

"Bound to no party—to no best confined:
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended by the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. Swett's PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines could equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by its use. I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it; and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Claims, Specifications, Reissues, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

This, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable an l successfu. practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy than the subscriber, for the preparation of their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN Applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sured having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART,

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 6, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Rebel reports from the Southwest admit that Gen. Banks is in possession of Alexandria, La. They also state that Gen. Grant is moving towards Natchez; also that Gen. Dodge had advanced 11 miles east of Tuscumbia, where he met the rebel Gen. French and fighting was reported to be going on on the 24th ult. Gen. Dodge was in possession of Courtland, Ala., on the 25th. Our gunboats are reported to have withdrawn from Grand Gulf, after 6 hours' firing. The rebel loss was 3 killed, including Col Wade of the artillery, and 22 wounded. Six gunboats, with two transports, passed Grand Gulf on the 28th. Our forces are on the Louisiana shore below.

Of Gen. Hooker's important and, thus far successful movements, we can give but the merest outlines. The following is condensed chiefly from "Carleton's" account in the Boston Journal:

A great battle raged on the Rappahannock on Saturday and Sunday. General Hooker's movement to Chancellorville was not for Richmond, but to compel Lee to fight in the open field or retreat. The latter's army had lately been greatly reinforced by troops from Charleston and from North Carolina. He had been facing north, but as Hooker had turned his left flank he was compelled to change front and face west. On Friday and Saturday morning the two armies were getting into position. Lee massed a large force at Chancellorville, to prevent Hooker from advancing from the flank to his rear. Of our army Howard had the right, Slocum the centre, and Meade the left; Sickles was in the rear of Slocum and Couch in the rear of Meade.—Stoneman meanwhile had been sent to the South with his cavalry to strike a blow at the Virginia Central and Fredericksburg and Richmond railroads. On Friday night both armies were busy throwing up intrenchments. Early on Saturday morning the rebels advanced a column directly upon Chancellorville, but after some skirmishing fell back. In the afternoon they again advanced on our centre. A sharp contest ensued,—the beginning of the battle. Stonewall Jackson, in the meantime, with a heavy train of artillery, and 40,000 men, passed along the entire front of our line, and a mile or two beyond, and then marched rapidly on Howard, getting between the latter and the Rapidan. Carl Schurz's brigade was panic stricken, threw down their arms and rushed towards Chancellorville, and the rebels got possession of 12 pieces of artillery. Hooker ordered a night attack to recover what was lost in position. At 11 o'clock, by the light of the full moon, Birney, Whipple and Ward, under cover of a terrific cannonade, fell like tigers upon Jackson, drove him back half a mile, recovered a portion of the artillery which had been lost, and enabled Hooker to re-form his line. On Sunday the battle raged, and the carnage among the rebels was frightful. Once, at least, many of the rebels were panic stricken. For six hours the battle raged with terrible fury. It closed at 11 o'clock. In the centre we had yielded the ground, while on the right the enemy had been driven. Jackson's coup d'etat had failed, and he had suffered a terrible slaughter, besides losing from 3000 to 4000 prisoners. On Sunday night Hooker was intrenched in a position where he could not be flanked. To stop the advance of Hooker, Lee was obliged to withdraw nearly all his troops from Fredericksburg, which was occupied by our troops, with the capture of two Mississippi regiments, and one company of the celebrated Washington artillery, with eight guns. The main army is now in a position to go on with the work so auspiciously begun. Fredericksburg is ours. Lee has been foiled in his efforts to flank Hooker. He has been repulsed in three assaults. He must fight again on the same ground or retreat.

The Washington Republican has news from the front up to 10 A. M., 4th. It confirms the capture of the Fredericksburg works. Everything was successful up to that time. The rebel batteries at Chancellorville had been silenced, and a number of heavy guns captured. 2000 rebels were captured Monday morning.

The N. Y. World says the fight was renewed on Monday, most desperately. The rebels made a series of fierce attacks on all sides, but were repulsed with terrific slaughter. Our forces have destroyed the bridges across the Mattapony river, in the rear of the rebels, thus completely cutting off all retreat to Richmond. The Philadelphia Enquirer has a dispatch, purporting to come from Washington, stating that a telegram from Lee to Richmond had been intercepted, calling for reinforcements and announcing his inability to hold out two days longer unless they were sent. Stoneman's cavalry are said to have torn up 5 miles of the Virginia Central R. R., near Milford Station, 22 miles south of Fredericksburg.

☞ The Monitor Passaic arrived at New York on Monday, in tow of the steam gunboat James Adger, from North Edisto Island, 29th ult.

☞ A dispatch from Salt Lake says: "The Indians are all suing for peace, which probably will be granted to the Southern Utes."

☞ Since the commencemet of the rebellion 28,000,000 pounds of cotton have been imported from foreign countries to New York.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— John Proctor, Esq., of Andover, has granted to the Christian Society of that town, the free use of a large and elegant hall in some buildings recently erected by him. He secured an ample fortune in the screw business at Providence, R. I., and has now returned to his native town to enjoy the results of his labor. The hall was dedicated last week.

—— The police of Manchester are still active in their war on the dogs. Forty of the canines were killed on Saturday. Licensed dogs are not troubled by the police, but others are disposing of them by means of strychnine.

—— The boys in Concord ushered in May Day with the tooting of tin horns.

—— Lieut. Col. Billings, of the 1st S. C. Volunteers, who was wounded at St. Mary's, Fla., arrived in Concord on Thursday on sick leave.

—— John B. Palmer, Esq., announces by prospectus, that he will commence the publication of a new Democratic paper, in Concord, the 1st of June, to be called the Democratic Sentinel. It is to take the place of the Democratic Standard, destroyed by a mob.

—— A Concord correspondent of the Manchester Union announces with a great flourish that "nearly one hundred ladies appeared at church, last Sunday, in Chichester, wearing the 'copperhead' emblem of the Father of this Country and the Goddess of Liberty." Oh, my!

—— A little boy, 7 years old, while wrestling with another in Manchester on Saturday, fell and fractured his right arm near the shoulder.

—— The much talked of Union Fair in Manchester will come off next week.

—— On Tuesday, April 28th, Eugene Brown, a sprightly lad of 12 years, and son of Nathaniel W. Brown of Grantham, was killed by a fall from a horse which he was riding. The horse stumbled and in the fall the boy received such internal injuries as to cause almost instant death.

—— A letter from Richmond, Ky., Apr. 24, gives the annexed information relative to the New Hampshire troops at that post:

"The 11th N. H., Col. Harriman, is encamped at Winchester. The 6th, Colonel Griffin, and 9th, Col. Titus, are encamped about one mile and a half south of Richmond. Col. Griffin, of the 6th, is one of the best officers in the brigade. He is beloved by his men. The 9th is improving fast. Col. Titus is a fine officer and perfect gentleman. Since he has had command of the regiment the men have made great improvement in drill and neatness.

☞ The Hare in England has been hunted with dogs, horses and guns, by many gentlemen, including some of the clergy, but the practice was going out of date. But Bishop Colenso has lately started the clergy on a hare hunt through the bible, natural history, and the newspapers; and the chase is highly exciting.

Colenso's doubts of the authenticity of the five books ascribed to Moses, have called out many defenders of the sacred canon.—One of these, the bishop of Manchester, lately said that all our hope was gone if "one line" of the Sacred Volume were untrustworthy. Colenso points to a line in Levitious where Jehovah is represented as saying that the hare chews the cud; but it is not true, says Colenso, therefore the Almighty and Allwise could not have said so, and consequently the line is untrustworthy.

The Manchester Bishop replies with a letter of explanation, involving many points and pleas: 1, the bible does not aim at scientific accuracy; 2, it is not certain that the hare was the animal meant; 3, many good men believe the hare chews; and 4, the Vatican has a MS. which reads the hare does not chew.

Many other defenders of the Canon rush to the rescue, with pleas too numerous to mention here: but the most positive of all signs himself "A Firm Believer," and says he does not like these apologies and attempts to explain the bible. "There must be no admission of weakness, or we are lost. It matters not to me, that Prof. Owen says the hare is not a ruminant; the Bible, as we have it in England, says it is, and that is quite sufficient."

These incidents of dispute may seem to some readers, mere trifles; but the dispute itself is on the important point, what is holy scripture and what is not.

☞ The late census returns of manufactures in New-York, show that more capital is employed in the printing trade, than any other business, the amount being more than $8,250,000. Over 6,000 persons are employed in printing, and the various establishments use $6,000,000 worth of paper, ink, &c. per annum, producing over eleven million dollars worth of books, papers, &c.

☞ Among the killed at Chancellorville is Maj. Gen. Hiram G. Berry, of Rockland, Me.,—a brave and devoted officer. Col. Potter, of the 12th N. H. Regiment, an officer in the regular army, was wounded in this fight.

☞ A grand ball was given in New Orleans on the evening of the 24th to celebrate the anniversary of the capture of that city.

THE MUSIC OF FIFTY YEARS.

NO. THREE. (BY UNCLE TONY.)

Our personal knowledge of the music in the old South Meeting-house in Portsmouth, is only of a date so modern as 40 years ago, when Augustus Lord led the singing, Nath'l A. Haven, jr., was the life of the Sunday School, and Dr. Parker was in the full exercise of his ministerial influence. The choir, at that time, when we saw it, was numerous, as well as the congregation; and the performance was satisfactory. But when the Stone Church was built, in 1825, and the organ introduced, the old choir soon disappeared,—and the subsequent musical events and changes there are as yet too modern for the historian.

But we have excellent means of going back to find what the old music was in that old house, viz., that there is a well known good judge of music, whose ear is still keen, and who enjoys a good concert as well as anybody, who now walks our streets briskly and attends to business,—and who belonged to and led the choir there for about twenty years, closing in 1815 or '16, viz., Mr. Abraham Wendell. He has a decided preference for the old tunes then in use, though to our knowledge he enjoys good new ones also,—and feels grieved when a tune is murdered, though he does not say much about it. In those days the choir was often large, and the music good for considerable periods. His musical career in that parish, and his attendance there, came to a close consequent on a "political sermon" by Rev. Mr. Parker, who was a federalist, which caused the republican chorister to remove to the Universalist Church, where Rev. Mr. Ballou then ministered.

It is a curious fact, and though not a musical one, it may come in here—that Mr. Ballou preached a republican sermon on the same day, which resulted in the loss of his three richest parishioners; one of whom went to the North Meeting, one to the South, and one to St. John's Church. Each remained at his new place of worship thro' life; and the descendants of each still worship in the same churches, or in those of the same denominations elsewhere.

The third religious society in Portsmouth, as to age, is St. John's Church; though a Chapel of the Church of England was undoubtedly the first house for public worship which was built here, and Mr. Gibson, of that Church, the first pastor; and with his removal the Church disappeared.

Queen's Chapel was not built till 1734, and it was burnt in 1806, as we well remember. This old Church contained an organ, and when the house was on fire some persons took down and saved the lead pipes. They were piled up in the entry of the new St. John's Church, and there remained about 40 years, but we never heard them make any noise, musical or otherwise.

In this new Church was placed a fine-toned English organ, built in London by Elliot, which is still held in high estimation, and is more used than any other in the city, except the Catholic, as these Churches introduce much chanting and singing into their services—a decided advantage as we deem it.

The choir in St. John's church was not usually large, but was, in the days of our early recollections, good. We heard it on Christmas Day, 1813, just after the great fire; and it was almost the only cheerful thing of that day: for the people were panic stricken, and the sexton of the church was directed not to build a fire, and so we sat in the cold to hear the music.

Who the singers and players were that day we know not, but the music was good: we thought it grand. Our earliest recollections of the choir there, are, that Mr. Isaac Stanwood played the organ and sang a strong tenor; and that Benj. West Adams, and Miss Sally Hart were singers also, with one or two others not remembered by name.

Mr. Stanwood was the Clerk of the Church, and read the responses from a conspicuous station in front of the organ.

[Previous to his clerkship, Mr. Abner Greenleaf was the clerk, for a period of some months, being nominated to that office by Hon. James Sheafe. Mr. G. read from the clerk's desk, and was the last clerk who did so. There being no rector or regular preacher at the time of Mr. Greenleaf's clerkship, he was instructed in the mysteries of the Prayer Book by Dea. Amos Tappan of the North Congregational Church, who read prayers at St. John's much of the time while Mr. Greenleaf acted as clerk. This is a digression, and is introduced, not for its music, nor its importance, but for its oddity, and as an illustration of the manners and customs of Portsmouth fifty odd years ago.]

At later periods the organ at St. John's was played finely by two men named Cooper, an uncle and nephew, years apart; by Mr. Gordon, Miss Larkin, and others. And among the singers in the choir and on the floor, formerly, were John Thompson, Esq., Maj. Larkin and family, and Mr. Brierley and family. And as the Chants, not only the words but the music, stood the same for years, we used sometimes to hear very fine chanting by a good portion of the congregation with the choir.

The organ never damaged their singing. When it ran down, as it would sometimes, it was always from other causes.

☞ A member of the feline family, resident in Charlestown, Mass., in a fit, or great fright, scrambled up the chimney and mounted to the top, and there remained in full sight of the town for four days, without food or nourishment. At last a benevolent person, fearing for her health, got a ladder and mounted up to help Grimalkin down from her dizzy height. But when about to consummate his benevolence, puss scrambled down the chimney again and made her appearance on terra firma, an emaciated and humbled cat.

☞ The iron-clad Camanche intended for California, has been taken to pieces and is now being shipped on board the ship Aquilia, at New York, for her voyage around Cape Horn. The entire deck of that vessel has been ripped up, and the masts taken out, so as to get in the huge masses of iron.

☞ The rebels have a report that the U. S. sloop-of-war Preble was destroyed by fire on the 29th off Pensacola. She is a total loss.

☞ The N. Y. Tribune says Chancellorville, Va., is a town which consists of one brick house, now or formerly kept as a tavern.

NEWBURYPORT POUDRETTE.

An article so well known as POUDRETTE may need no remarks to show its superiority to any other fertilizer. The basis of this fertilizer is Night Soil, obtained in Newburyport, from deep vaults—the accumulation in many cases of many years—so that it is highly concentrated. By mechanical means it is rendered very fine and dry, so that no inconvenience can result from its use.

It is very useful in starting the young plants, being just warm enough to sprout the seed without burning it. It makes the plant more thrifty, and consequently the crop is greater; this is especially true of corn and garden vegetables.

It contains no noxious weeds or larvæ or insects, which are almost always found in barnyard manure. Insects will not remain in the same hill with Poudrette. Its cheapness alone fail to recommend it. One barrel of Poudrette being equal to a load of barnyard manure.

From the success met with last season, the subscriber flatters himself that he can manufacture an article superior to any in the market.

I shall use as my trade mark the brand, "ESSEX MILLS, POUDRETTE, Newburyport, Ms." All persons should see for themselves that they get the genuine and no other, as every barrel will be branded as above.

HIRAM LITTLEFIELD,
(late NOYES & LITTLEFIELD,) Newburyport, Mass.

Certificates.

I have received certificates of its value, a few of which are here inserted.

ALFRED, Me., Dec. 29, 1862.

MESSRS. NOYES & LITTLEFIELD:—

Gents,—Last Spring I obtained of Wm. H. Conant, one barrel of your Poudrette as a experiment, with but little faith in its utility. When I opened it I was fairly sick of it, saying to myself it looks more like lime than any thing else, and is good for nothing; but how mistaken I was, for where I used it I think I got from one third to one-half more corn than where I used barn yard manure only, the corn being heavier and was ripe two weeks earlier. I think it is just the thing for raising corn in this country. Sometimes a whole crop of corn might be saved by its use.

Yours, truly, WILLIAM JEWEIT.

Extract of a letter of P. H. Falls.

SALMON FALLS, N. H., Sept. 28, 1862.

I received the Poudrette and used it nearly all on my piece; there were a number of farmers that intended to have some, but were afraid to use it, thought it was a new thing and a humbug, and did not take any; I tried it myself and think it is as good as any Poudrette I have used before. Another year I shall use it more extensively,—also my neighbors will want considerable about here.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., January, 1863.

This may certify that we have used the last season, Noyes & Littlefield's Poudrette, and find it superior to any we ever used before, and would recommend it to the public generally.

Special Notices.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in the valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be earned, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

Local.

☞ Quite an excitement was created last Saturday evening at the novelty of a well-dressed young woman driving a man—probably her husband, up High street from Market Square, scolding, shoving and kicking him as they went. A large crowd collected to witness the performance; and all seemed to be highly amused, except the precious couple themselves—who were decent-looking people enough, but for this exhibition. Nobody knew who they were, but when men get kicked by women, the usual verdict is "served them right."

☞ Hon. John P. Hale and Brig. Gen. Marston visited the Portsmouth Navy Yard on Tuesday afternoon, and were received with the customary salute.

☞ Sergt. E. G. Adams, of the 2d Regiment, will lecture at the Temple on Friday evening next, on the battle of Williamsburg, in which he was severely wounded.

Mr. Wendell's large sale of rich Linen goods also continues; day and evening.

☞ Don't forget that Mr. Lamprey's Dancing School begins at Irving Hall this (Wednesday) afternoon.

☞ We are requested to state that the Piscataqua Fire and Marine Insurance Co. (of which F. Wm. DeRochemont, Esq., is Agent,) has promptly paid the losses of Messrs. Brackett and Beck & Packer of Greenland, on their saw-mill, &c. Also that this Company (said to be the only stock company in Maine, New Hampshire or Vermont,) always pays all just claims thus; and much of the stock being owned in this vicinity, and the dividends on the same thus being returned among the insured again—the managers claim that the Piscataqua has at least as strong claims on this public for patronage, as any other "foreign" or home company. dawtf*

PROMOTION.—It will be remembered that in the late battles on the Nansemond river in Virginia, our townsman, Capt. Thomas A. Harris, who as a volunteer from the merchant service was in command of the U. S. steamer Stepping Stones, with the rank of Acting Master, particularly distinguished himself. We have now the pleasure of announcing that the Administration have rewarded his meritorious services by promotion, as will appear by the following correspondence:—

U. S. FLAG SHIP MINNESOTA, off Newport News, Va., April 29.

Sir:—It gives me pleasure to forward herewith your appointment as Lieutenant, for gallant conduct in the face of the enemy. In bringing to the notice of the Department your late efficient and courageous services on the Nansemond under circumstances of peculiar peril, I recommended you for promotion, and am confident that the appointment which you receive herewith is fully deserved.

Respectfully yours,
S. P. LEE, A. R. Admiral,
Comdg N. A. B. Squadron.

Lieut. T. A. Harris, Comdg U. S. steamer Stepping Stones, Nansemond river, Va.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, 27th April.

Sir:—As a reward for your gallant conduct in the face of the enemy, you are hereby promoted to the grade of Lieutenant in the Navy of the United States in temporary service. Very respectfully,

GIDEON WELLES,
Sec'y of the Navy.

Lieut. T. A. Harris, Comdg U. S. steamer Stepping Stones, Hampton Roads, Va.

CAPT. RAND.—The telegraph reports the death of Chas. E. Rand, of the Mass. 1st Regiment of infantry. He went out as Captain of Co. I, and has been in nearly every battle in which the regiment has participated. He was a son of Thomas Rand, formerly of this city, and one of the bravest men in the service. His life, tho' short, was crowded with stirring adventures.

☞ Hon. Clement L. Vallandigham was arrested at his residence in Dayton, Ohio, on Tuesday morning, by a detachment of soldiers from Cincinnati. The soldiers were obliged to batter down two or three doors in his house before they could reach his room and take him. His friends then rang the fire bells and called out the people, when an attempt was made to rescue him, but failed. He was taken to Cincinnati.

HON. CALEB CUSHING'S last speech in the Massachusetts legislature was on the resolution for a vote of thanks to the Speaker of the House, Hon. Alexander H. Bullock of Worcester. He then took occasion to allude to State and National topics; and as some have expressed surprise at the "loyal" spirit and tone of his remarks, we would say that upon these points he expressed himself precisely as he did on the first day he was within the Commonwealth, after the commencement of this revolution, at the flag raising at the Brown High School, which speech was followed on the next day, by a tender of his services for military duty to the Governor of this State, John A. Andrew. We think all he has spoken since has been in unison with that first and this last speech.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ The pirate Alabama has destoyed the ship Pamaquid at sea.

☞ Some burglar entered the house of Capt. Edward Watson, in Gloucester, Mass., on Thursday afternoon, during the absence of Capt. W. and his wife, and took from a drawer in a chamber, the sum of $1200, placed there on Wednesday, to be used on Friday morning. There was a family in the lower part of the house, but they did not hear the thief. It was evidently accomplished by some one who was acquainted with the premises, and who knew the money was there.

☞ The British Government has ordered the gunboat Alexandria, built for the Confederates, to be detained at Liverpool.—The owners and builders are to appear before a Magistrate, and have a hearing of the case. The proceedings of Admiral Wilkes were causing increased irritation in England, at last accounts.

☞ Count Schwabe, a worthy gentleman, a Frenchman by birth, residing at Abington, Mass., is making himself exceedingly popular with the soldiers and the public generally, by the interest he takes in the former, and the donations he is constantly forwarding them.

GEN. CASS, who has been for some two months the guest of his son-in-law, Henry Ledyard, Esq., in Newport, has so far recovered his health as to be able to appear in public.

☞ The Newburyport Herald says—"If men were becoming Christians as fast as they are Abolitionists, we might expect the millenium in another generation."

☞ The report of the capture of the pirate Retribution we fear was not so true as might be wished.

Read the following recommendation from the Cashier of the Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H.

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipisseogee, Nov. 10, 1862.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS.—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an increased quantity this next spring. Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crops. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, Respectfully,
ABEL HALEY,
Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro, N. H

MAY AND THE POETS.

There is May in books for ever;
May will part from Spenser never;
May's in Milton—May's in Fryer—
May's in Chaucer, Thomson, Dyer;
May's in all the Italian books;
She has old and modern nooks,
Where she sleeps with nymphs and elves
In happy places they call shelves,
And will rise and dress your rooms
With a drapery thick with blooms.
Come, ye rains, then, if ye will,
May's at home, and will me still;
But come, rather thou, good weather,
And find me in the fields together.

THE peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it comes to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The disease originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. This it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, as indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The great importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out in any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, so no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling out of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection as cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in the city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable,—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the injurious effects and headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of a cold air blast, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the best in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the generated heat, leaking the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

The Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber.

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the deficiency, which can be done by any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that having had so many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages. It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the tongue of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently it can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and if you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $40.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists. I will warrant a perfect fit, and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country.

S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTING is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. CHENERY, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain or injury to perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.

All whole and partial sets of teeth represented by Neatness and Dispatch. All call or operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—In common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

AN UNCONQUERABLE "ENEMY,"—the one to which so many brave soldiers ingloriously surrender—having first "put it into their mouths to steal away their brains." Hear the Portland Argus:—

We were sorry to see on Saturday evening, a returned soldier of the 10th marching to the basement of the City Hall, notwithstanding he was under escort. The procession was formed thus:—

Policeman—Soldier—Policeman.

The returned soldier was unfortunate,—not criminal. He had taken it into his head to fight what is worse than any five single rebels,—bad whiskey. He met the enemy and he was theirs. He did not like the escort, threw out his skirmishers,—changed his base many times,—tried earthworks, and shouted as if in command of the whole army of the Potomac. We are sorry for his mistake in attacking what he regarded a genuine Bourbon, and hope the judge will let him off with an admonition not to enter again such an unequal fight.

☞ The Post says the severest practical joke heard of for some time was the arrest of two Cambridge students at the Roxbury fair on May day, as pickpockets. The two young gentlemen were first pointed out and avoided in the fair as thieves, then arrested and kept in jail over night, and finally forced to sign a paper promising not to prosecute the policeman, before they were allowed to depart. The entire faculty of the Harvard law school have addressed a paper to the Mayor of Roxbury vindicating the students' character and requesting a protest against the outrage inflicted upon them. Roxbury's eyes must be opened "tight" in future.

If all the black men on the globe were now slaves, their number would not equal one-half the white men in the same condition. The most inveterate slave dealers, and man and woman sellers, have been the very people from whom we are proud to derive our descent, and of whose superior physical beauty and intellectual supremacy we so often and fondly boast. The Caucasian races, from time immemorial, have been renowned for their singular beauty, and for their habit of selling their children in all the slave markets of the east. The harems of every rich Mohammedan were filled with Circassian beauties; and the Janizaries of the Turks and the Mamelukes of Egypt were chiefly Circassian boys educated and trained into the finest soldiery the world ever saw.—Exchange.

The above, if not strictly true as to numbers, has yet a basis of fact, well known to all geographers: and in view of the fact that white slaves are sold to colored masters, the "institution" itself has a dark look; and prejudice against colors becomes contemptible as well as absurd. U. T.

THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The rebels are thought to have abandoned the Nansemond.

Gen. Sherman is reported to have gone up the Yazoo on Thursday and to have made an attack on the rebel batteries. He is said to have landed in the same place as at the former attack. It is reported that Gen. Grant has landed a large force on the Mississippi side, 8 miles above Grand Gulf, and that our gunboats have been shelling the latter place.

A steamer from Hilton Head 2d, reports that the Ironsides was to cross the bar at Charleston on the 2nd, and the Monitors on the 4th inst.

Gen. Palmer has made a reconnissance from Newbern to Kinston, N. C., in which he drove the rebels from their intrenchments at the bayonet's point. Our list of casualties is small. It is evident from the result of the expedition that a large portion of the rebel forces have gone northward to reinforce Lee." It is believ d that Gen. Longstreet has withdrawn from before Suffolk, and also gone to reinforce Lee.

All the accounts from Gen. Hooker's army represent that in the recent battles the loss on both sides was frightful. The N. Y. Herald's account states that it was believed on Monday that Lee had been reinforced from Richmond, which would throw doubt upon the cutting off of communication by Gen. Stoneman, about whose movements nothing positive is known, except that he had got into the rear of Fredericksburg, and was attempting to cut the railroad connection. Gen. Sedgwick, who occupied Fredericksburg, on Monday, passed on toward Gen. Hooker, leaving Gibbon's division to guard the heights in the rear of the city, when they were attacked by the rebels in large force and that point was relinquished after a short resistance, the guns being first removed. General Hooker maintained his new line a short distance north of Chancellorsville, without important change. Monday afternoon the division of the 5th corps advanced towards Fredericksburg, meeting a large body of rebels in a double line of battle. A half hour's heavy fight ensued, our batteries compelling the rebels to fall back in disorder. The division then returned to our main line and rested, having ascertained the enemy's position. Gen. Hooker on Sunday night and Monday entrenched himself. Gen. Sedgwick was hotly engaged all Monday, the rebels pressing him at all points. At last the Vermont brigade made a ferocious charge, repulsed the enemy, and secured the safety of that portion of the army. General Sedgwick recrossed the river in the face of the enemy after midnight in comparatively good order, the enemy raking our bridges with artillery, with great loss of life. He marched immediately to the United States ford, again crossing to join Hooker's main army. The latest dispatches report that Gen. Sigel is in command of his old corps, and has driven Jackson 2 miles; that Hooker has driven Lee's whole army back more than 2 miles, himself leading several charges in person; and that Gen. Hunt is man at hand with reinforcements. The New York Tribune's correspondent, writing from Falmouth, Tuesday morning, says the rebels have regained Fredericksburg, but cannot hold it, our army being in their flank and rear. The news from the extreme right is satisfactory. Another writer says "we have got the best of the rebels, but are not yet out of the woods." At 3 P. M., Monday, the rebels occupied all the entrenchments southeast of the plank road from Fredericksburg to Chancellorsville, and Gen. Gibbon all the northwest of the road and Fredericksburg. Gen. Sedgwick, who is reported to have opened communication with Hooker, was further out on the plank road and between Lee (who was in turn between Sedgwick and Hooker.) and the rebel force which retook the lower fortifications at Fredericksburg. A large body of cavalry was sent down from Washington on Saturday, and bodies of infantry are constantly in motion in the direction of the Rappahannock.

☞ A disloyal mob on Tuesday evening cut the telegraph wires at Dayton, Ohio, and set the Journal office on fire.

The mob was occasioned by the arrest of Vallandigham. The Journal building was burnt to the ground, with several other buildings. Troops quelled the riot about 10 o'clock at night.

☞ A large Union Mass Meeting was held in Belfast, Me., on Tuesday. Resolutions in favor of abandoning all party sympathies, were adopted.

☞ Rebel prisoners report that the rebel Gen. A. P. Hill was killed on Sunday forenoon.

☞ On Sunday last, four hundred boys and girls were confirmed at the two Catholic churches in Salem by Rt. Rev. Bishop Goesbriand.

☞ The New York Tribune has information from Little Rock, Ark., that the return of Gen. Sterling Price to the command of the trans-Mississippi Rebel Department is infusing some life into it. Many of the soldiers who left Hindman in disgust are rallying to the standard of Price, whose undeniable ability, manifested in his Missouri and Arkansas campaigns, renders him the most popular leader with the Rebels of that region. He will probably give the National troops some trouble. The enemy west of the Mississippi has been whipped too many times to become very formidable again; but he is now gaining important aid from abroad. Thirty thousand foreign muskets were recently received at Matamoros for the use of the Rebels west of the Mississippi. Three or four thousand have already reached Price at Little Rock, and the remainder are on their way to him, overland, through Texas and the Indian Territory. The immense contraband traffic between the Rebels and Matamoras shows the importance of our holding the Rio Grande from El Paso to its mouth, which could be done by a small force. The blockade will never be complete without it.

☞ Dr. Rundy, Surgeon of the late 128th Illinois Regiment—which last Fall, while in Camp Butler, gave a unanimous vote for the Copperhead ticket, afterward attempted in a body to desert to the enemy, and are now under arrest for treason—was arrested a short time since for stealing property belonging to the Government. His house, some ten miles from Carbondale, was searched, and in various and unusual places were found hospital stores, medicines, musketo bars, hospital blankets, napkins, and other such fixtures, to the value of about $300. He has since been in durance vile in the guard-house at Cairo.

☞ A Vermont soldier, wishing to turn a few honest pennies, sent home to his wife for a corn popper and some corn. In due time he received them and the corn was parched. But there was no means of putting it up for market. So he wrote to his wife for two hundred corn papers. She read it corn poppers, and, going to a trader, bought up all he had, amounting to over one hundred. They arrived safely in the Old Dominion.

☞ The Sherry Wine Bitters of Dr. E. R. Clarke, of Sharon, Mass., still retain their high place among the favorite Spring stomachics; and the fact of their long and ever-increasing use, proves their excellence. See the Dr.'s advertisement.

Dr. Clarke also continues to manufacture his superior Corn Starch—one of the most healthful of articles for family table use.—An advertisement of this old standard article will also be seen in another column of this paper.

Our thanks to our old friend Clarke, the enterprising proprietor, for liberal samples of his articles named—and may he live forever to bless mankind by providing such.

A LETTER ON OFFICE SEEKING.—The New York Ledger gives the following letter from a lady in Washington that is worth reading by all young men looking to public life:—

My Dear Sir:—* * * I succeeded in getting the office for the friend in whose behalf I went. But I snatched the appointment "like a brand from the burning," and not without scorched fingers, either! Oh, I wish I had time to write an essay on office seeking! The office I sought after was for an elderly man, who was too far advanced in years to open a new road for himself. But I would not lift my hand to get a government office for any young man any more than I would for my own son. I should think that I was blighting all his future prospects. Give a youth a profession, a trade, a business, or put him into common day labor, rather than seek government patronage for him. Dependence upon Government preferment is gambling in the worst of all games of chance. In other games there are some winners. In this game all are, sooner or later, losers. For suppose you apply for an office for a young friend, and he gets a lucrative clerkship, or something of the sort, society here will oblige him to live up to his income while he is in. But in the next change of administration he is out: nothing to do and no money in his pocket. If he has any talent he takes to politics; works to get his party in again, that he may get his office back.—If he has no gift that way, he becomes a mere loafer, waiting for the chances and changes of this world—to help him to a living. His office holding has unfitted him for any regular trade, business or profession.—As I passed out of the ante-room, with the appointment which I sought safe, I felt but half glad; my heart ached for the poor, anxious, almost despairing ones that I had met there day after day—so many days—on the same errand that brought me! Nine, at least, out of every ten, will be disappointed. For those young enough to recommence life and turn themselves into honest carpenters, tinkers, stone-masons, lawyers or doctors, or shop keepers, it will be well that they are disappointed. If they cannot find a field of labor here, they can go West. Are not the broad prairies of the far West yet to be cultivated? And, at any rate, if I were a young man and could do no better I would get a box of blacking, and a pair of brushes, and station myself at a street corner, and make an honest living, polishing boots this muddy weather, rather than degrade my soul with this lacquey-like waiting in Secretaries' ante-chambers.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— On Monday evening, about 10 o'clock, Dr. Moore, of Concord, was knocked down by some unknown person and robbed of his watch, in Warren street, in that city.

—— A large meeting was held in Phœnix Hall, Concord, on Monday evening, to arrange for raising funds to aid the suffering poor of Ireland. Addresses were made by Father O'Donnell, of Nashua, Wm. W. Doherty, of Concord, Mayor Gale and Colonel George, of Concord, and others. Ten gentlemen were appointed to solicit subscriptions.

—— The ice is out of Lake Winnipisiogee, and the steamer Dover has commenced her regular trips.

—— The amount of maple sugar made in Dist. No. 1, in Sandwich, the present season is estimated at 11,700 pounds.

SEABROOK.—We thought it well to improve a day by riding over to the ancient village of Seabrook—so ancient that the town itself was granted June 21, 1668, to Jonathan Weare, although it had been settled as early as the year 1638. It is believed that Meshach Weare, the first Chief Magistrate of New Hampshire, after the revolution, resided within the limits of the town. In the course of our rambles, we visited Titcomb's Hill and Grape Hill, both of which are of magnificent height, and afford picturesque prospects of the surrounding country.

The highly cultivated farms are indicative of well directed labor upon a fertile and prolific soil. Aside from the business of farming, the manufacture of shoes, the construction of boats, and some attention to fishing, constitute the chief employment of the people. The Washington House, kept by Mrs. Gunnison, was formerly the residence of the late venerable and eminent Dr. Edward Dearborn. On the portico in the front part of the mansion house is standing one of the old Dexter's images, christened years ago by the eccentric "philosopher," Sir William Pitt. He appears to be dressed in the old continental uniform, with black breeches, high top boots, ruffles and cocked hat. His coat is significant of the scarcity of cloth at that period.

By the will of Dr. Dearborn he endowed the Academy of this town—which now bears his name—and which is a substantial brick building 54 feet by 40—with the sum of fifteen thousand dollars. Dr. Dearborn in his munificence also left four thousand dollars in order that its income might forever be appropriated for the support of the gospel in Seabrook.

A large stone building which is now being repaired also illustrates the public spirit and enterprise of this good physician. Seeing so many evidences of the result of this useful life, we thought it proper to visit the tomb in which his remains were placed. We did so—and never shall we forget the thrill of indignation and horror with which we viewed that dilapidated respectacle of the dead. The door was partially ajar, and the door itself was fast crumbling to decay. The insecurity of the tomb would shake the notions of even those most careless in the burial of the dead. It seemed like an abode for owls and bats, or beasts of prey, rather than a sacred resting-place for Seabrook's greatest and most generous benefactor.

Dr. Dearborn left several trustees of his property, and it is an eternal shame to these men that no more respect should be paid by them to his memory. Of what manner of men are these who thus outrage decency, and a common respect for the universal opinions of mankind regarding the interment of those who lived before us? Could the Doctor, who for more than fifty years rendered his faithful services in alleviating human suffering and prolonging human existence in this community, appear again on earth, would not these parties be more appalled than the guests at a royal table on the appearance of Banquo's ghost?—Newburyport Herald.

☞ A prize fight, lasting 70 minutes, took place at Charleston, Pa., on Tuesday, between McCool and Coburn, for the championship of America. There were 3000 spectators present. Coburn drew the first blood in the first round, first knock-down in the 45th round, and at the end of the 68th round was declared the victor. Coburn, though lightest, was the favorite from the start, making up in "science" his opponent's superiority in weight. McCool was injured severely about the head and face, and was carried off the ground. Coburn's face showed no evidence of injury, and he walked off unaided.

☞ The N. Y. Herald of Sunday says: We have news which has made the circumference of the world in seventy-one days. On Thursday, by the way of England, we published the announcement of the sailing of the ship King Lear from Hong Kong on the 18th of February, bound for San Francisco, and yesterday we received a dispatch from the latter place, announcing her safe arrival. Within five years the same thing will be accomplished in five minutes.

☞ At Rossini's house in Paris recently a feminine melomaniac became frenzied with enthusiasm, as she enjoyed the pleasure of hearing Rossini play, which she relieved in words:—"O, Rossini! divine master! Apollo! deity of music—what name shall I give thee?" "Call me John Donkey," quietly replied the great man, disgusted by the hyperboles of flatter.

☞ A woman in Leavenworth, Kansas, was fined $5 some days since for wearing a long train dress in the street.

☞ The rebel steamers R. E. Lee and Cornubia, from Wilmington, N. C., with 1000 bales of cotton, have arrived at Bermuda.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

SAMBUCI WINE.—This new article of American wine is meeting with uncommon favor in European circles, and highly esteemed by the best physicians in this country. Mr. Speer, who has spent years in travelling, first came across this fruit in Opetto, which he is now successfully cultivating in this country, from which he makes his celebrated wine. We understand a number of cases were ordered to Washington for the use of the military hospitals there. The following is a testimonial we saw from the New York Hospital. We publish it for the information of our readers:

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.

I am using Speer's "Sambuci wine," and find it to be an excellent tonic and gentle stimulant, and as such I believe it preferable to the commercial port, and all other wines, as it possesses their tonic properties without the deleterious effect caused by their impurities. It is also very palatable, and this is a recommendation to many, especially females.

S. S. Harris, M. D., N. Y. Hospital.

This is an excellent article for family use, and for females. Our Druggists and Grocers have it for sale.

Now is the time to forward a supply of Grace's Salve to the Army, for it has procured for itself from abundant use in the cure of Sores & Wounds the honorable distinction of being called the Soldier's Best Friend. It is for sale by all Druggists at 25 cts. and one dollar per box.

RIVERS OF BLOOD.—The circulation in the system is not unlike the flow of rivers to the sea, which move smoothly until they are clogged or obstructed. But when drift wood and alluvial deposit dams them up, then comes the tearing devastation that follows the obstruction of a force which cannot be stayed. So the blood circulates insensibly through the system until it becomes clogged by disease; then burst out the ulcers, sores and disorders which follow that condition. Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla and purify your blood, to save yourself from the floods, freshets, and deluges which sweep unnumbered multitudes out upon that shoreless sea which swallows all mankind.—[Lancaster (Pa.) Register.

SWARMING OF THE MEDICAL HIVES.—Consolation for the Sick.—Considering the enormous number of quacks in the U. S. that our medical colleges turn out every year, we certainly ought (if there be any virtue in "regular physicking,") to be a much healthier people than we are. But the bills of mortality do not shorten as the list of doctors lengthens. Quite the reverse! Shall we say, then, with Macbeth, "Throw physic to the dogs, I'll none of it?" No, that will not do. Nature, when attacked by disease, needs an ally to sustain her. An ally, remember, not a depleting agent that helps the disease and exhausts her energies. We really believe that most of the drugs used in acute diseases have this effect.—Such, however, is not the operation of one medicine now generally used in the country for complaints of the stomach, the liver and bowels—HOLLOWAY'S PILLS. Of course our readers are aware that both the Ointment and Pills which bear the name of that distinguished physician and philanthropist are in the highest possible repute all over the world; but we have only had an opportunity to witness the effects of the Pills. It gives pleasure to testify to their efficacy. In dyspepsia and liver complaints they unquestionably work the most marvelous cures. Nay, we will even go so far as to say that, with this remedy within their reach, no man need ever be troubled with dyspepsia. The pills remove the distress at the stomach, and restore the strength and appetite with a rapidity that is really astonishing. The curative action seems to be the same in all cases, without reference to age, constitution or sex. Such at least, is the conclusion to which our experience and observation point.—N. Y. NEWBURYPORT POUDRETTE.

An article so well known as POUDRETTE may need no remarks to show its superiority to any other Fertilizer. The basis of this Fertilizer is Night Soil, obtained in Newburyport, from deep vaults—the accumulation in many cases of many years—so that it is highly concentrated. By mechanical means it is rendered very fine and dry, so that no inconvenience can result from its use.

It is very useful in starting the young plants, being just warm enough to sprout the seed without burning it. It makes the plant more thrifty, and consequently the crop is greater; this is especially true of corn and garden vegetables.

It contains no noxious weeds or larvæ of insects, which are almost always found in barnyard manure. Insects will not remain in the same fill with Poudrette. Its cheapness cannot fail to recommend it. The price of Poudrette being equal to a load of barnyard manure.

From the success met with last season, the subscriber flatters himself that he can manufacture an article superior to any in the market.

I shall use as my trade mark the brand, "ES SEX MILLS. POUDRETTE, Newburyport, Ma."

All persons should see for themselves that they get the genuine and no other, as every barrel will be branded as above.

HIRAM LITTLEFIELD,
(late NOYES & LITTLEFIELD,)
Newburyport, Mass.

Certificates.

I have received certificates of its value, a few of which are here inserted.

ALFRED, Me., Dec. 29, 1862.

Messrs. NOYES & LITTLEFIELD:—

Gents,—Last Spring I obtained of Wm. H. Conant, one barrel of your Poudrette as an experiment, with but little faith in its utility. When I opened it I was fairly sick at the sight, saying to myself it looks more like loam than any thing else, and is good for nothing; but how mistaken I was, for what I thought if I put it into the hill one-third to one-half more corn than where I used barn yard manure only, the corn being heavier and we ripe two weeks earlier. I think it is just the thing for raising corn in this country. Sometimes a whole crop of corn might be saved by its use.

Yours, truly, WILLIAM JEWETT.

Extract of a letter of P. H. Falls.

SALMON FALLS, N. H., Sept. 26, 1862.

I received the Poudrette and used it nearly all on my place; there were a number of farmers that intended to have some, but were afraid to use it, thought it was too strong and burned, and did not take any. I used it myself and think it is as good as any Poudrette I have used before. Another year I shall use it more extensively,—also my neighbors will want considerable about here.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., January, 1863.

This may certify that we have used the last season, Noyes & Littlefield's Poudrette, and find it superior to any we ever used before, and would recommend it to the public generally.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

The Health Officers of Portsmouth, the present season, are Dr. Adams Perry, Thomas Clapham, and Richard L. Randall, —and not the three whose names were given a few days ago.

Little Patti was nearly frightened to death in Vienna recently. She sang at church on Easter Sunday, and after the services, as she was leaving, the crowd pressed about her so that she could not reach her carriage, and was separated from her friends. She took refuge in the Prince Palffy's palace, but the people burst in the door and clamored for her. Only the calm attitude of the Princess Palffy restrained them, and the poor girl was left unmolested. It was all meant well enough, but Patti was so frightened that she fainted, and could not sing at the opera in the evening.

The Greek Assembly or Congress on the 1st inst. voted themselves $50 per month out of the impoverished treasury of Greece, contrary to the Constitution, which requires them to serve without pay. This so incensed the Athenians, that they assembled at evening, and compelled the frightened representatives to back square out of their swindle. If the fashion thus set should extend to this country, it would be vastly for the benefit of the glaziers!

The Government is dispatching steamers from St. Louis with troops and supplies, to the posts on the Upper Missouri, for the expedition against the Indians, under Gen. Pope. Gen. Pope himself has already gone forward to Sioux City, where, it is said, 8000 or 10,000 troops are to rendezvous for the expedition.

Spring is coming on apace. No efforts should be spared to put in all the seed possible. The high price of barley, oats, beans and other grain should incite to the utmost exertion in making large crops. The high price of cotton should induce every farmer that can obtain the seed to sow flax. Let every one plant a little. Plant and sow liberally.

The past was the mildest winter seen in Europe, (except the winters of 1796 and 1834) since 1775. At Vienna the temperature was 4° above the winter mean degree. In 1796 it was 6° 3 min., and in 1834 it was 4° 8 minutes.

Among the prisoners who arrived in Washington on Tuesday were Maj. Gen. Evans, of South Carolina, who commanded at Leesburg during the Ball's Bluff battle, and a Brig. General whose name was not known. Since Saturday last 4000 prisoners have reached Washington. One dispatch says they generally were well and comfortably clad, and looked as if they had had enough to eat. But another declares that they presented a shabby appearance. One of these prisoners is Gen. Fitzhugh Lee.

Among the wounded are—5th N. H., Major Cross; 12th N. H., Col. Potter, Lt. Col. Marsh, Major Savage, Adjutant Beede, Capt. Barker, Maj. Shackford, Lieut. Huntoon.

Among casualties in the rebel army—Maj. Gen. Stonewall Jackson, wounded in hand, still on duty, and Maj. Gen. D. H. Hill, severely wounded and taken off the field.

An Irish girl, an operative in a paper mill, recently found five genuine $1000 treasury notes in the paper rags, and another girl in another mill, in another lot of rags, found a gold chain valued at $60.

The Railroad depot at Terre Haute, Indiana, was struck by lightning on the 18th ult. The agent of the road, Mr. Chas. Cochran, who was deaf in one ear, was knocked from his seat and rendered for a few minutes insensible. When he recovered he found his hearing restored.

The "French Lady," alias Col. Zarvona, is at last exchanged. He was one of the cargo of prisoners sent up from Fortress Monroe on Saturday morning. Mrs. Semmes, wife of the Captain of the English pirate Alabama, was another of the party.

Since the adjournment of Congress a period of only eight weeks, the amount of money lent by the people to the Government, through the five-twenties, has been over forty-five millions of dollars.

A case is on trial in New Haven, involving the sum of three dollars—the value of a buffalo skin. The trial cannot cost less than $273.

THY WILL BE DONE.

We see not, know not, all our way
Is night: with Thee alone is day.
From out the torrent's troubled drift,
Above the storm our prayer we lift,
Thy will be done!

The flesh may fail, the heart may faint,
But who are we to make complaint,
Or dare to plead in times like these
The weakness of our love of ease!
Thy will be done!

We take with solemn thankfulness
Our burden up, nor ask it less,
And count it joy that even we
May suffer, serve or wait for Thee,
Whose will be done!

Though dim as yet in tint and line,
We trace Thy picture's wise design,
And think that when our age supplies
The dark relief of sacrifice,
Thy will be done!

And if, in our unworthiness,
Thy sacrificial wine we press,
If from Thy ordeal's heated bars
Our feet are seamed with crimson scars,
Thy will be done!

If, for the age to come, this hour
Of trial hath vicarious power,
And, blest by Thee, our present pain
Be Liberty's eternal gain,
Thy will be done!

Strike, Thou, the Master, we Thy keys,
The anthem of the destinies!
The minor of Thy lofties strain
Our hearts shall breathe old refrain,
Thy will be done! —WHITTIER.

See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci, Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. ly.

POUDRETTE.

J. F. SHORES, JR., No. 1 Congress Block, has now on hand a large supply of this valuable manure. The price this year will be $1.70 per Barrel, without regard to quantity, delivered at any wharf or depot in this city. A discount from this price to those who buy to sell again.

Read the following recommendation from the Cashier of the Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H.

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipiseogee, Nov. 10, 1864.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS:—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use much an increased quantity this next spring. Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crops. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and plant the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, Respectfully,
ABEL HALEY,
Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H

Morning Chronicle.

A PATRIOTIC DOG.—The Portland Courier tells the following story:—When the 10th Me. regiment left the State, there came aboard the train at Portsmouth, N. H. a big, black dog, which was adopted by Company H and received the baptismal name of Major. From that time to the present the dog has stuck like a hero to his company. He has shared with fortitude and patience the vicissitudes of camp life and has been in every battle that the Regiment has been engaged in. During Banks' retreat, he came near being made a prisoner by an attempt made to cut off his rear. But Major knew better than to allow this, leg weary as he was. He had been taught better things; and by his superior tactics he managed to escape, and arrived safely in camp. At the Relay House where the regiment was stationed at one time, he was one among the most advanced of the pickets, and would not allow a dog to cross the lines.

Since Major's return with the regiment, a man belonging in Portsmouth has claimed him as his, and undertakes to prove his claim by certain documentary evidence. The members of Company H, however, can't see it. They intend to present him to Lieut. Blake of Auburn, who will pension him for life. A handsome silver collar is being made for him, on which will be engraved his name, to whom and by whom presented, and the names of the battles he has been engaged in. Whether Major will consent to stay with his master remains to be seen. Before he joined Company H it has been ascertained that he went out with the 1st N. H. regiment and participated in the battle at Bull Run Number 1, when he returned to his native hills and after spending a short time at home, made up his mind to enlist for the war, that is if his doggerel language was not misunderstood. If this is true, Lieut. B. may finally conclude to let him see the thing through by taking him with him on his return to the service.

Navy Tobacco.

We would invite the attention of dealers to the above Tobacco made by us. It is warranted to be of SUPERIOR QUALITY than any in the market, and as good as the best Green Virginia. We have shipped to enclosed HOME MANUFACTURES, and all in want of GOOD TOBACCO in place of the very inferior quality with which the market is flooded, should call with samples for trial.

A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the casing being made of Mat. Iron, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cover can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet equally as well as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

Portsmouth, Jan. 1, 1863.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon the VULCANIZED RUBBER), that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all kinds of work in this line, with the same ease of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The RUBBER has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insects or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept sweet and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth, teeth extracted without pain, and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Extracted without pain, and children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The Nansemond river is cleared of the rebel batteries, and the rebel forces have retreated across the Blackwater, ours pursuing.

Deserters report that the rebel communications between Vicksburg, Richmond, Charleston and Tullahoma have been cut. Neither newspapers nor telegrams have been received in Bragg's army from those places for several days. It was reported that Bragg was mortally wounded by Breckinridge, but this statement is not credited.

Our gunboats have been repulsed in the attack on Haines' Bluff, and the expedition is returning to Young's Point. We lost 80 in killed and wounded.

Gen. Hooker sustained a reverse on Tuesday, and retreated across the Rappahannock. His army are returning to the old camp ground along the Aquia railroad. The dead and wounded were left behind, but the artillery was saved. Lee had been heavily reinforced, renewed his assaults on Hooker's troops, and was so far successful that it was deemed prudent to withdraw the army across the river. The crossing was commenced at 10 o'clock on Tuesday night. At 3 o'clock on Wednesday morning the wagon and mule trains and the artillery had all passed, and the infantry was crossing on two bridges. Sedgwick, who was wedged in between two masses of the rebel force, lost about 5000 men, but his artillery and trains were got safely over on Monday night. The army is reported to be not panic stricken, but greatly demoralized. It is safe, with 10,000 fewer men in its ranks, and a much larger number unfit for duty. Fredericksburg and the heights have been reoccupied by the rebels. A heavy rain has very much swollen the Rappahannock, and though it was thought that the enemy had massed his army on our right with a view of crossing above and attacking us on our flank and rear, it was believed the high water would frustrate such an attempt. Reinforcements are pressing down to Gen. Hooker. The retreat of his army produced a great panic at Aquia Creek, and everything movable was placed on boats.

Richmond papers of the 5th inst. state that Stoneman's cavalry have destroyed all the bridges between Richmond and the Rappahannock, torn up railroads, cut down telegraph wires, and ventured within a few miles of Richmond. It was feared that his entire force was in the hands of the enemy; a dispatch to the Tribune, however, states that he has crossed the Rappahannock and is scouting on Hooker's right.

Gen. Keyes it stated to be on the way from Yorktown to reinforce Hooker. Richmond papers state that the rebel Gen. Paxton was killed, and Gens. Jackson, A. P. Hill and Heath severely wounded. The rebels state that their loss has been tremendous. The N. Y. Tribune says the rebels received their reinforcements by way of Gordonsville.

NAVAL.—Orders have been received at the Brooklyn Navy Yard to dispatch to sea at once the new steam frigate Ticonderoga. New valves have been attached to her machinery, and on their trial, which took place on Tuesday, they worked well.

The iron-clad Passaic is to be turned over to Admiral Gregory, to undergo repairs. Her rudder is somewhat out of order, and the armor is bent in several places.

STARVING THE SOUTH.—Mr. Beecher, in the Independent, treats as absurd the hope which many people have expressed of starving the South into submission, and that the rebellion is to end very speedily. Mr. Beecher, however, seems not to perceive, what is quite apparent, that the South really looks upon the slavery question as of secondary importance in this war. They have evidently been educated, through a long period of strife and denunciation, to a point where their hatred of Northern politicians, philanthropists and Christians is greater than their love for slavery. To gratify their feeling of revenge against the North, we have no doubt a majority of the South would willingly sacrifice the institution of slavery.—Traveller.

☞ About 100 active secessionists were arrested in St. Louis on Wednesday, and are to be sent South. Energetic measures are being taken and all such persons are to be sent off. The list is said to number several hundred, and embraces some of the largest merchants, lawyers, doctors and active business and professional men.

☞ An extraordinary emigration is setting in this season from Ireland to the United States. The prospects of starvation cause her skilled artizans and industrious farmers, as well as the common laborer, to seek our shores.

☞ At 9:30 Wednesday morning gold was quoted in New York at 156; at 10, 160 1-2; at 11, 155 1-2; and at 1 P. M., 156. At 2 P. M., 155 1-2.

Government securities are quoted as follows: Sixes, 107 1-2; Seven Thirties, 106.

☞ The following extract from a private letter written by a prominent officer in Louisiana, will give our quiet citizens some idea of the results of rebellion:—

"We passed on the Teche several of the finest plantations in Louisiana, on which some battles had been fought, and they were ruined and deserted. One splendid plantation had been the scene of a skirmish; the mansion house and the negro quarters were burned, and the long brick sugar houses were riddled with shells. Acres of pleasure grounds and gardens were stripped of everything like fences or enclosures, but thousands of beautiful rose bushes were still blooming with a luxuriance you cannot conceive of until you have seen it in Louisiana, —and fountains and statues remained to show where once was plenty, luxury, taste and refinement, but where now mingled with the fragrance of the flowers came up the stench of dead cavalry and horses, upon which the vultures, scavengers of the country, were feeding undisturbed,—the only tenants of a place where a few days ago was a wealthy family with an income of sixty thousand a year, now homeless wanderers,—whose hundreds of slaves then worth hundreds of thousands of dollars are now 'contrabands,' worse than worthless in the camps of a conquering enemy."

Seneca wrote in praise of poverty on a table formed of solid gold, with millions let out at usury.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

We think it is certain he would not have written it in a garret, where he would have encountered the real state that he eulogized. —Portland Advertiser.

Give me neither poverty nor riches—but feed me with food convenient for me,—was the substance of Agur's prayer,—and a very judicious prayer it was.

And so of other things—the "golden mean" is desirable, not either extreme.—Licentious unbounded liberty is not good for any man;—and absolute slavery is a sore evil; so sure that no man can praise it who has felt it;—and unbounded license is as dangerous a gift as immense wealth; perhaps even greater. U. T.

☞ The St. Louis Republican says:—

"Until recently, white men—men of nerve and nerve, and who hoped to better their condition in the world by a few years of toil—were the recipients of good wages, and were in comfortable circumstances. Now the influx of runaway negroes, in defiance of the law, is unsettling everything."

These things are the fruits of the rebellion: the rebels would not let well enough alone; and now they may thank themselves for all disasters of this kind. U. T.

☞ Dayton, Ohio, on Wednesday was comparatively quiet. About 80 of the ringleaders in the riot have been arrested without resistance and placed in jail. The Empire newspaper has been suppressed and its editor arrested. The soldiers removed a swivel from the Empire office and also took possession of two wagon loads of muskets stored in the Light Guard armory. Every precaution has been taken to prevent a renewal of the outbreak. The liquor shops have been closed.

☞ That old and most respectable conservative journal, the National Intelligencer, says:—

The progress of public sentiment in Missouri, keeping pace with the progress of events, has made it plain that slavery in that State is doomed to a certain, if not speedy extinction. This result was predicted by the friends of the Union, who, there as well as elsewhere, warned the secession agitators that, in stirring up sedition against the Constitution and the laws, they were undermining the basis of that domestic institution and peculiar social system in whose name and interests they assumed to speak. Among those who uttered these significant warnings was Governor Gamble, who has lived to witness the confirmation of all his predictions under this head. He has called a State Convention on the subject, to meet June 15th.

☞ A simple handkerchief led to all the revelations which occasioned the conviction in Brooklyn, recently, of Ratzky, for the murder of Fellner, not to mention the suicide of Albertina Phisam, and the flight of her sister, Mrs. Marks. When Fellner's dead body was found at Port Monmouth, N. J., it was buried by the coroner, after an inquest, as that of one who had died unknown, and by unknown hands. A New York detective afterwards discovering a handkerchief marked "Albertina," in the coat pocket of the buried corpse, the whole story came out. Albertina had been Fellner's chere amie. Fellner carried property of considerable value about his person. Mrs. Marks had threatened Fellner on account of her sister. Ratzky, her emissary, who had become the bosom companion of Fellner, was seen in possession of Fellner's watch after Fellner disappeared. Ratzky took to flight.

AERIAL BATTERY.—Mr. J. C. Stoddard, of Worcester, Mass., has devised a mode of assailing an army or city by destructive missiles, which may be thrown by the assailants without exposure of themselves or liability to damage. He claims that with his invention he could destroy Fort Sumter and its garrison, without the exposure of a single invader. Go ahead and do it, Mr. Stoddard.

☞ The Portland Press says Mr. James W. Partridge of Bristol, Me., has a duck that commenced laying last April, and for 84 days in succession laid two eggs each day.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Mirror states that a young lady residing in the vicinity of Manchester, was much astonished the other day on receiving a letter from her "particular friend," a soldier in one of our regiments, stating that the relation of friendship between them was at an end, as he did not wish to receive letters from a most intimate lady friend even, expressing a want of sympathy with the government he had gone forth to sustain.

—— The 12th Regiment came out of the great battle on Sunday with Colonel, Lieut. Colonel and Major wounded, and with but one commissioned officer fit for duty.

—— The official list of the Provost Marshals under the law for enrolling and organizing the militia is issued. The following are the New Hampshire appointments: 1st District, John S. Godfrey; 2nd, Anthony Colby; 3d, Chester Pike.

—— The N. H. troops with Gen. Hooker are the 5th regiment, Col. Cross; the 12th, Col. Potter; the 14th, Col. Wilson; the Battery, Capt. Edgell; and four companies of cavalry, under Stoneman.

—— Mr. John S. Learned was ordained as pastor of the Unitarian Society in Exeter on Wednesday. The exercises were—Introductory Prayer, by Rev. A. M. Bridge of Hampton Falls; Selections from the Scriptures, Rev. James DeNormandie of this city; Sermon, Rev. Wm. R. Alger of Boston; Prayer of Ordination, Rev. Dr. A. P. Peabody of Cambridge, Mass.; Charge and Address to the People, Rev. Charles Lowe; Fellowship of the Churches, Rev. H. W. Foote of Boston; Concluding Prayer, Rev. J. Cole, former pastor of the church.

—— The old gentleman who disappeared from his home in Exeter on Sunday evening, was found on Monday in the vicinity of Raymond. The man who rang the church bell, it is said, has few friends left in Exeter.

PORTSMOUTH NAVY YARD.

We have no sort of disposition to undervalue, in any degree, the services of our Congressional delegation in behalf of our navy Yard. But we are not one of that Conservative school that think that the yard has patronage enough, and should remain comparatively idle while other stations are crowded with work. It is the result of the persistent and unremitting "following up" the Navy Department in some of the Massachusetts members, (of which every man who knows anything about navy yard matters has long been cognizant) we have desired to commend. We hope our distinguished friends in Congress will continue on the good work, so well commended by the Journal. We look forward with confident expectations to the time when Senator Hale will overcome Joe Smith's obstinacy, and the portion of Jenkins' Island voted by Congress be annexed to the Yard; when our members will convince the Department that the Franklin, which has all through the rebellion encumbered the best shiphouse owned by Uncle Sam, without a step having been taken to have her afloat, notwithstanding she is needed both as a war ship and to help protect our commerce from the depredations of pirates, ought to be launched and fitted for sea; that the old line-of-battle ship Alabama, which is of no ear bly use in her present condition, if taken to pieces would afford the government $50,000 worth of copper, for which high prices are now being paid, in addition to timber and other materials, while it would open a second shiphouse for the construction of vessels now required to be built out of doors; and that our mechanics can repair ships cheaper than at any other station, and at the same time do the work better. All this we hope to see brought about. Our members have done much—indeed we know that our indefatigable Rollins, who always follows up his requests at the red tape lines, has within a week visited the Navy Department, and that Mr. Hale has also, (if he has done his duty,) but much remains to be done. They must not be satisfied with what has been accomplished, but like Oliver Twist dare to "ask for more."—Cor. Ballot.

LOCAL ITEMS.

☞ Gen. Amiel W. Whipple, was seriously, and as was feared, fatally wounded in one of the recent battles. He was connected by marriage with one of our oldest and most respected families, and had many warm and true friends in this city. He died on Tuesday afternoon.

☞ Mr. Garrett, who had a large lot of his shinplasters stolen from him, and who has before requested their entire withdrawal from circulation—now very properly announces that he will not redeem any after a certain date.

☞ Among the recent deaths in the hospitals at Washington was that of Peter Brennan of this city, a member of Co. K, 5th N. H. regiment.

☞ Sergt. Adams lectures on the Battle of Williamsburg, this evening. See his advertisement. He was there, and can tell all about that terrible fight. Go and hear him.

☞ "Not that man but the other man," Br. Whittem, for there are two "men with a p." The "coadjutor" would be very happy to call on you, but when he does he must come, unlike his namesake, without a wife. He was hardly prepared to be "published" in this week's Ballot. [N. B.—Private to Br. Whittem: all others are requested to skip this paragraph.]

SOUL LIFE.

As without food the body must decay,
So with the mind—that, too, must pine away,
Deprived of sustenance it ever craves—
What avenues more than brutes or cringing slaves,
If sense and appetite alone control
There being here? Starvation of the soul.
In Heaven's impartial sight, is worse by far
Than nature's yearning cries of hunger are;
For tho' death claims at last our mortal lives,
We do not die—the spirit still survives.
Dwells evermore in some diviner sphere,
More radiant than that we have seen here,
Where very air, and light, and life must be Composed of beauty, love and purity.

ALBERT LAIGHTON.

MAY-FLOWERS.

So through the Plymouth woods John Alden went on his errand;
Crossing the brook at the ford, where it brawled over pebble and shallow;
Gathering still, as he went, the May-flowers blooming around him,
Fragrant, filling the air with a strange and wonderful sweetness,
Children lost in the woods, and covered with leaves in their slumbers.
"Pariian flowers," he said, "and the type of a "Puritan maiden, Modest and simple and sweet."

LONGFELLOW.

FIVE CENT BILLS.—Some papers speak very disrespectfully of Five Cent Bills, and of the U. S. Government for issuing so small a rag. But the objection is ill-timed and futile. Suppose they had issued a five cent piece of coin: would the public have it in use to-day? Judging by the three cent piece they would not. These three cent pieces, as every one knows, have no more intrinsic value than a rag of the same price, but yet they are hoarded; and if there were five's, they would be hoarded too.

We must choose between a U. S. five, and a shopkeeper's card of the same price. We prefer the U. S.—and so do the writers who find fault with it.

It is a vain thing to say we prefer coin when no coin is to be had.

☞ The Herald states that a dispute has long existed between the Newburyport city government and the Overseers of the Poor, in regard to the supplies for paupers, the city desiring to supply from its own store, and the overseers drawing orders on private individuals. The city has now, on a written opinion of the laws by Gen. Cushing, refused to pay the bills of the overseers.—Here is a chance for an interesting law case.

☞ A special dispatch to the N. Y. Herald from London, dated on the 26th ult., and put on board the Australasian at Queenstown, states that the English government had ordered its steam reserve fleet, consisting of 300 vessels, to be made ready for sea in view of the complication with America.

☞ In Ipswich, Mass., a sad accident occurred on the 29th. Gustavus Condon, a bright, generous, good boy of 13 years, was at play with another lad of eight years, when the latter threw a stone at Condon, which unfortunately struck him in the head, causing his death two days after. His father and brother are absent in the army.

☞ This Chronicle nearly always prefers to retain its position as a record of past events, rather than to prophecy of the future. Of how much value, after all, are all the guesses and prognostications concerning politics and war, so largely indulged in by the press generally?

NEWBURYPORT POUDRETTE.

An article so well known as POUDRETTE may need no remarks to show its superiority to any other Fertilizer. The basis of this Fertilizer is Night Soil, obtained in Newburyport, from deep vaults—the accumulation in many cases of many years—so that it is highly concentrated. By mechanical means it is rendered very fine and dry, so that no inconvenience can result from its use.

It is very useful in starting the young plants, being just warm enough to sprout the seed without burning it. It makes the plant more thrifty, and consequently the crop is greater; this is especially true of corn and garden vegetables.

It contains no noxious weeds or larvæ of insects, which are almost always found in barnyard manure. Insects will not remain in the same hill with Poudrette. Its cheapness cannot fail to recommend it. One barrel of Poudrette being equal to a load of barnyard manure.

From the success met with last season, the subscriber flatters himself that he can manufacture an article superior to any in the market.

I shall use as my trade mark the brand, "ESSEX MILLS, POUDRETTE, Newburyport, Ms." All persons should see for themselves that they get the genuine and no other, as every barrel will be branded as above.

HIRAM LITTLEFIELD,

(late NOYES & LITTLEFIELD,)

Newburyport, Mass.

Certificates.

I have received certificates of its value, a few of which are here inserted.

ALFRED, Me., Dec. 29, 1862.

Messrs. NOYES & LITTLEFIELD:—

Gents,—Last Spring I obtained of Wm. H. Cogant, one barrel of your Poudrette as an experiment, with but little faith in its utility. When I opened it I was fairly sick of it, saying to myself it looks more like loam than any thing else, and is good for nothing; but how mistaken I was, for when I used it I think I got from one-third to one-half more corn than where I used barn yard manure only, the corn being heavier and was ripe two weeks earlier. I think it is just the thing for raising corn in this country. Sometimes a whole crop of corn might be saved by its use.

Yours, fraly, WILLIAM JEWETT.

Extract of a letter of P. H. Falls.

SALMON FALLS, N. H., Sept. 23, 1862.

I received the Poudrette and used it nearly all on my place; there were a number of farmers that intended to have some, but were afraid to use it, thought it was a new thing and a humbug, and did not take any. I used it myself and think it is as good as any Poudrette I have used before. Another year I shall use it more extensively,—also my neighbors will want considerable about here.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., January, 1863.

This may certify that we have used the last season, Noyes & Littlefield's Poudrette, and find it superior to any we ever used before, and would recommend it to the public generally.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent taking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be scored, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

Local.

☞ The Portsmouth Steam Factory are erecting a dry house, over the boiler house in the rear of the mill. Foundations for the new repair shop near the cloth room at the East end of the mill are being laid.

☞ The chimney at the Sagamore Mill has just received a lengthening in consequence of the protracted wing to be constructed, which made it necessary to carry up the chimney to its present height.

☞ The local reporter of the Ballot says that the Cornet Band's Concert drew a full house, outside!

He also includes among the indications of summer, the fact that the slaughter-houses have resumed their usual warm-weather odor. Oh dear!

☞ A large number of invited friends gathered at the North Church, in this city, on Tuesday evening, to witness the marriage of the fair organist of that church, with a professional gentleman of this city—whom certainly no one need wish to be better than "the name he bears." The elegant church lights up to special advantage, and the company was of course animated and pleasantly on the tip-toe of curiosity and expectancy; while the bridal party itself, without affecting particular brilliancy, was a very interesting one. The brothers and sisters who acted as groomsmen and maids, were all married folks themselves; and for the first time in our life we gave the matter a thought, we could but allow that there is especial fitness in those who have joined the benedictine order themselves, aiding, countenancing and encouraging the novitiates.—The bride of course looked sweetly, and took the only veil a woman should ever take, with becoming modesty and grace.—As to the groom, why he of necessity must be content to be overshadowed on these occasions—that he may rule thereafter.—We give the happy couple: a honeymoon endless as the ring which wed the bride, and life filled with earth's purest joys—and may the "harmony" both love so well, never be disturbed.

The music on the occasion added much to the interest—the introductory march from Wm. Tell, singing of selected ode, by a quartet of friends, and the wedding march for close. The lady organist at the Unitarian Church presided at the organ with usual spirit and promptness.

☞ It is stated that of seventeen churches in Newburyport, the organists of ten are "Misses"—though there can hardly be seventeen organs in that city, we should judge. And somebody thinks "this tells well for the accomplishments of the ladies of that pleasant city." No doubt.

Of eight organs in our Portsmouth churches, six are played by ladies—five by the romantic but indefinite class of beings referred to in the Newburyport item, and the other by one who has recently taken a new degree, almost the highest, and whose title now amounts to as much as the sum of all the sisters' who have not yet attained to it.

The citizens of Newcastle, at a recent town meeting, voted to make an application to be annexed to the city of Portsmouth. It is thought by very many that this will be a measure that would result, if adopted, in a benefit to both places. It would give Portsmouth the advantage of an increase of population incident thereto, and at the same time add to the position of the Island in many respects.—Ballot.

The Concord Railroad have resumed building operations at Railroad wharf, at the North End. The abutment wall is being extended under the old wharf, which is being widened by driving additional piles. The stone used for the wall comes from Hooksett. The enormous freight trains run over this route would seem to warrant a second separate train for passengers, a feature that would be a great addition to the "excellency" of the management.—Ballot.

INFLATION.—An old gent from Hampton, who trades in this city, and who may be said to have his eye-teeth cut—asked a basket-maker from Agamenticus, a day or two since, the price of baskets. "O, baskets has riz," says Yorker—having probably learned our most popular national air. "Baskets riz!" replies Sharpey, "what's to make them go up? It don't cost you any more to steal the stock, than ever, does it?" A bystander remarked, laughing—that the prices of the return freight, whiskey and salt fish, had advanced.

☞ Messrs. G. V. Rowe & Co. announce that they have taken the store formerly occupied by Mr. Rowe, corner Market and Hanover streets—late Mr. Stephen Ferguson's. Of course Rowe & Co. don't need to be told much how to conduct their business.

☞ Sailing sloop Preble, 10, reported burnt, was an old-fashioned 16-gun corvette, built at the Portsmouth Navy Yard in 1839. She was about 560 tons burden, and had about 300 officers and men. She represented the American Navy at the great naval fete at Cherbourg.

☞ Bachman & Co.'s new goods have arrived. Advertisement to-morrow.

FORT CONSTITUTION.—Several cargoes of stone have arrived from Saco, at this Fort. A new wharf has been built, and upon this the stone is landed. From this point a railway is being constructed around the westerly side of the Fort, so that the stone can be speedily moved to its destination. The soldiers at the Fort have received liberal furloughs, and are expecting soon to leave for the seat of war, their places to be supplied by the company of heavy artillery now recruiting.

☞ Capt. I. F. Jenness is authorized to recruit a Company of Heavy Artillery for service at Fort Constitution, in Portsmouth harbor. His office is at J. B. Adams' store, Congress Block.

S. J. COURT,—EXETER.

In the case of Barrett v. Salisbury Man'f Co. the defendants are now putting in evidence, and the case, it is said, will occupy all of this week.

☞ The Ballot states that the services of Alfred M. Hoyt, Esq., as surveyor and civil engineer, are in constant demand, so well are his skill and talents appreciated by those wishing surveys made, plans drawn, &c.—Of late he has been employed in taking levels, &c. to be used in the trial of the celebrated and time-honored flowage suit—which case, by the way, we should think would hardly "suit" anybody but the lawyers.

☞ A term of the U. S. Circuit Court will commence in this city to-day. Judge Clifford is expected to preside.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambucci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

Read the following recommendation from the Cashier of the Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H.

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipiseogee, Nov. 10, 1862.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS.:—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an increased quantity this next spring. Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crops. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, Respectfully,
ABEL HALEY,
Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro, N. H

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all disease of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. Dow has the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath its treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcerations and Abscesses in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Bubons, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms resulting from the use of Mercury, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of consumption, &c. The mental effects on the mind are much to be dreaded, loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, aversion to the presence of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating marriage, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your complaint. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotine, warranted the most effective. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important!

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all disease incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had more experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in this or other states.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH CAPOTINE. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

SATURDAY, MAY 9, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Col. Phillips crossed the Arkansas river on the night of April 24, and attacked some rebel forces which had been concentrating and fortifying at Weber Falls, Indian Territory, routing them and capturing all their camp equipage.

It is said Price's troops for the invasion of Missouri are to be mounted, and that it will move up east of Black river on the 15th of May.

Four gunboats, after shelling Grand Gulf, passed below the batteries on the night of the 30th, with troops on transports. Later accounts say that we have captured Grand Gulf with 500 prisoners and all the guns, ammunition and stores.

A New Orleans correspondent states that the headquarters of Gen. Banks are at Washington, 15 miles above Opelousas.—Gen. Weitzel's division is six miles beyond.

The Cincinnati Gazette's correspondent at Murfreesboro' says the rebels in Tennessee have been reinforced by from 20,000 to 25,000 men. The rebel army is said to number 100,000. The report of Bragg's death was a trick of newspaper sensationists.

Richmond papers state that Peck's forces were pressing after the rebels, who had abandoned the siege of Suffolk, and that Keyes's forces were also moving from Yorktown.

The rebels have all left Suffolk and passed over Blackwater and beyond. At the fight on Sunday they lost, in killed, 200, whom they buried. This does not include their killed which they left on the field.

Sec. Stanton on Friday telegraphed to Gov. Andrew that "the President and Gen. Halleck had just returned from a visit to Gen. Hooker. The principal operation of Gen. Hooker failed; but there has been no serious disaster to the organization and efficiency of the army. Not more than one-third of Gen. Hooker's force was engaged. Gen. Stoneman's operations have been a brilliant success. A part of his force advanced to within two miles of Richmond, and the enemy's communications have been cut in every direction. The army of the Potomac will speedily resume offensive operations."

Washington dispatches say: Our loss in prisoners does not exceed 1700. We have received 2450 prisoners of the enemy.—We lost 8 guns and took 9 from the enemy. Gen. Stoneman has 1000 prisoners. He has safely arrived at Rappahannock Station with the remainder of his force. He has cut the railroad connections of the enemy in all directions, and thus won a noble distinction. The rebels pronounce his the greatest feat of the kind in military annals. Gen. Longstreet's force was pushed through on Friday, Saturday and Sunday before Stoneman cut the communications.

A dispatch to the Boston Merchants' Exchange says it was "rumored in New York that Hooker was recrossing the Rappahannock on Friday, and the rumor was generally credited." Another dispatch says Gen. Foster's troops have been on the march two days in the direction of Richmond, and a movement from Suffolk is taking place in the same direction.

☞ Many accounts assert that there was a panic in Richmond at the approach of Gen. Stoneman. The N. Y. Tribune says Gen. Stoughton, of Vermont, who has just been released, and has returned from Richmond to Washington, states that on Saturday, Sunday and Monday Richmond was paleid with fear. Not a soldier was in the city or in Petersburg. The forts were manned by citizens and employees. Gens. Stoughton and Willich express the opinion that 500 resolute soldiers could have captured the city, carried off Jeff. Davis, his Cabinet and his Congress, and liberated every Union prisoner. Even the guards at the prisons were wounded men who limped along their beats.

☞ The Boston Post states that Brig. Gen. Chas. P. Stone has been ordered to report for duty at New Orleans, where he will rank all officers known to be in that department, but Gen. Banks.

☞ A fellow in Bangor recently picked a man's pocket of a valuable lever watch while measuring him, under pretence of settling a wager which would girt the most around the waist.

☞ The Washington Star says Gen. Hooker estimates his losses in killed, wounded and missing, at 10,000. Also that he has taken at least as many pieces of artillery as he lost.

SUDDEN DEATH IN WATERVILLE.—A correspondent at Waterville writes that Mr. Eben Garland of that town fell dead on Maine street, Tuesday morning, 5th.—"He had been intoxicated in the streets for several days, and was put in the lockup the night previous. Immediately on coming out in the morning he died." Our correspondent adds, "Thirty unmolested rum shops on the street were the cause."—Portland Press.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Seventy steam fire engines have been made up to this time by the Amoskeag Company of Manchester, including two for Halifax and one for the Russian city of Amoor. Where do not American inventions penetrate?

—— The Annual Commencement at Dartmouth College occurs on Thursday, July 23. The graduating class consists of 52 in the Academic department, to whom 23 parts have been assigned, and 6 in the Scientific, who all perform parts. Tuesday, July 21, is to be Class Day. Bishop Clark of Providence, Rhode Island, is expected to address the Theological Society the same evening. On Wednesday forenoon, Prof. E. D. Sanborn, of St. Louis, Mo., has been invited to address the Phi Beta Kappa Society—no poet announced yet. Same afternoon, Ralph Waldo Emerson, of Concord, Mass., will address the United Literary Societies. Music by the Germania Band, who give a concert Wednesday evening. Commencement exercises Thursday July 23.

—— Francestown hills are covered with snow which fell on Wednesday.

—— Lieut. Fred. A. Kendall, of Concord, Co. B, 4th regiment, knows how to treat the reporters, for he has been one himself. A Boston Herald correspondent states that on the trip in the steamer Saxon, from Edisto to Folly Island he had fine accommodations, for which he was indebted to the Lieutenant aforesaid, who gave up his berth and slept on the "floor" for the benefit of the Herald man, though against the latter's earnest remonstrances.

—— May 1st the 4th regiment was located, with others, on the western point of Folly Island, but was preparing to march several miles further up the Island, by order of Gen. Vodges. The officers of the 4th have procured a band, which is being organized and drilled by Walter Dignam. The 3d N. H. on the 1st was on Botany Bay Island, at the mouth of the North Edisto river.

—— The Boston Congregationalist of a recent date thus alludes to the Congregational Church in Rindge:—

We have one church in mind, (Rev. Dr. Burnham's, Rindge) which for forty-two years has paid the pastor's salary in one sum on the very day it became due, and nearly at the same hour of the day, except when pay day came on the Sabbath, and then the money was paid the day before.

☞ The Maine Conference of the Methodist E. Church have just closed a session in Portland, at which a series of patriotic resolutions were adopted, affirming unconditional loyalty to the Government, and hailing with profound satisfaction the emancipation proclamation of President Lincoln, "not only as one of the most hopeful agencies for the suppression of the rebellion, but as the harbinger of that 'good time coming' when our nation shall no longer be cursed and disgraced with an evil, which the great Founder of Methodism justly denounced as the 'sum of all villanies.'"

The committee in their report on Temperance stated that they believed the use of fermented liquors had increased intemperance in Maine, in view of which fact it was resolved by the convention that in the exercise of their suffrage, they would discriminate in favor of thorough temperance men, and would use their efforts to correct public opinion, and stimulate to more earnest and persevering endeavors in this most important cause.

☞ "Not to crush these serpents before their rattles are grown, would be ruinous," wrote Lee to Washington, in 1777, of the Long Island Tories, who avowed an intention of resisting the authority of the Provincial Congress. Washington concurred, but proceeded with characteristic discretion. He replied to Lee: "You can seize upon the persons of the principals; they must be so notoriously known that there will be little danger of committing mistakes." Lee, the historian says, acted up to the letter of these instructions, and with a vigorous hand, disabled some of the rankest of the species.

☞ The Boston Courier, in speaking of Senator Saulsbury, who in the Senate of the United States calls Lincoln an imbecile, and draws a pistol on the Sergeant-at-Arms; Seymour and Fernando Wood and James Brooks in New York, and Vallandigham and others in other States, says of them,—when some one condemns them:—

"The only offence of these men is that they are opposed to the emancipation policy of the Administration."

This can hardly be said truly of Saulsbury and Vallandigham; for they voted with the rebels on every question till the rebels left Congress,—and acted for the rebels to the last.

☞ An exchange paper speaking of the observance of the Sabbath by seamen in port, regards with much favor the way that English captains observe the Sabbath on shipboard. No visitors are allowed on board the English steamers on Sundays. It would only be a small labor for all vessels to recognize public days and the Lord's day by displaying their bunting.

☞ The Richmond Enquirer says Stonewall Jackson lost an arm.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated — By UNCLE TOBY.

Andros appointed Governor of New England in 1686—Robert Mason died 1688—William III. reigns in 1689—Andros sent to England.

A hearing was had on Vaughan's appeal before a committee of the Lords of Trade and Plantations, who made their report in Mason's favor; and on the 19th of November, 1686, the King was pleased to "approve of their Lordships' opinion and report, and to order that said verdict and judgment given in his Majesty's Courts in New Hampshire, in New England, at the suit of Robert Mason, Esq. as proprietor of that province, for certain lands and tenements in Portsmouth, in said province be ratified and affirmed, and they are hereby ratified and affirmed accordingly." It had long been the intention of the King to unite all the Colonial governments in this country under one Governor-General. The design was to introduce the alteration so gradually as not to excite an alarm, and the appointment of Mr. Dudley was considered as one step towards it.

On the 30th of December, 1686, Sir Edmund Andros, who had been Governor of New York, arrived with a commission appointing him Captain-General and Governor in Chief of New England. The Governor and Council were invested with full powers to make laws, impose taxes, and appropriate the money as they should think necessary. The Council was numerous; seven were necessary to form a board, five of whom made a quorum; and the Governor generally selected such as were most subservient to his wishes.

After the decision of Mason's actions against Vaughan, he returned again to this town in 1687, with an intention to have his executions levied according to law. He had, however, to encounter difficulties which he had not anticipated. The new government viewed with a jealous eye the extensive claim of Mason, and were desirous of dividing the territory amongst themselves. The Courts refused to issue executions on the judgments he had formerly recovered; and as the Governor and Council were authorized to grant lands, on such terms, and subject to such quit rents, as should be appointed by the King, it was held that Mason's cases were not valid. Every new difficulty confirmed the people in their opinion that the title was defective, and served to increase their opposition to him.

After a long contest with the Courts in New Hampshire, Mason found that he could not obtain his writs of possession and executions on the judgments he had recovered: he therefore applied to Dudley, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, whose jurisdiction extended over the whole territory, for a writ of certiorari to remove those actions into that Court. The Chief Justice granted the writ, which issued on the 18th of July, 1688, directed to the Judges of New Hampshire, returnable before the Supreme Court of Boston. But Mason's death put a stop to all further proceedings. He was summoned to attend the Governor as one of his Council, and on his journey from New York to Albany he died at Esopus, in the 59th year of his age. He left two sons, John and Robert.

In 1689, the spirit of the revolution, which introduced William III., Prince of Orange, into England and banished James II., extended to this country. The people, harrassed and fatigued with continual changes and impositions, rejoiced at an opportunity of freeing themselves from a government, which had been so extremely oppressive to them. Andros had returned to Boston a zealous supporter of King James, and he treated with severity all who were attached to the other party. Reports were circulated that he intedded to introduce Popery, and that his guards would massacre those who opposed him. These reports, however unfounded, excited great alarm; the inhabitants rose in arms, seized the Governor and his principal adherents, and committed them to prison, and afterwards sent them to England as State prisoners, to abide the orders of the King. In this unsettled state of affairs it was proposed to call a convention in New Hampshire to advise in what manner to proceed, and to agree upon some form of government. Major William Vaughan, Richard Waldron, Nath'l Fryer, Robert Elliot, Thomas Corbett and Capt. John Pickering were chosen deputies from Portsmouth.

Besides these perplexities and distresses, the people had to encounter others of a different kind. The Indians had for some time been troublesome, and made depredations on those settlements which were most exposed. This year the war broke out with great fury. The massacre at Major Waldron's, and some other garrison-houses at Dover, took place with circumstances of unparalleled cruelty; but this town escaped. Finding it necessary to make some exertions to check the savages, scouting parties were sent out from several towns. One from this place under Capt. Wincol marched to Winnipisseogee lake, where they killed one or two Indians and destroyed their corn.

Capt. John Pickering, an influential man in the town, went with a company of armed men to the house of Chamberlayne, the late Secretary of the province and Clerk of the Superior Courts, and demanded the records and files, which were in his possession. Chamberlayne refused to deliver them without orders from some proper authority or indemnity. Pickering took them by force and carried them to the house of Major Joseph Hammond in Kittery, where he concealed them.

EMANCIPATION IN MISSOURI.—The Chillicothe (Mo.) Chronicle announces that James S. Rollins, formerly a member of Congress, has given in his adhesion to the emancipation cause, and declares his belief that the best thing Missouri can do is to adopt a plan at once for the gradual liberation of slaves.

ROMANCE IN REBELLION.—The New York Sunday Times says the celebrated Mrs. Brinsmade, the "pretty rebel woman," whose imprisonment by Superintendent of Police Kennedy created such a sensation, has terminated her public performances quite romantically. She has married the Dr. Phelps, who was also arrested on suspicion of being a rebel, because of his marked attention to her. What she did with her previous husband, who was in the rebel army, doesn't distinctly appear.

☞ The Richmond Whig of the 22d says that several hundred thousand negroes have been stolen by the Yankees.

Life is a casket not precious in itself, but valuable in proportion to what fortune, or industry, or virtue has placed within it.

NEWBURYPORT POUDRETTE.

An article so well known as POUDRETTE may need no remarks to show its superiority to any other Fertilizer. The basis of this Fertilizer, Night Soil, obtained in Newburyport, from deep vaults—the accumulation in many cases of many years—so that it is highly concentrated. By mechanical means it is rendered very fine and dry so that no inconvenience can result from its use.

It is very useful in starting the young plant being just warm enough to sprout the seed without burning it. It makes the plant more healthy and consequently the crop is greater; this is especially true of corn and garden vegetables.

It contains no noxious weeds or larvæ of insects, which are almost sure to follow the use of manure. Insects will not remain in the same hill with Poudrette. Its cheapness cannot fail to recommend it. One barrel of Poudrette being equal to a load of barnyard manure.

From the success met with last season, the subscriber flatters himself that he can manufacture an article superior to any in the market.

I shall use as my trade mark the brand, "ESSEX MILLS. POUDRETTE, Newburyport, Ms." All persons should see for themselves that they get the genuine and no other, as every barrel will be branded as above.

HIRAM LITTLEFIELD,

Certificates.

I have received certificates of its value, a few of which are here inserted.

ALFRED, Me., Dec. 29, 1862.

Messrs. NOYES & LITTLEFIELD:—

Gents,—Last Spring I obtained of Wm. H. Conant, one barrel of your Poudrette as an experiment, with but little faith in its utility. When I opened it I was fairly sick of it, saying to myself it looks more like loam than any thing else and is good for nothing; but how mistaken I was for where I used it I think I got from one-third to one-half more corn than where I used barnyard manure only, the corn being heavier and was ripe two weeks earlier. I think it is just the thing for raising corn in this country. Sometime a whole crop of corn might be saved by its use.

Yours, truly, WM. H. JEWETT.

Extract of a letter of P. H. Falls.

SALMON FALLS, N. H., Sept. 28, 1862.

I received the Poudrette and used it nearly all on my place; there were a number of farmers that intended to have some, but were afraid to use it, thought it was a new kind and a humbug, and did not take any. I used it myself and think it is as good as any Poudrette I have used before. Another year I shall use it more extensively, also my neighbors will want considerable about here.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., January, 1863.

This may certify that we have used the last season, Noyes & Littlefield's Poudrette, and find it superior to any we ever used before, and would recommend it to the public generally.

DEATH OF GEN. WHIPPLE.—A private dispatch was received in Boston from Washington, on Thursday, as follows:

"Gen. Amiel W. Whipple, last Monday morning, at Chancellorville, while examining the lines of defense, was shot through the body by a minie ball from the rifle of a rebel sharpshooter. One of our sharpshooters who saw the act instantly shot the rebel in turn. Gen. Whipple was removed to Washington to the house of his brother-in-law, Major John P. Sherburne, where he died at 3 on the afternoon of Thursday.—He received a Major General's commission an hour before he died."

Gen. Whipple was a native of Massachusetts. He graduated second in his class at West Point, and has been in active service most of the time since. He was associated with the Topographical Engineers, and had charge of the Central American Expedition about twelve years ago. Since the war commenced he has been actively on duty, and in September last had temporary charge of the defenses of Washington. Previous to that time he was made a Brigadier General. He bore the character of an accomplished soldier. His scientific attainments were of a very superior description. He was a man of unassuming manners and had the love and deep respect of many friends. His age was about forty-five. He married a daughter of Col. John N. Sherbune of this city, and leaves a widow and a family of three children to lament his death.

THE LATE CAPT. RAND.

We, in common with all the friends of Capt. Chas. E. Rand, a native of this city, reported killed on the Rappahannock,—have been hoping there might be some mistake about it. But we learn that private dispatches received by his family in Boston, place the matter beyond probable doubt,—and another brave heart is stilled. As a very intimate personal friend of his, from boyhood up, we cannot allow him to pass away without a word of regretful farewell. And we may as well, perhaps, quote a touching mention of him, made by a friend in the Boston Courier:

In the last list of martyrs whose blood has hallowed our country's cause, we notice the name of Capt. Charles E. Rand, of the Mass. 1st. This announcement will sadden the hearts of a host of friends in our city and vicinity, to whom he was endeared by his eminent social qualities and his earnest and manly life. After many years of active life in California, he became associated with his father in the management of the Sagamore House in Lynn, and the Nahant Hotel at Nahant. In the administration of his duties in that position he rendered himself exceedingly popular and won many personal friends. Early in the history of the present war he became an enthusiast in the cause, and identifying himself with the 1st regiment, labored most earnestly to fill its ranks, and with a captain's commission, left Boston with the regiment in June, 1861.

The glorious record of that regiment through this long sad war, is the personal history of Capt. Rand. At the close of the peninsular campaign and of the "seven days' fight," he returned home on leave of absence to restore his health, shattered by his severe duties and a fever contracted during that campaign. During last summer he was placed on recruiting service in Boston, and at its close, returned to the more active duties of his command, and to seal his devotion with his blood. His glorious death at the post of duty, though seemingly sad and untimely to his bereaved family and friends, was a fitting consummation of his earnest life. He died where a soldier should die, and has crowned a patriot's devotion with a martyr's sacrifice and a hero's fame.

"Wise youth, by few are fame's proud wreaths attained,
Yet death, or soon or late, awaits us all:
To fight for freedom's cause is something gained,
And nothing lost, to fall."

Since the months, long ago, when the writer of this roomed with him, in the building now the Piscataqua House, over the way from our office,—and the window of our room in which, we can see as we write,—we have never given up our intimacy; and always when we met, have talked over old times, as well as the stirring scenes in which he has since engaged. With his eventful experience in the California Vigilance Committee, and since in this war—his friends had almost come to regard his life as charmed, and the news of his death fell like a thunderbolt. To his family, the sincere sympathies of the community will be heartily extended, in this their sad bereavement.

☞ Second Lieut. William J. Ladd, of this city, Co. K, 13th N. H. regiment, was a few weeks since appointed Chief of Ordnance on Gen. Getty's staff at Suffolk. The field officers of the 13th are all in good health. The 13th did nobly in the recent fight on the Nansemond, as all accounts agree in stating. It lost 4 killed, and 18 missing. The cavalry continued the pursuit of the rebels and on the 4th had already sent in 20 prisoners. The regiment changed its camp on the 2d to a fine healthy situation about 3 miles from Suffolk, on the Nansemond river. It has about 600 effective men, and 25 sick.—Lieut. M. A. Shaw, of Nashua, has been honorably discharged in consequence of disability.

☞ Our wharves are looking quite busy at the present time—15 or 20 vessels having recently arrived with cargoes for our merchants.

☞ Among the wounded in the recent fight near Suffolk, Va, we notice the following members of Captain Betton's Company, 13th N. H. Regiment:—H. Bean, heel; James Gilchrist, knee. J. Gilchrist was wounded by a spent shell. John McMillan and Isaac H. M. Pray, of the same company, are mentioned as missing.

☞ Three immense Gun Carriages of the most approved pattern were shipped on Friday, on board schooner Lizzie M. Stewart at the Portsmouth Navy Yard for Fortress Monroe. More are soon to follow.

☞ The firm of Samuel Hallet & Co., of New York, who are said to have the very best means of information, have issued the following circular, which looks brighter than previous accounts:—

We are in possession of accurate information, derived from our army correspondents, and communicated by telegraph, mail and special messenger, down to a very late hour, which goes to establish the following facts:

1st. The successful recrossing of the Rappahannock by Gen. Hooker was not the result of a defeat by the rebels, but was a precautionary movement caused by the rapid rise of the river, his doubt in regard to Stoneman's success, the possibility of Lee having been largely reinforced, and the delay in sending to his own aid corresponding accessions of force. Gen. Hooker, from the moment of his first crossing the Rappahannock, declared that he would not remain to allow it to rise in his rear.

2d. Richmond papers of the 5th inst. acknowledge the success of Gen. Stoneman's raid, and that he had penetrated to within six miles of Richmond, tearing up the railroad track, and destroying the bridges.—We are now assured that Gen. Stoneman having executed this work, is guarding the line of approach to Lee's army from Gordonsville, to prevent the transmission to him of supplies.

3. Gen. Peck, at Suffolk, has ascertained that the force opposed to him on the Blackwater and Nansemond has been withdrawn, and he is on the move to assist in the final denouement.

4. Gen. Keyes, also, with a strong force, is on the way from Williamsburg to reinforce the army of the Rappahannock.

5. The preparations to remove the stores from Aquia Creek are in accordance with a plan before framed to change the base of supplies to the line of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, and it is already public that Gen. Heintzleman is leading 30,000 veterans by that route to the aid of General Hooker.

6. The losses of the enemy thus far exceed our own, and his facilities for procuring both reinforcements and supplies are far inferior to ours.

☞ Madame Young, M. D., can be consulted daily, free of charge, at the Franklin House, Portsmouth. Room No. 44,—second floor. 1t

☞ Capt. I. F. Jenness is authorized to recruit a Company of Heavy Artillery for service at Fort Constitution, in Portsmouth harbor. His office is at J. B. Adams' store, Congress Block.

Read the following recommendation from the Cashier of the Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H.

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipissogee, Nov. 10, 1862.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS:—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an increased quantity this next Spring. Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crops. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and plant the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, Respectfully,
ABEL HALEY,
Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H

THE DOMICILE ERECTED BY JOHN.

Translated from the Vulgate of Anser Mater.

BY A. POPE.

Behold the Mansion reared by dædal Jack!
See the malt stored in many a plethoric sack
In the proud cloque of Ivan's livesque!

Mark how the rat's felonious lungs invade
The golden stores in John's paradise laid!

Anon, with velvet foot and Turquin strides,
Sable Grimalkin to his quarry glides.—
Grimalkin grim, that slew the force redest,
Whose tooth insidious John's sackcloth rent.

Lo! now the deep-mouthed bandit fee's assault,
That vexed the avenger of the stolen malt,
Stored in the hallowed precincts of that hall
That rose complete at Jack's creative call.

Here stalks the impetuous cow with crumpled horn
Wherein the exceeding hound was torn,
Who baited the feline slaughter beast that slew
The rat rodacious, whose keen fangs ran thro'
The texture fibrous that involved the grain
Which lay in Hath's invitable stream.

Here walks forlorn the Damsel, crowned with rue,
Lactiferous spoils from vaccine dugs who drew,
Of the corniculate beast whose tortuous horn
Toss'd to the clouds, in fierce vindictive scorn,
The lurging hound, whose braggart bark and stir
Arched the lithe spine and reared the indignant fur
Of pose, that with verminicidal claw
Struck the weird rat, in whose insatiate maw
Lay reeling malt that cost in Joan's courts we saw.

Robed in peasecod garb, that seems in sooth
Too long a prey to Chronos's iron tooth,
Behold the man whose amorous lipe incline,
Full with young Rose's osculant sign,
To the loin mailed whose lac albic hands
Drew albulate wealth from lactenl glands
Of that immortal bovine, by whose horn
Distort to realms ethereal thou was borne
The beast cutaneous, vexer of that sly
Ulysses quadrupedal, who made die
The will mendacious out that had devour
Antecedaneous ale in John's domestic bower.

Lo! here, with lituous honors doffed, succint
Of reposeful locks, the priest who licked
In thy mess golden binds the torn anthrift
Whose mesate exiguous stared from many a rift,
Even as he kissed the virgin all forlorn,
Who milked the cow with implicated horn,
Who in fine wreak'd the sable tortmar shed,
That dared to vex the insidious muricide,
Who let a surreal offence through the pelt
Of the vig rat that robbed the palace Jack had built,

The loud cantankerous Shanghai comes at last,
Whose shouts arouse the shorn ecclesiast,
Who sealed the vows of Hymen's sacrament
To him who, robed, rejected the indigent,
Excoriates the dame, lachrymose,
The malignator of that horned brute morose,
That forced the dog, that worried the cat that bit
The rat that ate the malt that lay in the house that Jack built.

THE MODEL COOK
FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long, or large enough to take in large plates on the bottom, every part of which will take evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to the stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night at will.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to their

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior boiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With an extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The draft regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove. Hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headaches so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off through the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air (through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off) in the top coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke pipe or flue on the top of the coal can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the best generated, making the chimney your hottest part of the apparatus.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Marshall,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber.

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the porosity of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, or when finished the work presents no joints or crevices.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth.

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, having had of late many calls to insert teeth with VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon teeth on Rubber, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently it perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. They are no longer required to open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I flatter myself, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and is the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and finish from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTING is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BARNEY, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and will perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulating Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial sets of teeth repaired with Vulcanized and Gold. In all other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,
A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by Dr. WM. GRACE surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Fleshy Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find the Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

VOL. 22. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. MONDAY MAY 11 1863. NO. 71.

The Chronicle.

Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home, our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every item fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—It common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

LIKED THE PUDDLE BEAT.—Boys delight to wade in water; not country boys merely, who have springs and brooks for playmates, where the banks are blue with violets or yellow with cowslips, but unfortunate city boys, whose only "water privilege" is a muddy stream in a gutter. There was once a delicate little boy, born in a palace and playing in a nursery full of beautiful furniture and golden toys. When he was four years old, his grand-mamma the queen, brought him a quantity of elegant birth-day presents. The little boy looked at them all very patiently, and then went to the window to watch the rain falling outside. It was very wet and he was not allowed to go out; so as he stood at the window there were little drops running down on both sides of the glass. "Don't you like your toys?" asked his grandmamma. "Oh yes, I like them very much," said he, "but if you will only let me run about in that beautiful puddle, you may take back all the things you have given me."

☞ The Vicksburg Whig of the 21st ult. excuses its shortcomings thus: "We owe our readers an apology for the scarcity of reading matter in this morning's paper. The shells from the Yankee battery across the river burst so close to our office yesterday that the printers could do but little work."

MURDER IN PHILLIPS.—A cold-blooded, brutal murder was committed in Phillips, Me., Wednesday afternoon, the 6th. The sleep belonging to Jeremiah Tuck having dispassed a number of times upon the land Jesse Wright, jr., the two men got into a altercation about the matter. Mr. Wright, who is a quarrelsome man, became greatly enraged. He said, "I have had trouble enough with you, and will put an end to it now." Raising his gun, which he had with him, he took deliberate aim, and shot Mr. Tuck through the heart. The deed was done in the presence of Mr. T.'s wife. Wright made his escape. Mr. Tuck was about 60 years of age, and a very inoffensive man. Wright is about 30 years old. Portland Advertiser.

MONDAY, MAY 11, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. King, at Yorktown, officially reports that Col. Kilpatrick had arrived at Gloucester Point. His forces had burned the bridges over the Chickahominy and destroyed three large trains of provisions in the rear of Lee's army. They lost only 1 Lieutenant and 30 men, having captured and paroled upwards of 300 prisoners.—This cavalry have marched nearly 200 miles since the 3d of May. They were inside of the fortifications of Richmond on the 4th, burned all the stores at Aylett's Station on the Mattapony on the 5th, destroyed all the ferries the over Pamunkey and Mattapony, and a large depot of commissary stores near and above the Rappahannock, and came in in good condition. This was a portion of Gen. Stoneman's force.

A Washington dispatch says Gen. Dix has made a movement from Fortress Monroe, and intimates that Petersburg is to be attacked.

Washington specials to New York papers say: the conscription bill will be at once enforced, beginning with the State of New York; official confirmation is received of the capture by Gen. Stoneman of the Richmond City Battalion, which was sent out to discover the reason of the suspension of intercourse with Lee; all our wounded are being taken to Washington, and they will be allowed to go home to be nursed; 1170 prisoners, from Chancellorsville, have been sent to Fort Delaware, under guard of the 14th N. H. regiment; many of the prisoners wish to take the oath of allegiance.

Adm. Porter has officially reported the capture of Grand Gulf. The armament was very heavy and the works of the most extensive kind. We took many guns and a large amount of ammunition. Col. Wade, the commandant of the batteries, and his chief of staff were killed. The forts were very much injured by the accuracy of our fire. The river is now understood to be clear of rebel batteries from Vicksburg to Port Hudson. The rebels were vigorously pursued and many captured. Report says that they spiked most of their guns at Grand Gulf. On Sunday night a tug, attempting to run by the batteries of Vicksburg with two barges, was destroyed by hot shot from the rebel batteries. The barges were loaded with commissary stores, protected by bales of hay, which caught fire. The reports are conflicting as to the fate of the crew.

Gen. Grant reports that he landed at Roulinsburg April 30, moved immediately on Port Gibson, met the enemy 11,000 strong on the 1st and engaged him all day, entirely routing him. Our loss was about 100 killed and 500 wounded. The enemy, whose loss is much greater than ours, retreated towards Vicksburg, destroying two bridges, which our forces rebuilt and continued the pursuit. Besides the heavy artillery, four field pieces were taken and some stores. We took 500 prisoners, besides the wounded. Gen. Grant says: "Our victory has been most complete and the enemy are thoroughly demoralized."

The N. Y. Post's dispatch says a new plan of operations for Gen. Hooker's army has been devised and that it is already in process of execution. One thing is pretty sure, some of our troops are again across the Rappahannock.

By Telegraph, Sunday, to Moore Hutchings, Haley, and others.

The New York Post of Saturday says: there is a rumor in town to-day to the effect that Gen. Peck has marched on Richmond and captured that city. This report is said to have come from Fortress Monroe by telegraph, and we have reason to believe that a dispatch to this effect has reached this city to-night. The Philadelphia Bulletin says: We learn from the editor of the Phila. Enquirer that one of their correspondents who has just returned from Washington, informs them that Hooker recrossed the Rappahannock in force on Saturday, with 8 days' rations. It also learns from another source, that is vouched for as reliable, that Gen. Keyes has taken Richmond, advancing upon it by way of Yorktown, and that the Federal flag now floats over the rebel capital. If this intelligence is true it proves that Hooker's falling back was a ruse and that the real advance on Richmond was to be made while Lee's army was on the Rappahannock. If Gen. Stoneman has cut off the communication of Lee, as is stated, it will be a work of time for him to reach the rebel capital. In the meanwhile Hooker is upon his heels. We have confirmation that Hooker has re-crossed the Rappahannock. Gold has been falling rapidly to-day; this has probably resulted from the above important movements. Everyone in Washington is in good spirits, believing that the good news from the West will be responded to by the Army of the Potomac.

(Latest.) Philadelphia.—It is stated that private advices have been received in this city from Fortress Monroe, saying that 10,000 Federal troops arrived there on the 5th as reinforcements, and immediately moved forward for the attack on Richmond.—There is no doubt that Gen. Hooker has re-crossed the Rappahannock. It is also stated that Gen. Stoneman was at White House on the 6th receiving reinforcements by transports, via York river, which he immediately moved forward to Richmond. The people of this city are in the highest state of enthusiasm over the glorious news. A gentleman just from Aquia Creek, reports a large fleet of transports leaving there with troops.

THE SHAKER ELDER.—The Herald states that a former resident of Newburyport was seen in the streets on Thursday, in the garb of a "Shaker." His name was Pearson, and he has risen to some distinction in those anti-marrying and property-accumulating fraternities. He left the almshouse in 1819, a boy of seven years; his mother, who was legitimately his only near relative, remaining behind. Forty-four years he has spent with the Shakers, and upon his return now there was only one man—only one person in the 13,000 population in the place of his birth—whom he knew. He remembered him as a boy, only by name and family. He enquired diligently after several who were boys with him in the almshouse, but not one whose name he could recall is now living. He stopped a day, and then departed on his lonely journey of life. Fatherless always, the offspring of a pauper mother, who is dead, without children himself, he floats a waif on the tide of time, cut off at the root and without branches.

☞ Some shabby fellows in Hartford, Conn., on Wednesday night, undertook to frighten some lady passers by with a meal bag stuffed with straw, which they suspended over the sidewalk, and let down suddenly in front of every woman that came along. About 8 1-2 o'clock, two ladies coming from the upper part of Ann street were frightened, screamed, and ran back, while the fellows laughed and made insulting remarks to them. They returned for re-inforcements, and three other lady friends—one of them armed with her father's horsewhip, secreted under her mantle—marched quietly up to the battery. Down came the stuffed bag again, but instead of screaming or running away, the young lady with the horsewhip ran into the yard and laid it lustily over the faces and backs of the three sneaking rascals, who ran like whipped curs. Having routed the enemy, the ladies then captured the battery, carrying off the bag and cord as trophies.

☞ A sad case of starvation occurred a short time ago in London. A woman aged 67 years died from want of food. Her daughter, who was "an elderly and poverty-stricken looking woman," said that the deceased, her mother, like herself, supported life as long as she could, by needlework. She used to earn about 12 cents a week; the witness herself could earn 63 cents a week, for which she worked on shirts at 3 cents apiece. These women paid 33 cents a week for rent; the parish allowed them 30 cents and two loaves of bread per week. The deceased had animal food very seldom, and when the daughter could get half a pound of meat for four cents she gave it to her. She used to have "just enough food to keep soul and body together." Witness had brothers, who were too poor to do anything for the old woman, but a married daughter gave her 8 cents a week.

CHAMBER'S BOOK OF DAYS.—This publication is now complete as far as July 1,—finishing the first of the two volumes. The last number, Part 13, contains the index, and a most beautiful title-page printed in colors. We have before spoken in high terms of its merits, and the numbers, as they successively appear, only serve to enhance the favorable opinion originally formed of it. It contains a vast amount of instruction, conveyed in a very pleasing way, and relating to matters connected with the Church Calendar, including the popular festivals, Saints' Days, and other holidays. Then there are accounts of the popular notions and observances connected with the days and seasons; many curious fugitive pieces, and very many others, rendering the book most pleasing and profitable reading to every one. Then it is so beautifully printed and illustrated that it is a joy to look upon it. Published by J. P. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia, and for sale in this city by J. H. Foster. The price is but 20 cents per number, and it should have an extensive sale.

☞ The apparently aimless and certainly ineffectual attack upon the powerful batteries at Haines Bluff is said to have been designed as a diversion to cover the real attack upon Grand Gulf, below Vicksburg. The fortifications at Grand Gulf defend the mouth of the Big Black river, which crosses the line of the Southern Mississippi railway between Jackson and Vicksburg. As on the Yazoo so on the Big Black river Grant aims in every manœuver to cut this solitary line of communication eastward from Vicksburg.

STAND FIRM.—The Boston Post of May 8, says "the National Heart must not droop. The retreat of Gen. Hooker—the loss he has sustained—the disappointment experienced by the country, are heavy weights; but he is of little faith who succumbs to despair while life remains. It is not a time for reproach, but for investigation. We should enquire carefully, fearlessly, calmly, into the causes of our disasters and apply the remedy, if it be possible."

☞ On Wednesday the transport steamer Majesty was accidentally burned in the Mississippi, below Hickman. She had 1,400 tuns of commissary stores and 150 horses—all lost.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Capt. Al B. Thompson, who was severely wounded in his right arm at Murfreesboro', has returned to his home in Holderness, on sick leave. He is a member of the Masonic Lodge there and the members gave him a public reception. There was a dinner, and among the toasts was the following, given by a lady:—"May his head be crowned with laurels, and his right arm encircle the fairest lady in N. H., while his heart beats true to the Union."

—— John M. Young, of Sanbornton Bridge, was arrested at Lake Village a few days since, for counterfeiting. He has been sent to jail to await his trial at the next term of the court in Belknap county.

—— The Second Regiment celebrated, at Concord on Tuesday, the anniversary of the battle of Williamsburg. The exercises included a march about the city, an address from Gov. Berry, and a "sham fight" on the intervale near the Free Bridge. The mimic battle was very exciting and was witnessed by hundreds.

—— The 6th and 9th New Hampshire, and two R. I. regiments, of Gen. Nagle's Brigade, Second Division, Ninth Army Corps, left Richmond, Ky., Sunday 3d inst., with five days' rations, for an unknown destination. None were allowed to go except those able to endure long and rapid marching. The brigade moved toward Lancaster.

—— Mr. John Legacy of Littleton, a Frenchman, about sixty years of age, recently performed a journey of 210 miles, 115 miles on foot and 95 miles in the cars, in a little more than two days and a half.—He did not sleep during his absence from home, and purchased only one meal of victuals. His whole trip cost him two dollars. For all of which story the Littleton Journal must be held responsible,—particularly in regard to the absence of sleep.

—— The correspondent of the N. Y. Herald states that the 12th N. H. regiment went into the fight with 580 men, and came out with only 150. The 5th and 12th regts. did considerable fighting, but the loss of the former was only 27, and nothing compared to its loss of 183 in December, while the latter regiment, which has lost very largely now, was not in action in December.

THE ENGLISH NAVY.—The strength of the English navy is tremendous. The following is a recapitulation of the vessels in service:

	Vessels.	Guns.	Tons.
Screw steamers in com'n	220	8,568	439,400
Paddle steamers in com'n	107	678	71,200
Sailing vessels in com'n	87	654	55,748
Screw steamers (small)	68	438	43,500
Sailing vessels not in com'n	26	2,331
Vessels in construction	42	1,059	113,955
Total,	552	14,080	725,563
Harbor service	140
Total,	742	14,080	725,563

There are ten wooden vessels wholly iron-clad, and eleven iron vessels partly iron-clad. There are also eight floating batteries and two hundred gunboats.

☞ A correspondent of the Boston Journal says that Gen. Dodge, who recently moved eastward from Corinth and captured Tuscumbia, Ala., near the head of navigation on the Tennessee river, and on the line of the railroad from Memphis to Chattanooga, in Bragg's rear, sent a detachment of cavalry southward at the same time, to operate on the Southern Miss. R. R. This detachment marched 200 miles thro' hostile territory, subsisting on the resources of the country, reached the line of the railway east of Jackson and destroyed the road for twenty miles. Richmond is thus cut off at once from Fredicksburg and Vicksburg. With the scarcity of materials for reconstructing railroads at the South, it will be at least a month before this damage can be repaired. Our cavalry is now displaying those qualities which render it an important arm of the service—freedom and celerity of movement, dash, elan. They have done their duty, East and West, thoroughly.

☞ On Saturday, 2d inst., a Copperhead riot occurred at Centreville, Ind. Two weeks before a man came to the place wearing a Butternut breastpin. The sheriff took the obnoxious breastpin from him. The man's friends gathered at Abingdon on Saturday and visited Centreville for the purpose of punishing the sheriff. The friends of the latter got the better of the rioters and dispersed them. Being reinforced, they made a second attack on the town in the afternoon, shouting for Jeff. Davis as they rode in. The Union people overpowered them and captured 27, who are now in jail, charged with disturbing the peace and camping with arms in their hands.

☞ John Trimble, a prominent Union man of Nashville, has freed his slaves, thirteen in number, and it is reported that William T. Berry, another Union citizen, has done the same thing.

☞ The Boston Journal says the report that thirty thousand men from Gen. Heintzelman's department were sent to reinforce Gen. Hooker, is untrue, and that not a single man was sent.

WOOL.—The clip of wool in California this year is a great improvement on previous years both in quantity and quality.

☞ Prof. Agassiz maintains that the American continent has been falsely denominated the New World. "Here was the first dry land lifted out of the waters, here the first shore washed by the ocean that enveloped all the earth beside; and while Europe was represented only by islands rising here and there above the sea, America already stretched an unbroken line of land from Nova Scotia to the far West."

☞ At the Portland Alms House on Tuesday evening last, several boys were annoying by their freaks a man by the name of John Archibald, (about 28 years of age and almost an idiot) when he seized a pair of tongs, and with a rapidity which prevented any intervention, struck one of them, John Mulloy, over the head two or three times, fracturing his skull. The lad died in about 24 hours. He was 10 or 11 years old.

☞ The Farmington, Me., Chronicle states that the Grand Jury of Franklin Co. found a bill against Doyle for the murder of a little girl in Strong last fall. He is to be tried in October.

☞ The 27th New Jersey regiment, in re-crossing the Cumberland River on the 2d inst., had one of their boats upset, and 25 men were drowned.

NEWBURYPORT POUDRETTE.

An article so well known as POUDRETTE may need no remarks to show its superiority to any other Fertilizer. The basis of this Fertilizer is Night Soil, obtained in Newburyport, from deep vaults—the accumulation in many cases of many years—so that it is highly concentrated. By mechanical means it is rendered very fine and dry, so that no inconvenience can result from its use.

It is very useful in starting the young plants, being just warm enough to sprout the seed without burning it. It makes the plant more thrifty, and consequently the crop is greater; this is especially true of corn and garden vegetables.

It contains no noxious weeds or larvæ of insects, which are almost always found in barnyard manure. Insects will not multiply in the same hill with Poudrette. Its cheapness cannot fail to recommend it. One barrel of Poudrette being equal to a load of barnyard manure.

From the success met with last season, the subscriber flatters himself that he can manufacture an article superior to any in the market.

I shall use as my trade mark the brand, "ESSEX MILLS POUDRETTE, Newburyport, Ms." All persons should see for themselves that they get the genuine and no other, as every barrel will be branded as above.

HIRAM LITTLEFIELD,
(late NOYES & LITTLEFIELD,)
Newburyport, Mass.

Certificates.

I have received certificates of its value, a few of which are here inserted.

ALFRED, Me., Dec. 29, 1862.

Messrs. NOYES & LITTLEFIELD:—

Gents.—Last Spring I obtained of Wm. H. Conant, one barrel of your Poudrette as an experiment, with but little faith in its utility. When I opened it I smelled it and said it was going to myself it looks more like loam than any thing else, and is good for nothing; but how mistaken I was, for where I used it I think I got from one-third to one-half more corn than where I used barn yard manure only, the corn being heavier and was ripe two weeks earlier. I think it is just the thing for raising corn in this country. Sometimes a whole crop of corn might be saved by its use.

Yours, truly, WILLIAM JEWETT.

Extract of a letter of P. H. Falls.

SALMON FALLS, N. H., Sept. 28, 1862.

I received the Poudrette and used it nearly all on my place; there were a number of farmers that intended to have some, but were afraid to use it, though it was a new thing and a humbug, and did not take any; I tried it myself and think it is as good as any Poudrette I have used before. Another year I shall use it more extensively—also my neighbors will want considerable about here.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., January, 1863.

This may certify that we have used the last season, Noyes & Littlefield's Poudrette, and find it superior to any we ever used before, and would recommend it to the public generally.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, where the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

Local.

☞ The loyal heart of the community beat high with hope on Saturday evening, when the following brief dispatch was received and made public by the association of gentlemen to whom our citizens have been so often indebted for early and important intelligence:—

The Philadelphia Enquirer states that Gen. Keyes, with 30,000 men, advanced up the Peninsula and has taken Richmond; also that Gen. Hooker has re-crossed the Rappahannock, taking 8 days' rations.

The news spread like wild fire; it was almost too good to be believed to be true, even if it came from the most trustworthy source. So long has the Nation longed for the repossession of that rebellious city; so ardently has it hoped that in Virginia some great and glorious success might reward the valor and patriotic self sacrifice of our soldiers, that the mere rumor, even, that Richmond was taken, was received with the greatest enthusiasm, while there was the most feverish anxiety for the reception of Sunday's dispatches, in the hope that these would bring a full confirmation of the glorious tidings. These dispatches we give entire in another column, and while they do not give us the full confirmation hoped for, nor remove all room for reasonable doub', they serve, as cumulative testimony, to strengthen the hope that the good tidings are true. We trust that this hope will speedily give place to a most joyous certainty.

☞ Among the wounded in the recent battles is Capt. James R. Bigelow, of the 11th Massachusetts regiment, a native of this city. He was wounded in the hand. He is a son of the late Daniel J. Bigelow, Esq., who was formerly in business here.

We also learn that a private dispatch was received in this city on Saturday, stating that Lieut. Justin E. Dimick had died from the effects of wounds received in the same battles. He was the second son of Col. Dimick, U. S. A.; was a graduate of West Point, and had many friends in this city. He was about 24 years of age.

☞ Among the invalid soldiers in the hospitals at Washington at the date of the last report, were the following:—J. T. Randall, of this city, rheumatism; Patrick Sullivan, of this city, rheumatism; J. P. Randall, Newcastle, fever; W. M. Mace, Rye, fever.

☞ Our city was gay with flags on Sunday afternoon. Messrs. Samuel Cleaves & Son spread to the breeze a new and beautiful American Flag, whose ample folds none might hesitate to rally under.

GEN. ROSECRANS.—A correspondent writing from the Western army thus sketches Gen. Rosecrans, as he appeared during a first interview:—

"Of course I was interested in the looks and bearing of our only General who has actually demonstrated being equal his capacity to handle a great army in the field; to bring victory out of disaster. General Rosecrans is an erect, solid man of one hundred and seventy-five pounds weight, whose forty-three years sit lightly on his face and frame. He has a clear, mild blue eye, which lights up under excitement until it can flash fire; an intensified Roman nose; high cheek bones; ruddy complexion; mouth and chin hidden under dark brown moustache and whiskers, untouched by the razor; hair a shade or two lighter, with a few threads of silver, and growing thin on the edges of the high, full, but not broad forehead. In conversation his face is illumined by a peculiarly winning smile, and an eye shining with mirth. As Hamlet would take the ghost's word for a thousand pounds, so you would trust that face, in a stranger, as thoroughly true, full of character, and reserved power. His talk is like it—direct, frank, overflowing with humor, or strong in emphasis."

☞ A patriotic gentleman in Newburyport has caused to be printed, at his own expense, a large edition of an article entitled "Lights among the Shadows of our Civil War," from the talented and graceful pen of "Gail Hamilton."

☞ Edmund Baron, a foreigner residing at the Metropolitan Hotel, New York city, committed suicide on Tuesday night. Loss of fortune appears to have been the cause. He left his body to a friend, with directions to have the skeleton hung up in his (doctor's) office as a memento.

☞ In the Supreme Court in New York it has been decided by the full bench that an alien cannot be admitted to practice in courts in that State. T. M. Fairbairn, a Canadian, was the applicant.

☞ Somebody in the city of Boston is laboring under a grievous mistake, for he commences a communication to a newspaper thus:—"To the Editor of the Boston Courier. Oh listen, listen, Abraham Lincoln," &c. Honest Old Abe, we presume, has not yet assumed that position.

☞ The following are the casualties that have happened to the steamers trading with the Bahamas and Bermudas since the 1st of January, 1863. The Blockade runners have met with some disasters.

Captured—Princess Royal, Gertrude, Nicolai, Granite City and Duoro.

Bleached and Destroyed—Wave Queen, Georgiana and Stonewall Jackson.

Foundered at Sea—Nina.

☞ The steamer Circassian, from Wilmington, (N. C.) Bar, 4th, arrived at New York on Saturday. She has been along the coast from Sabine Pass to Fortress Monroe. She has on board the rebel Commodore Forbes, captured by the steamer New London off Sabine Pass, and a lot of prisoners captured from the rebel steamer Chattahoochie. She reports the iron clads off Charleston, and all ready for another attack.

☞ Gen. Rosecrans has directed that no passes be issued hereafter to ladies to pass from Louisville to Nashville, Murfreesboro', or within the lines of his department, until further orders,—"this being the season for active military operations."

☞ The Court martial in the Vallandigham case submitted their decision to Gen. Burnside on Friday. It will not be made public until published in General Orders.

☞ Gov. Seymour has vetoed the Broadway Railroad bill.

☞ The drinking saloons of New Orleans are closed each evening at 9 o'clock. The Era says: "The drinking public were in a dilemma; but it was a dilemma without any horns."

A PRACTICAL DEFINITION:—A soldier gaining his knowledge of military phrases entirely from his own experience, gives the following definition:

"Pickets;" these are chaps that are cent out to borry terbacker of the enama, and to see if the rebels has got a pass.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!

EYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named. ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

Read the following recommendation from the Cashier of the Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H.

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipisoogee, Nov. 10, 1862.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS.:—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an increased quantity this next Spring. Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crops. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, Respectfully,
ABEL HALEY,
Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro, N. H

EARLY RISING.—Miss Martineau is a great advocate of getting up early in the morning. She says:—

"I speak from experience here. For 30 years my business has lain in my study. The practice of early rising was, I am confident, the preservation of health through many years of hard work—the hours gained being given, not to book or pen, but to activity. I rose at 6, summer and winter, and, after cold bathing, went out for a walk in all weathers. In the coldest season, on the rainiest morning, I never returned without being glad that I went. I need not detail the pleasure of the summer mornings. In winter, there was either a fragment of gibbous moon hanging over the mountain, or a star quivering in the river, or icicles beginning to shine in the dawn, or, at worst, some break in the clouds, some moss on the wall, some gleam on the water, which I carried home with me in the shape of refreshment. I breakfasted at 7 1-2, and had settled household business and was at my work by 8 1-2, fortified for seven hours continuous desk work without injury or fatigue."

VOL. 22. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. ~~MONDAY~~ TUES MAY 12, 1863. NO. 71

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the light, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

☞ The New Orleans Picayune of the 21st ult., in commenting upon Gen. Bank's recent movements, says:—

"The influence of this short campaign of Gen. Banks will be felt far and wide; it will be most cheering to the people of the North, and directly the opposite, of course, to the people of the South; and if the operations commenced so vigorously are followed up in the same manner, they will be of more importance than any attempted during the present war.

"It is undoubtedly a heavy blow against Port Hudson, heavier indeed than if it had been struck directly against that strongly fortified position, for it is aimed at the great depot of supplies—cut these off, and there is no telling what the result will be. With Admiral Farragut at the mouth of Red River, and a powerful army in Western Louisiana, the great highway to Texas is closed and will remain so so long as they have the ability to maintain their positions. To sum up the entire affair, it is safe to say that it has been a most disastrous ten days for the Confederates in this section of the country, and most fortunate for the forces of the United States.

"The events of the next month in this State will be interesting as well as exciting, for it will be determined in that time which party is to hold possession of the greater part of this State during the next few months. That part now in possession of the United States forces gives them almost the entire control of the Louisiana seaboard; there is nothing left of it worth having, and an army at New-Iberia is as near its base of supplies as if it were at New Orleans."

WON'T BEND THE KNEE.—Some amusement was occasioned in the Canadian Assembly the other day, by a decision of the Speaker to the effect that he would not kneel before the representative of Her Majesty, in presenting the address. The authority of Lord Eversley, late Speaker of the British House of Commons, was cited in proof of that mode of proceeding; but the Speaker declared that sooner than see it introduced into the Legislative Assembly he would resign.

☞ The Shreveport, La., Gazette recently published a card, signed by 100 foreigners, who, fearing the draft, took this course to notify the people that they were French subjects, and owed no allegiance to the State of Louisiana. A Mr. Courtade, one of the signers of the card, was taken out of his bed and tarred and cottoned the same night, and the Rogue's March was played before the business houses of the balance of the signers.

☞ A dispatch from Salt Lake City states that on the 4th, Capt. Smith's 2d California Volunteers found the Indians 50 miles south of Shell Creek, and killed 29. They followed them and on the 8th killed 23. One soldier was wounded. Gen. Connor, with 50 men, went north on the 6th to establish a post at Soda Springs.

☞ The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that if a husband and wife live together, and their aggregate income is in excess of $600 per annum, they will be entitled to but one deduction of $600.—If a man and wife do not live together, but maintain separate establishments, they must be taxed separately, and will be each entitled to the $600 deduction.

☞ Mrs. Eliza Morse, of Cabot, Vt., was brought before Justice Fisher, of that place, on Saturday, April 18th, under an indictment for knowingly spreading the small pox, in sending her children to school while afflicted with that disease; and bound over in the sum of one hundred dollars for appearance at the county court.

☞ An excellent substitute for tea (said to be,) grows in large quantities in Tioga Co., Pa. It is said to resemble the Chinese tea so much that the merchants buy it to mix with the genuine. In Clifton Co., Pa., the genuine article is claimed to grow in abundance, and the citizens there are jubilant on the prospect of becoming independent of the "pigtails."

THE REBELLION.

The Memphis Bulletin says that Gen. Grant has sent 1900 prisoners to Milliken's Bend. A portion of his forces, when last heard from, were within 30 miles of Jackson and had taken several days' rations with them. It was reported that the bridge over the Big Black Bayou had been destroyed, thus cutting off the rebel retreat from Vicksburg.

Gen. Grant reports a brilliant cavalry raid by Col. Grierson in Mississippi. He is now supposed to be on his way to Baton Rouge, having spread excitement throughout the State by destroying railroads, trestle work and bridges, burning locomotives and railway stock, taking prisoners and destroying stores of all kinds.

Col. Straight left Tuscumbia on the 26th ult., going to Blunteville, where he had a fight and whipped the rebels badly. He then moved toward Rome. Rebel statements subsequent to this say an overwhelming force surrounded Straight and captured him. He had destroyed some large iron-works on the Coosa river. Another raid into Georgia is reported by the Chattanooga Rebel. It says the force is 3000 strong, and has gone as far south as Tallagoda, 80 miles below Rome; that the Georgia troops were mounted on animals taken from Straight and sent after the Yankees.

Gen. Buford with his light brigade is said to have penetrated to the Alleghany ridge in Western Virginia, and destroyed the Richmond and Tennessee railroad in several places, captured many prisoners, obtained important information, and burned large quantities of stores intended for the rebel armies in the Southwest.

Gen. Foster was still at Newbern, May 5th, strengthening the fortifications. An order was received there on the 4th from Port Royal, S. C., directing the immediate return of Gen. Heckman's brigade to the Department of the South.

Gen. Dix returned to Fortress Monroe on the 8th. He states that Cols. Kilpatrick and Davis arrived at Gloucester Point, with 700 cavalry, without the loss of a man. Gen. Dix on the night of the 7th sent a force to White House, who succeeded in destroying the bridges about that place, and made some important captures, including several prisoners.

Richmond has not yet been taken. The N. Y. Tribune states that our forces at Suffolk and on the Peninsula having made a demonstration toward Richmond early last week, Gen. Lee on Tuesday rushed down many of his troops and saved the place; that Hooker crossed the Rappahannock Friday night and found no enemy this side of the North Anna. Forney's Press states that Gen. Pleasanton's cavalry crossed the Rappahannock and found no rebels at or near Chancellorsville. The N. Y. Herald has a letter dated at West Point, Va., evening 7th, which reports the occupation of that place by a large force under Gen. Keyes. A reconnoissance had been made toward White House.

Gen. Hooker is again across the Rappahannock. Heintzleman's army is in motion, and it is very probable that another great battle will soon be fought. The Philadelphia Press' correspondent says the President has promised Gen. Hooker that his communications on the rear of his army shall be properly guarded; that additional means, ammunition and supplies shall be furnished; and that Gen. Sigel shall again lead his troops.

NAVAL.—An order has been issued by the Department to equalize the wages in the several Navy Yards with those of outside establishments, so as to prevent strikes.

Screw-sloop Mohican, 7, arrived at Port Royal, April 16, from a cruise.

Side-wheel steamer Sonoma, 14, Com'r Stevens, of the West India Squadron, and screw-steamer Huntsville, 5, a. v. Lieut. Rodgers, of the East Gulf Squadron, sailed for Havana on the 3d. The latter had taken three prizes during the three weeks preceding April 21st.

☞ In his speech before the Loyal League in Boston, on the 9th of April, Mr. Everett said:

"We often hear it said that measures of compromise, and especially the adoption of the Crittenden resolutions, would, in the winter of 1860-61, have been accepted by the South, and would have prevented the war, and that similar measures, if now tendered, would restore the Union. I have no belief of either. Never, since the war broke out, has there been the slightest intimation that the South would treat with the United States on any other basis than the recognition of the Confederacy and the dismemberment of the Union—the object which, for thirty years, has been steadily pursued by the cotton states."

☞ The principal bass singer at the Grand Opera in Paris died a few nights ago, from apoplexy, on the stage during the performance.

CO. K, 13TH N. H. REGIMENT.

From a private letter from Capt. M. T. Bettes, of Co. K, 13th N. H. Regiment, we make the following extracts:—

CAMP NEAR SUFFOLK, VA., May 4.

Yesterday was a day ever to be remembered by the 12th. We got into line at 8 A. M. and marched across the river, with the 89th and 103d N. Y., and the 25th N. J. The 103d deployed as skirmishers and were supported by the 25th N. J. The 89th also deployed and were supported by our regiment—the 13th. We entered the large field, driving in the enemy's pickets, until within about 600 yards of a thick wood, where the Graybacks made a stand. The 89th was some 20 yards in advance of us, lying flat on the ground,—the ground, a corn field, being level. Our regiment was in the same position. After some brisk firing by the skirmishers, the 89th advanced about 10 yards, we following and again lying down.

This was continued until the intense heat of the sun became intolerable, when we begged our noble commander, Lt. Col. Bowers, to permit us to charge on the wood. At last he consented, saying—"You may up and at them." The words were hardly out of his mouth, before the right wing was all up. My company being on the left of the right four companies it was no time to tarry, for the moment that we arose the minie balls whistled around and through our ranks. When I gave the order—"forward, K," every man seemed to be actually wild with delight. We fixed bayonets while on the run, and although men were falling all around us, with one exception faced the music nobly.

We charged over the 89th, leaving them in our rear, and entered the woods amid a shower of shot and shell,—the left wing doing the same, under our gallant Major Storer. We pushed on, gaining ground inch by inch, until we got behind the crest of a hill. After a short rest we again started, the 89th having in the meantime come up, and, praising us highly, formed on our left.

We continued to drive the rebels from crest to crest, until we found that we had advanced so far that the 103d N. Y., which was on our flank, was firing into us; when we were ordered to fall back behind the crest, where we lay until sunset, at which time we were relieved and returned to camp.

I have not learned as yet a complete list of the killed and wounded in the regiment. Henry Bean, James Gilchrist and John McMillan were wounded slightly, but are all right to-day. Capt. Buzzell, of Co. F, was killed a few feet from me. Henry Foye of Co. E, one of the men whom Lieut. Coffin enlisted, was killed. Lieut. Murray, of Co. E, was wounded badly.

☞ President Lincoln has issued a proclamation, in relation to the Conscription act, declaring that no plea of alienage will be sufficient to exempt any persons of foreign birth who have declared on oath their intention to become citizens of the United States, and who shall remain in the country at the expiration of sixty-five days from the date of the proclamation,—May 8th. Nor shall any such plea exempt any person who has declared his intention to become a citizen and has exercised the right of suffrage. These regulations apply only during the continuance of the present rebellion.

☞ A sensation was created at Newbern, N. C., by the marriage, on the morning of the 6th, of Charles C. Lawrence, of Boston, a member of the Mass. 44th regiment, to the accomplished daughter of Israel Dimoway, a banker in Newbern. After making a transfer of his property to the bridegroom, the father left our lines with other disloyal citizens, who had been ordered south.

☞ A new two cent stamp has been prepared for local or drop letters, having a portrait of Gen. Jackson for the design.—The new rate of postage for such letters rendered a new stamp necessary. Stamped envelopes, of the same rate, for circulars, are to be provided. The new rate goes into effect July 1, 1863.

☞ Great sums of money have been raised in our Catholic churches in aid of the suffering poor of Ireland. The best thing that could be done for the Irish would be to pay the cost of their passage to this country, and get work for them when they arrive. Laborers are scarce, labor is abundant, and wages are high in America. Let no enlisting tricks be tried, but act honestly and kindly, and so do a work of real charity.

☞ The Portland Advertiser states that the parents of Archibald, who killed a boy in the Portland Almshouse by striking him on the head with a pair of tongs, have had twenty-one children, all of whom were imbeciles. The parents were own cousins.

☞ The St. Croix Herald says that Ex-Speaker Johnson is reported to have said in the Fredericton Assembly, the other day, that St. Andrews was dead long since, and nothing remains of the town but loafers and clams, and the clams would have dug out sometime since had they possessed the power of locomotion!

☞ The number of marriages in Portsmouth for the year ending March 31, 1863, was 128, against 114 for the same period last year.

PRETTY GOOD.—A laundress advertising for a situation exacts the highest respectability from any who wish to employ her—"to save trouble, none but the highest families need apply." Doubtless there is an art in advertising.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

S. J. COURT—EXETER.

The trial of the case Bassett vs. Salisbury Manufacturing Co., which has occupied the Court for the last two weeks, was finished on Friday,—the closing arguments having been made by Daniel M. Christie, Esq., of Dover, for the corporation, and by Hon. H. F. French, of Boston, for the plaintiff. The case was given to the jury at 6 P. M. on Friday, and the Court adjourned to 8 A. M. on Saturday. The jury having then been unable to agree were allowed until 11 A. M. for further deliberation, and this being ineffectual they were discharged. NEWBURYPORT POUDRETTE.
An article so well known as POUDRETTE may need no remarks to show its superiority to any other Fertilizer. The basis of this Fertilizer is Night Soil, obtained in Newburyport, from deep vaults—the accumulation in many cases of many years—so that it is highly concentrated. By mechanical means it is rendered very fine and dry, so that no inconvenience can result from its use.
It is very useful in starting the young plants, being just warm enough to sprout the seed without burning it. It makes the plant more thrifty, and consequently the crop is greater; this is especially true of corn and garden vegetables.
It contains no noxious weeds or larvæ of insects, which are almost sure to be found in barnyard manure. Insects will not remain in the same hill with Poudrette. Its cheapness cannot fail to recommend it. One barrel of Poudrette being equal to a load of barnyard manure.
From the success met with last season, the subscriber finters himself that he can manufacture an article superior to any in the market.
I shall use as my trade mark the brand, "ESSEX MILLS, POUDRETTE, Newburyport, Ms." All persons should see for themselves that they get the genuine and no other, as every barrel will be branded as above.
HIRAM LITTLEFIELD,
(late NOYES & LITTLEFIELD,)
Newburyport, Mass.

Certificates.
I have received certificates of its value, a few of which are here inserted.
ALFRED, Me., Dec. 29, 1862.
Messrs. NOYES & LITTLEFIELD:—
Gents,—Last Spring I obtained of Wm. H. Conant, one barrel of your Poudrette as an experiment, with but little faith in its utility. When I opened it I was fairly sick of it, saying to myself it looks more like loam than any thing else, and is good for nothing; but how mistaken I was, for where I used it I think I got from one-third to one-half more corn than where I used barn yard manure only, the corn being heavier and was ripe two weeks earlier. I think it is just the thing for raising corn in this country. Sometimes a whole crop of corn might be saved by its use.
Yours, truly, WILLIAM SEWELL.
Extract of a letter of P. H. Falls.
SALMON FALLS, N. H., Sept. 26, 1862.
I received the Poudrette and used it nearly all on my place; there were a number of farmers that intended to have some, but were afraid to use it, thought it was a new thing and a humbug, and did not take any. I used it myself and think it is as good as any Poudrette I have used before. Another year I shall use it more extensively,—also my neighbors will want considerable about here.
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., January, 1863.
This may certify that we have used the last season, Noyes & Littlefield's Poudrette, and find it superior to any we ever used before, and would recommend it to the public generally.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to old the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which ...bilitate and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

POLICE COURT, Monday.—Edward B. Stover, for the larceny of a garden fork from A. M. Hoyt, was fined $3 and costs $4 80, and to pay three times the value of the property stolen.

Owen Henwood, for an assault on a small boy with a horsewhip, was fined $5 and costs $4 80.

Patrick Meade, for drunkenness, was fined $3, and costs $2 92. Committed to the House of Correction for non-payment.

Charles Welch, for same offence, was committed for non-payment of fine, &c.

☞ We learn that a collection was taken up in the Catholic Church in this city, on Sunday, for the benefit of the suffering poor in Ireland, and the liberal sum of $206 received. Since 1859 the value of the agricultural produce of Ireland has fallen to an extraordinary degree. The product of 1862, as compared with that of the first named year, falls short to the amount of nearly sixty millions of dollars. The bad landlord system and its worse abuses seem to be the true causes of this deficiency, although English politicians have other theories which they think account for it.

☞ Every reader will regret to learn that the body of Lieut. Wildes cannot be brought home from New Orleans for burial. For his system was in such a condition, even before death, that it was found to be impracticable, immediately after his decease, to prepare the body for conveyance hither. But long will his memory be cherished in the hearts of his numerous friends.

☞ A brief session of the U. S. District Court, Judge Clifford presiding, was held in this city last week,—the session commencing on Friday. There being no cases ready for trial, the Court adjourned on Saturday morning to meet on Wednesday, July 8, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon.

CHESTNUT STREET SALOON.—Mr. Charles W. Carter has just completed the extensive alterations and improvements in the saloon corner of Congress and Chestnut streets, and thrown open an elegant and inviting suite of refreshment rooms. Besides being a manufacturer and wholesale dealer in confectionery, Mr. Carter has excellent facilities for serving up oysters, ice creams and other refreshments. His soda fountain, mineral water, &c., are just in season.—Look in at his nice quarters, and you'll want to again. Our thanks for the courtesies on the opening occasion.

☞ A subscription paper, to secure the proposed series of out door evening Concerts by the Portsmouth Cornet Band, is left at Mr. Preston's store for a few days; and all interested should call immediately and do something for the object. $200 is needed, and ought to be readily forthcoming.

☞ Monday was a veritable Summer day. The mercury run up as high as 85°, and the opening cherry blossoms and the green-springing grass laughed for joy. The sky had the sultry, misty look of August, and all animal nature wilted.

☞ The N. Y. Herald's Washington despatch says our losses in the recent battles on the Rappahannock are estimated at 11,000, and the rebel loss at 18,000. It is reported that Gen. Lee sent a flag of truce to Gen. Hooker asking supplies for wounded Federal soldiers, stating that his army was deficient therein and his communication cut off. It is said that medical and hospital supplies were sent.

☞ A report has come inside our lines at Newbern, N. C., that the North Carolina banks had refused to pay their assessment to the Confederate Government, in which determination they are sustained by Gov. Vance, who reiterates his threat to recall the rebel troops from that State.

☞ A letter from the steamer Port Royal, off Apalachicola, dated April 25th, reports an expedition up the Apalachicola river, and the capture there of the rebel gunboat Chattahoochee, $10,000 worth of cotton and a large quantity of ammunition.

☞ Gen. Banks is making preparations for a draft in Louisiana under the conscription act, to fill up the regiments and batteries to the proper complement. A muster of all the troops in the department was to be made on the 30th of April.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWEET'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Sweet's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by its use. I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWEET'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWEET: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I deem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named. ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Sweet's medicine will have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWEET, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may30

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1857,)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or drafts relating to Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished for twenty-five Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be found elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHARLES MASON
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them a early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me FIFTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Read the following recommendation from the Cashier of the Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H.

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipiscogee,
Nov. 10, 1862.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS.—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an increased quantity the next Spring. Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crop. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, Respectfully,
ABEL HALEY,
Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time. A double draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Full stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging stoves to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from entering into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headaches so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue at the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used.

We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber.

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. By from two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the deficiencies—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in silver it is as cheap as in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth.

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 Congress Street,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had his patent rights to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: it is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or open pores to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a trifle more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country.
S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TEBBETS, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

BIBLES FOR THE SOUTH—A Southern clergyman has gone to England on a Bible-begging expedition. If the South is so great and so powerful as it has constantly represented itself,—if it is so rich, so chivalrous, so enlightened and so pious as it has claimed to be for many years,—if it is too good and too noble to think of any further connection with the Yankees,—how happens it that it should be so destitute of copies of the Holy Scriptures that it has to send three thousand miles to beg them?

Until the civil war began, type, paper, ink, presses, and so forth, were as easily to be obtained in the South as in any other Christian country. Why, then, did not the Southrons print bibles for themselves, and enough of them, too? Why did they not lay up a store of the Scriptures, preparatory to the war, when few men would be able to print, or make paper, or bind books?—They were thoughtful in the matter of accumulating guns and powder, swords and balls, bayonets and revolvers; why couldn't they turn their attention to the manufacture of the records of salvation? If they were so provident with respect to the means of death, what was there to hinder them providing the Book of Life? If they could think so profoundly of the food of war, why should they not have thought of the Gospel of Peace?

The truth is, that they depended upon the North for their supply of bibles. They were so busily engaged in making money through the cultivation of cotton and tobacco, and the breeding of slaves, that they had as little time as taste to engage in so very vulgar a pursuit as that of printing books of any kind, which they could buy cheaper from the "mudsills" of the North, who are not ashamed of work, and who therefore can produce for the whole continent. Why the South should be so destitute of bibles at this time, is rather strange.—Have they used up those which they had for wadding? That is about the only way in which they could have been destroyed. Two years' time does not suffice to use up books far less carefully preserved than are bibles, which are held in respect, and seldom are either torn or soiled. The mission of Dr. Hoge would seem to be a sort of attempt to work upon the religious feelings of the English, and to persuade them that the wicked Yankees are seeking to deprive the pious chivalry of the comfort that is derived from the perusal of the inspired writings.—Traveller.

GREAT VOYAGE.—The ship Roman, which arrived at New Bedford on Saturday, from the Indian Ocean, after an absence of 44 1-2 months, has taken 2050 barrels sperm oil, 1010 barrels whale oil, and 6000 pounds whalebone. She has 1500 barrels sperm oil and 950 barrels whale oil on board, worth at present prices more than $100,000. She took a twenty-barrel sperm whale in the Gulf Stream on Sunday.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 13, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The N. Y. Post says that Gen. Halleck is about to take the field in person,—not to relieve Gen. Hooker, but that he may be in the very presence of transpiring events and better able to influence their general direction. In relation to Gen. Hooker it mentions as a fact that will increase the confidence of the country in him, that he did not execute his late retrograde movement until he had planned his present one, and become satisfied of its superiority to any effort he could make in the field of Chancellorsville, contracted as it had been by the unfortunate defection of the 11th Corps at the commencement of the struggle. The Philadelphia Press says Gen. Dix with his corps d'armee and a heavy column under Gen. Naglee from North Carolina, will soon be threatening the enemy's lines of communication south of Richmond.

Col. Kilpatrick's official report gives a brief and most satisfactory account of his late brilliant raid, in which he marched nearly 200 miles, passing about the entire rebels, in less than 5 days, with the loss of 1 officer and 57 men, while he captured and paroled upward of 300 rebels. In his march he destroyed bridges, railroads, depots, corn, wheat, clothing, wagon trains, etc., and at 10 A. M., on the 7th, found safety and rest under our brave old flag within our lines at Gloucester Point.

A dispatch from Grafton, West Virginia, says heavy Union reinforcements had arrived. The rebels under Jackson, Imboden, Jones and Jenkins are retreating towards the South-west mountains. There are now no rebels on the line of railroads in Western Virginia.

The Memphis Bulletin reports that Jackson, Miss., is already invested by the Union forces, and that the rebels have now no way of getting out of Vicksburg but by cutting their way through the National forces.

A dispatch from Lebanon, Tenn., May 10th, says that Col. Jacobs has had a hard fight of 8 hours with the rebel Morgan.—Jacob's loss was heavy, but he has succeeded in getting all his men on the north side of the river, and will be reinforced.

The rebel army is said to be advancing on Gen. Rosecrans at Murfreesboro, Tenn.

One of these days we may learn something reliable concerning Gen. Hooker's army, tho' the prospect in this respect is not encouraging. It is now said that he has not re-crossed the Rappahannock, though orders were given last week for him to do so. It is reported that he is ill. There seems, however, to be good reason to believe that at least a portion of his army has crossed,—if human testimony is good for anything.

☞ Some sanguine individual telegraphs from Washington that Mr. Wm. H. Goodhue, U. S. Vice Consul at Zanzibar, reports that Messrs. Speke & Grant's expedition in search of the source of the Nile, have been almost, if not entirely, crowned with success. The men left Zanzibar Sept. 25, 1860, and were last heard from in March, 1862, when Capt. Speke had discovered the Niverango river, which he believes to be the first certain branch of the Nile. It is 400 yards wide, with a gentle flow to the North. It takes its rise, lon. 12, north latitude, in the Victoria Masanza, a lake discovered by Capt. Speke. The expedition could not move forward in March, 1862, through the kingdom of Uganda, through which said river flows, owing to the unwillingness of the natives. Capt. Grant was heard from Apr. 11, 1862, and was then behind Capt. Speke, making explorations and scientific observations, at a point about 1 30 south latitude.

☞ An important engagement is reported, April 25th, between the Russians and insurgents, near Wark, south of Warsaw, in which the Russians were defeated with great loss.

☞ The N. Y. Herald has a letter from West Point, Va., May 9, which reports Gen. Keyes constantly in the saddle, and says, "you may look for stirring news from here suddenly."

☞ The N. Y. Times' dispatch from the army of the Potomac, 9th, says our wounded are coming over rapidly. The figures of our total loss are being much diminished by the coming in of stragglers.

☞ The Richmond Dispatch, 9th, says official information is received announcing the death of Gen. Van Dorn at Spring Hill, Tenn., on the 7th. He was shot by a man who suspected him of improper intimacy with his wife.

☞ Judge Titus, of Pennsylvania, has been appointed Chief Justice of Utah, vice Kenney, removed.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The arrangements for the Union Fair in Manchester, for the benefit of the Sanitary Commission, have been made on a most liberal scale and we doubt not will be successfully carried out. The fair commences to-day (Wednesday) and will continue three days. Two halls (Smyth's and Music Hall) are to be used for the display of fancy articles, &c., and the presentation of tableaux, pantomimes, charades, etc.—Then there will be music,—on Wednesday by the Quadrille Band from the Catholic Society; on Thursday by the Mendelssohn Quintette Club of Boston, assisted in the evening by Miss Fannie Riddle of Manchester; and on Friday by the Germania Band of Manchester. Then there will be a Children's Bazaar, Fish Pond, Gift Fairy with prizes for good children, and all the other usual concomitants of a fair, with many novelties. It will be seen that an invitation has been received by our Board of Aldermen. The members will probably attend on Friday next.

—— By vote of the Board of Directors the 34th Annual Meeting of the American Institute of Instruction is to be held in Concord on the 18th, 19th and 20th days of August. The Manchester American says that the Institute has doubtless accomplished more for the cause of education during the thirty-three years of its existence than any other organization in the country.

—— Miss Ruth Cole, of Grafton, was thrown from a wagon, while riding in company with her father in East Canaan a short time since, and died on the 6th inst. from injuries received. Her father, who was severely injured at the same time, is not expected to live.

—— Lieut. Virgil H. Cate, of Manchester, of the 7th regiment, taken prisoner several months ago, has been exchanged and is on his way home.

——The Exeter News Letter tells the following affecting story —

A MAN WITH A BAD TEMPER.—A short time ago, a gentlemanly and pleasant collector, called on a man now living in Northwood who had seen better days, and asked him if he would renew a note, and an account which had been standing most six years: the debtor flew into a passion, refused to talk about either the note or account, and finally beat the collector and his horse and drew his knife, and ordered him off; for this offence, the high tempered man was fined ten dollars and cost. But the collector being of a generous heart let him off for $5, out of pity for his amiable wife.

☞ Some weeks ago a man called upon the President, and solicited a pass to Richmond. "Well," said old Abe, "I would be very happy to oblige, if my passes were respected; but the fact is, sir, I have, within the past two years, given passes to two hundred and fifty thousand persons to go to Richmond, and not one has got there yet." The applicant quietly withdrew.

☞ The Paris correspondent of the London Times says it is supposed that next year the army will be reduced to the normal state of 400,000 men, and the navy to 188 ships afloat, with crews of 38,250 men. At present France has 420,000 soldiers under arms and 200 ships afloat.

The Republican papers term the excited citizens of Dayton, Ohio, who cut the telegraph wires and destroyed the Journal office, a "disloyal" and "copperhead" mob.—When an abolition mob destroys Democratic newspaper offices, they exultingly exclaim—"a dislogal paper suppressed." It makes a great deal of difference whose ox does the goring.—Boston Courier.

☞ A Maine paper states that the owners of the water power at Benton, Me., have recently offered a free gift of $2000, in addition to the site and necessary water power, to a company who talked of building a woolen manufactory there; and that an additional inducement has been offered by the town's engaging to exempt the property from taxation for ten years.

☞ It is said the rebels already have a large force engaged in rebuilding the Orange and Alexandria Railroad bridge over the Rapidan, destroyed in the course of the late raid of Gen. Stoneman's cavalry.

☞ The iron ship Canada was lost at sea a few days ago. The wreck was boarded off the banks on the 3d inst., by brig Attila—nobody on board, boats gone, crew probably in them.

☞ The Richmond Enquirer, of the 5th, says that the reason why the rebel government's $15,000,000 bonds, recently issued in London, sold so high, was because they can be used by the blockade runners in paying the export duty on cotton, in lieu of specie, while no other issue of the rebel government is receivable for the same purpose.

APRIL PAY ROLL OF CHARLESTOWN NAVY YARD.—The pay rolls for the month of April have been completed to pay day, and it appears that there are employed in the yard 3763 men, whose aggregate compensation for the month will reach $148,116 60.

☞ A dispatch from Richmond, May 5th, says Stonewall Jackson's left arm was skillfully amputated below the shoulder by Dr. McGuire of Winchester, Va. The General was removed to his country house, 15 miles distant. It is to be regretted that it was not deemed necessary to amputate it above the shoulder.

THE MUSIC OF FIFTY YEARS.

NO. (BY UNCLE TOBY.) FOUR.

The Independent Society, of which Rev. Mr. Walton was pastor, was never very large: fifty years ago the congregation was thin and the choir small; no instrument was used, and the music was not of a very high order.

The choir in the Universalist Meeting House, as we heard it first in the time of Rev. Hosea Ballou's ministry, was accompanied by a bass viol and clarinet; it was led by Abner Greenleaf, and among the singers were Thomas P. Drown, Nath'l B. March, Geo. and Wm. Simes, Mrs. Drisco and Mrs. Noble. The music was lively, prompt and powerful; and in a house favorable for echoes, was very different from that in any other place we visited, pervading every part of the house and rousing every hearer. We did not hear it often, but whenever we did it bore this character of spirited music.

The Baptist Society, founded by Elias Smith in 1802, was the first in which we heard congregational singing, and this people had no other for many years. Mr. Smith himself was a good singer; and his wife was one of the best treble singers of that day, being accurate in time, speaking words very plainly, and having a pleasant voice. Among the singers there fifty odd years ago, we remember Thomas Moses and wife, Asa Dearbon, who sang a smooth and powerful bass, Wm. Brown, who was a superior tenor, Daniel P. Drown, Daniel Marden and wife, Robert Foster, Thomas Clapham, and Miss Nancy Dame.

At first they used Watts's Psalms and Hymns, as that was the current book of the day. Years afterwards, when they took the name Christian, they had Smith & Jones' Hymns. Besides, they had various hymns in pamphlets, on sheets, and in their memories.

There was a strong prejudice got up by their teachers, against a choir of the unconverted, and it was declared to be as absurd to get the world's people to sing for christians, as to get the former to pray for the latter. There was also a similar prejudice against instruments in worship,—not even a pitch-pipe being used there.

[Speaking of the pitch-pipe reminds us of an error which we saw lately in some old stories about music in Newburyport, in which it was said that parson Spring would have no instrument, but endeavored a pitch-pipe out of the seats, and it was used no more in his day. It was not so: the writer of this article sung repeatedly in Dr. Spring's meeting in his latter days, taking the sound from a pitch-pipe, and being aided by a bass viol, which had been used for a number of years.

What the Dr. ordered out was a clarinet, which was played in the first morning hymn: at the close the Dr. said, take that thing out of the seats. The player obeyed, and took a seat in a wall pew behind the choir. The Dr. offered the long prayer;—and in the time thus occupied, the singers silently transferred themselves to the wall pews, so that when the Dr. opened his eyes, their seats were empty: and the singing was done by the people on the floor, for some time, and done very poorly too. They became tired of it; the choir was restored to its place, we hardly know how, but no clarinet was played there till after the Dr.'s decease. But this is a digression.]

To come back to Portsmouth: the Baptist people sung a great deal in their meetings. Sometimes the preacher would give out a hymn; very often he begun the service in that way; and sometimes gave out a second hymn before the sermon. But at the close of the sermon, when liberty was given or taken, to speak or pray,—some brother or sister would strike up a hymn in some well known fugue or song tune, or old psalm tune, and the voices of all we have named would come in, gradually gaining in power; and being joined often by scores who could sing with their leading, they sometimes formed a choir of great power, and produced a fine musical effect.

This society had congregational singing and no other, except now and then a hymn unknown to the rest, sung as a solo by some brother or sister. The old singers mentioned, had learned to sing elsewhere, and two or three of them had been fine players on instruments. But in their meetings they rarely used music books; their range of tunes gradually narrowed; young people who learned there, only learned by rote, and of course learned it incorrectly; the singing depreciated; and after twenty years a choir was formed.

☞ A man was intending to be married the other day, or rather night, in Greenwich, Mass. All preparations were completed, and the bride and two hundred guests were present all ready for the ceremony. After waiting for the bridegroom till a late hour, the party broke up on account of his non-arrival. The next day the dilatory lover made his appearance, saying that he "had not thought it best to venture out on the previous evening on account of the storm!"

The greatest race of all. The human race, run on the course of time.

☞ Whene'er a noble deed is wrought,
Whene'er is spoken a noble thought,
Our hearts, in glad surprise,
To higher levels rise.

The tidal wave of deeper souls
Into our inmost being rolls—
And lifts us unawares
Out of all meaner cares.

Honor to those whose words or deeds
Thus help us in our daily needs,
And by their overflow,
Raise us from what is low.

LONGFELLOW.

☞ Receiving-ship Ohio, at the Charlestown Yard, was carefully examined on Saturday to ascertain whether, if she were to be so armed or loaded as to draw four feet more of water, she could be made seaworthy. She was found to be very sound above the present water lines on the larboard side, but rather the reverse on the opposite side, which has for a long time been exposed to the easterly weather and the hot sun. It is however, thought that the ship can be made serviceable for the purpose proposed, and work will at once be begun upon her.

☞ At the latest English dates it was reported that Mr. Adams having made a frank explanation regarding his letter of protection to Mexican vessels, no diplomatic protest will be necessary, but that France has taken offence and demands an explanation.

☞ The Portland papers now contradict their story about the family of Archibald, who murdered a boy at the Alms House. One of them says the parents are not cousins; they have not had 21 children; only one of their children, the murderer, is an idiot.

NEWBURYPORT POUDRETTE.

An article so well known as POUDRETTE may need no remarks to show its superiority to any other Fertilizer. The basis of this Fertilizer is Night Soil, obtained in Newburyport, from deep vaults—the accumulation in many cases of many years—so that it is highly concentrated. By mechanical means it is rendered very fine and dry, so that no inconvenience can result from its use.

It is very useful in starting the young plants, being just warm enough to sprout the seed without burning it. It makes the plant more thrifty, and consequently the crop greater; this is especially true of corn and garden vegetables.

It contains no noxious weeds or larvæ of insects, which are almost always found in barnyard manure. Insects will not remain in the same hill with Poudrette. Its cheapness cannot fail to recommend it. One barrel of Poudrette being equal to a load of barnyard manure.

From the success met with last season, the subscriber flatters himself that he can manufacture an article superior to any in the market.

I shall use as my trade mark the brand, "ESSEX MILLS. POUDRETTE, Newburyport, Ms." All persons should see for themselves that they get the genuine and no other, as every barrel will be branded as above.

HIRAM LITTLEFIELD,
(late NOYES & LITTLEFIELD,)
Newburyport, Mass.

Certificates.

I have received certificates of its value, a few of which are here inserted.

ALFRED, Me., Dec. 29, 1862.

Messrs. NOYES & LITTLEFIELD:—

Gents,—Last Spring I obtained of Wm. H. Conant, one barrel of your Poudrette as an experiment, with but little faith in its utility. When I opened it I was struck with the smell of it, saying to myself it looks more like loam than any thing else, and is good for nothing; but how mistaken I was, for when I used it I think I got from one-third to one-half more corn than where I used barn yard manure only, the corn being heavier and was ripe two weeks earlier. I think it is just the thing for raising corn in this country. Sometimes a whole crop of corn might be saved by its use.

Yours, truly, WILLIAM JEWETT.

Extract of a letter of P. H. Falls.

SALMON FALLS, N. H., Sept. 28, 1862.

I received the Poudrette and used it nearly all on my place; there were a number of farmers that intended to have some, but were afraid to use it, thought it was a new thing and a humbug, and did not take any. I used it myself and think it is as good as any Poudrette I have used before. Another year I shall use it more extensively,—also my neighbors will want considerable about here.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., January, 1863.

This may certify that we have used the last season, Noyes & Littlefield's Poudrette, and find it superior to any we ever used before, and would recommend it to the public generally.

Local.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, on Thursday evening of last week, a committee was appointed to confer with the Wardens of the North Church in relation to the bell.

It was voted to pay the members of the Fire Department hereafter semi-annually.

The following petition was received from the Selectmen of Newcastle:—

To the Hon. Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Portsmouth:—Respectfully represent the undersigned, Selectmen of the town of Newcastle, that at a legal town meeting, duly notified and held at said Newcastle, on Wednesday, the 29th day of April, 1863, said Town of Newcastle voted to petition the City of Portsmouth for the purpose of annexing the town of Newcastle to said city; and in pursuance to said vote, your petitioners beg leave to request that you will take the necessary steps to bring about this result, which, it is believed, will tend to the benefit of both places.

WM. VENNARD,
JAMES W. FLYNN
THOMAS RAND,
Selectmen Newcastle.

Newcastle, N. H., May 5, 1863.

The petition was referred to a special committee, consisting of Ald. Adams, Nichols and Rider.

At a special meeting of the Board on Monday evening, a communication was received from Leonard Cotton, Esq., complaining that certain shade trees in front of his property on Court street had been removed. Referred to a committee. Alderman Nichols was appointed to prepare and report an ordinance relating to shade trees; also an ordinance relating to common sewers.

The subject of turfing the new reservoir on Haymarket Square was referred to a committee.

An invitation from the Mayor of Manchester to the Mayor and Aldermen, to attend the Union Fair in that city, was accepted.

The new Police Ordinance, which has been before the Board for some weeks, was passed. It provides for the appointment of a Marshal, and such number of Assistant Marshals as shall annually be deemed necessary, and of Police Officers, who shall perform the duties of a Night Watch, to be on duty each night, and to devote their whole time to the interests of the city.—These officers will be salaried, and all fees collected by them in the performance of their duties, with the single exception of witness fees, are to be paid in to the city.—It is supposed that this system will slightly increase the expense to the city—perhaps $300 or $400.

At a special meeting of the Board on Tuesday evening, the committee to confer with the Wardens of the North Church, reported that the bell is cracked and should be recast, and that the Wardens were unanimously of the opinion that the City should bear the entire expense of the recast, reof,—about $200. Votes were accordingly passed that the bell be recast at the expense of the City; that its weight be increased 500 lbs.; and that the Parish pay five-sevenths of the expense of the additional metal, should they ever wish to annul the existing arrangement with the City. The Mayor and Ald. Broughton and Rider were appointed to carry these votes into effect.

☞ We understand that Mr. Davis, of Concord, with the quartet choir of which he is leader, and Mr. J. H. Morey, the popular organist and pianist of that city, have been solicited by friends of music in Portsmouth, to give a concert in this city; and that they will probably do so very soon. Some parents and others among our citizens, who are unwilling that the rising generation should so neglect vocal music, are exerting themselves to draw attention to the subject; and are desirous for Mr. Davis to come down and teach a class or two. If he consents to do so, it will not be the intention to interfere in any way with our resident teachers, but only to excite interest, if possible, in an important branch of musical developement, of late sadly neglected by the public. And it is to be hoped that all concerned will aid the movement as far as in them lies.

☞ Mr. Samuel Horton, a reamer at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, was severely injured on Tuesday, by the falling of a staging on the Nipsic, on which he was at work. Several others on the staging saved themselves by clinging to posts, &c., but Mr. Horton was precipitated to the ground, and a plank also fell upon him, striking him in the abdomen.

☞ The returns to the City Clerk's Office show that the whole number of births in this city during the year ending March 31, was 186—males 101, females 85; whole number of marriages 136; whole number of deaths 199—males, 96, females 102, not stated 1.

☞ Mr. J. C. Myers, the well known and popular actor, announces that his combination Company will present Shakespeare's tragedy of Macbeth at the Temple, this evening. All lovers of theatrical representations will of course wish to avail themselves of the rare opportunity thus afforded them in our city.

☞ The funeral services of Gen. A. W. Whipple took place on Sunday at Trinity Church, Georgetown, D. C., whence the remains were removed to Oak Hill Cemetery. The military pageant, consisting of the 122d Penn. Regiment, a squadron of Scott's Nine Hundred Cavalry, and artillery, was very imposing. Next in the procession to Gen. Whipple's family and staff, came the President, Secretaries Stanton and Seward, Generals Meigs, Heintzelman, Averill, and other officers.

☞ Two men were brought before the Boston Police Court, on Saturday for passing counterfeit money, with good bills, in trading horses,—among the counterfeits being threes on the Mechanics and Traders' Bank, of this city.

☞ The U. S. Frigate St. Lawrence, 50 guns, recently of the East Gulf Blockading Squadron, it is expected, will arrive at the Portsmouth Navy Yard in a few days.

"A JOY FOREVER."—The beautiful display of flowers almost always to be seen as you pass Mr. Meinerth's residence, on Islington street.

☞ A subscription paper, to secure the proposed series of out door evening Concerts by the Portsmouth Cornet Band, is left at Mr. Preston's store for a few days; and all interested should call immediately and do something for the object. $200 is needed, and ought to be readily forthcoming.

☞ See yon fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

ALFRED STAVERS,

ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!

RYE, N. H., Feb. 20, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humors, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipisseogee, Nov. 10, 1862.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS.—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an increased quantity this next spring. Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crops. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, Respectfully,
ABEL HALEY,
Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H

Full of light,
Leaping and dashing
From morn till night.

Into the moonlight,
Whiter than snow,
Waving so flower-like
When the winds blow.

Into the starlight,
Rushing in spray,
Happy at midnight,
Happy by day.

Ever in motion,
Still some and cheery,
Still climbing heavenward;
Never weary.

Glad of all weathers,
Still seeming best,
Upward or downward,
Motion thy rest.

Full of a nature
Nothing can tame,
Changed every moment,
Ever the same.

Ceaseless aspiring,
Ceaseless content,
Darkness or sunshine
Thy element.

Let my heart be
Fresh, changeful, constant,
Upward, like thee.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR

Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emory Bibb, a well-known merchant of Cincinnati, Ohio.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never put one bottle which failed of the desired effect. I shall full confidence in those who fitch it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all the Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Richmond, Indiana.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure, until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much esteemed lady of Dunnsville, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which has completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the firm of Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled leather, in Boston, N. H.

"I have suffered for years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost everything a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until they came off as smooth as any body's, and I am without any eruption or humor in my blood. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Norris, Houston St., New York.

"DR. AYER: I believe fall to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied. It is a priceless boon to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wahoma, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians of the day, and spent hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the Doctors said that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the public."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickles, Esq., the able editor of the Tunkhannock Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on the face, which soon spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. We applied physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, as we thought he would tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given three bottles, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Dr. Hiram Stout, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. T. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., and a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"DR. AYER: For years I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and effected it more thoroughly than any other medicine to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Tilter, of New Brunswick, N. J.

"I had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more painful and dangerous, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until I began using your SARSAPARILLA. Your SARSAPARILLA relieved him from pain, and I regard more important and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him."

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulcerations, and are very speedily cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some of these cases, however, in all of the SARSAPARILLA, the skillful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrill, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of the female. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, are yielding to it, and they are cured, too, when no other medicine is properly acted by local treatment. I say, unwilling to allow the publication of my name, unless."

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia,

when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by the AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire, so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or by the removal of a simple plate, in connection with the larger oven, for baking, giving an oven nearly 3 feet long, or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time. A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept any night desired.

E. A. STEVENS,
NO 46 MARKET ST.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and cod iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large spacious Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The draft is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove; as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable article.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The object aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases have a lighter than the air, passed off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and be burned up by the transmission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to compare in economical heating power, with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without any attention.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the mouth is irregular, we can by building out the depressions which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. We think it will wear better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly. It preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and healthy, and consequently it perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertions or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Being a Rubber, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with this Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and they get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best dentists. We will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY. I will do in the usual place. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TRUMAN, Dr. BOARMAN, Dr. GRANT, and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Nitrous Oxide gas. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

THE FOUNTAIN.

Into the sunshine,
Full of light,
Leaping and dashing
From morn till night.

Into the moonlight,
Whiter than snow,
Waving so flower-like
When the winds blow.

Into the starlight,
Rushing in spray,
Happy at midnight,
Happy by day.

Ever in motion,
Still some and cheery,
Still climbing heavenward;
Never weary.

Glad of all weathers,
Still seeming best,
Upward or downward,
Motion thy rest.

Full of a nature
Nothing can tame,
Changed every moment,
Ever the same.

Ceaseless aspiring,
Ceaseless content,
Darkness or sunshine
Thy element.

Glorious fountain!
Let my heart be
Fresh, changeful, constant,
Upward, like thee.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all:
Exalt the right, though everyism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—It common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen, in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

THE ROMANCE OF WAR.—The Nashville Dispatch says the following romantic incident of the war is vouched for, and we therefore give it a place in our columns:

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF CUMBERLAND, April 17, 1863.

General: The General commanding directs me to call your attention to a flagrant outrage committed in your command, a person having been admitted inside your lines, without a pass, and in violation of orders.

The case is one which calls for your personal attention, and the General commanding directs that you deal with the offending party, or parties, according to law.

The Medical Director report that an Orderly Sergeant in Brig. Gen. ——'s division, was to-day delivered of a baby—which is in violation of all military law, and of the army regulations. No such case has been known since the days of Jupiter.

You will apply the proper punishment in this case, and a remedy to prevent a repetition of the act.

The above is a copy of a genuine letter, emanating from the headquarters of that rigid disciplinarian, Gen. Rosecrans.

Poor Gov. Bonham, of South Carolina, is in trouble about the avaricious conduct of the planting chivalry. Although these fellows belong to a "master race," they have a sharp eye upon dimes. These "twenty-negro" fellows are perfectly willing that the "poor whites" shall fight the battles of the rebellion, while subsisting on parched corn, provided they are allowed to raise cotton at 20 cents a pound. Gov. Bonham complains that the law limiting the production of cotton to three acres to a full hand is practically evaded by the practice of putting all the fertilizers of the plantation on this cotton reserve, at the expense of the portion devoted to esculents.

He complains that the "spirit of speculation has recently made alarming strides in the State," so as to keep articles of prime necessity from the market. He complains that the law against the distillation of spirits from the cereal grains, "though stringent in its penalties, does not accomplish its object." "No one seems willing to become an informer," and he has "yet to hear of the first prosecution." Even that portion of the law which allows permits to be issued for medical purposes has opened the door for abuses in the way of "underletting and violations of contract." He complains, also, that the art to supply negro labor for coast defences "cannot be made effectual." In the most important district, less than one-fifth of the number called for by the Confederate General, has been supplied.

So it appears that rebel chivalry is not only a faithless, perjured, brutal thing, but also intensely avaricious. It has long boasted of its liberality, but the boast was like most other boasts, a lying one.—Nashville Union.

☞ In New Haven the horses attached to the steamers have already learned their business. At the first stroke of the alarm bell—no matter what hour of the day or night—they become as excited as ever was a boy running with his first engine company—and take their places at the pole of the steamer, restless, until they get the word "go"—and seem to enjoy really the dash, and noise, and roar of the elements, as much as the men, and stand among the falling sparks of fire, while the machines are playing, as unconcerned as if in their stalls.

THURSDAY, MAY 14, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

A rebel dispatch gives a report that Gen. Banks' army has been divided into three columns—one fortifying the town of Opelousas, one remaining at Atchafalaya, and one at Baton Rouge. Banks has seized all the slaves on the Governor's plantations. Kirby Smith has arrived at Alexandria from Arkansas, with Walker's Texas brigade as reinforcements. Smith is confident that he can drive Banks back to Berwick. Three powerful Confederate gunboats are at Alexandria, above the falls. The wheat crop in Texas is very promising. Magruder's headquarters have been removed to San Antonio. Five gunboats passed Natchez on Sunday night, four of which ascended Red River.

Gen. Hooker has issued a congratulatory order to his troops dated May 6, "on its achievements of the last seven days," in which they had taken from the enemy 5000 prisoners and 15 colors, captured and brought off seven pieces of artillery, and placed hors du combat 18,000 of his chosen troops. In reference to General Stoneman's movements, he says: "We have destroyed his depots filled with vast amounts of stores, damaged his communication, captured prisoners within the fortifications of his capital, and filled his country with fear and consternation." It seems quite certain that Gen. Hooker at last accounts had not re-crossed the Rappahannock.

Gen. Lee has issued a complimentary address to the rebel army on the result of the recent battles.

Gen. Keyes's pickets on the 9th were within 26 miles of Richmond, and his watchword was onward.

STONEWALL JACKSON is dead. The Richmond papers of Wednesday announce that he died on Sunday afternoon from the effect of the recent amputation of his arm, and this time there seems good reason to believe that the report is true. They add that his burial was fixed for Tuesday, and in the afternoon the rebel military band in Fredericksburg was performing dirges. It is stated that he was accidentally shot by his own men.

His death will cause no very deep grief on this side of the line, but to the rebels he must be a serious loss. On the 7th the Richmond Enquirer said:—"we could better spare a brigade or a division." He was brave, active, cunning, and too often successful, and has long been one of their most popular and cherished leaders.

His real name was Thomas Jefferson Jackson. He entered West-Point in 1842, and was a classmate of Gen. McClellan and the rebel Gen. A. P. Hill. He was brevetted 2d Lieutenant of Artillery in July, 1846; served with distinction in Mexico, and in 1848 was brevetted Major for "gallant and meritorious conduct at Chapultepec." He resigned his commission in the army in 1852. At the outbreak of the rebellion he was professor in the Virginia Military Institute, at Lexington in that State. He was 37 years of age at the time of his death.

☞ The Military Commission for the trial of Mr. Vallandigham was composed of Gen. Potter, President; Capt. Cutts, Judge Advocate; and Col. DeCourcy, Lt. Col. Edwin Goodrich, (son of Jeremiah Goodrich, Esq., of this city) Maj. Van Buren, Maj. Brown, Maj. Fitch and Capt. Ludig. The charges and specifications were based on his recent Columbus and Mt. Vernon speeches. Mr. Vallandigham asked a continuance of the case until he might prepare a written plea. This, he was informed, would not be granted; and he was asked to plead guilty or not guilty. He refused to plead either way, denying the jurisdiction of the Court. The Court thereupon entered a plea for him of not guilty. Messrs. George Pugh, George H. Pendleton and Alexander Ferguson appeared as Counsel for Mr. Vallandigham.

A dispatch which was received at the Boston Merchants' Exchange from New York, states that it is reported on reliable authority that the majority of the Court which tried Vallandigham were in favor of his being sent to the Dry Tortugas for two years. The Washington Chronicle of Tuesday says he has been sentenced to Tortugas for two years.

☞ Gen. Meagher has resigned his commission as Brig. General commanding the Irish Brigade. He says that his brigade having been reduced by the attack on the 13th of Dec. to less than a regiment of infantry, he requested of the Sec. of War that a brigade which had rendered such service and incurred such distressing losses, should be temporarily relieved from duty in the field, so as to give it time and opportunity in some measure to renew itself. This memorial never was acknowledged. He therefore resigns; but expresses his willingness to serve the country in any other position.

THE SEVENTEENTH N. H. REG'T.

The 17th Regt. N. H. V., having been consolidated with the 2d N. H. V., the position which the writer of this article, and many other citizens sustained toward that organization, renders it proper in his estimation to submit a brief statement of facts relative thereto, to the people.

The order under which this act was effected by the Governor, and the detail of his order, arranged upon consultation, we give below:

Adj. Gen.'s Office, Concord, April 16th. The following order has been received by the Governor from the War Department:

"War Department, Washington City, Apr. 1. SIR:—The Secretary of War directs that the 2d and 17th Regts. N. H. V., be consolidated under your direction, and that the supernumerary officers be mustered out of service; the 2d regt. to maintain its organization. The new organization will conform to that prescribed by law for volunteer forces."

[In accordance with the provisions of the foregoing order, and by virtue of the authority in him invested by its provisions, Gov. Berry issued an order to consolidate the two regiments, the details of which we need not give, and which closed thus:—Ed. Chron.]

In carrying into effect this order, the Governor regrets the necessity that disbands the 17th regiment, the more, that during its long and uncertain delay in camp, its conduct has been such as to reflect credit upon its officers and men. The discipline, neatness and general behavior of its members, fully warranting the belief of its efficiency could its ranks have been filled. In joining the 2d regiment, however, its members will become affiliated in one of the best regiments of the service.

On the 16th the order was read on dress parade; those designated honorably discharged, and the residue turned over to the 2d regiment, and the General Government assuming the expense incurred on account of the 17th. During the past week those discharged have been paid in full, those turned over, paid to March 1st. They will be again paid on or about the 1st of May. It is a noticeable fact, that at the muster for pay, April 22, of the entire number of men turned over, but five were absent.

Thus ends the official history of the 17th. With personal and regimental feeling, or disappointment, or with a discussion of what might or would have been, had different modes of progress been resorted to by those in authority, or in regard to several instances of actual attempted discouragement of enlistments, we do not at this time propose to speak, but simply to make public acknowledged official facts, perhaps not generally understood.

At the time when nine months' men were called for, the State had exceeded its quota of three years' men to that extent, that but three regiments were required. These, by arrangement, were to be raised in the three Congressional districts—the 17th answering to the 3d, and officers were appointed.

Enlistments commenced, and over seven hundred men were raised in the 3d Congressional District—nearly enough for a regiment! The policy, however, after this, from reasons of haste in forwarding troops, was changed, and three men placed in the 15th and 16th regiments, leaving for the 17th only the unfilled quotas of delinquent, and unwilling towns.

A full company was raised in Lancaster and vicinity above all quotas; another was raised in Portsmouth, and the regiment was ordered into camp. This occurred early in November, 1862, and assurances were given that the regiment should be at once filled. The different departments were fully and practically organized, and instruction commenced. Each branch was faithfully conducted, and an excellent band was brought together by its leader.

The delinquent towns were notified of their position and ordered to fill their quotas before December 24, at which time, it was announced, drafting would commence. Very little progress was however made, and the draft was postponed to Jan. 8, 1863.

The measures originated for the last or second enrollment, which took place last fall under the direction of the Governor and Council, for the raising of unfilled quotas by draft, had a contrary effect from that expected, in a degree attributable to irregularities during the enrollment, and it was decided from a complicity of reasons, that it would be injudicious to attempt to enforce a draft; which opinion and decision were officially communicated to me on the 31st of December, 1862.

Here ended all attempts to fill the regiment, and the question seemed to be, how to dispose of it. Passing by the various propositions presented, none of which were however entertained; the regiment was furloughed Feb. 9th, until April 1st, 1863, with the assurance to its commanding officer that in the interim, some way should be found, and that it should be then filled. It reported April 1, with but five absentees, and remained in its then condition until the order came to consolidate with the Second.

It is proper to state, that its future had all along been a source of anxiety to the Governor and the surrounding State officials, and that its members received, the whole time, constant manifestations of regard and even courtesy from them; the final order of the executive rendering official the standing of the Regiment.

The officers and men of the 17th joined with the full expectation of immediate and active service. Many relinquished excellent business pursuits and pleasant positions, to fight for the Government. Companies were raised above quotas, and officers and men of marked worth, appointed and enlisted. During a long and particularly annoying state of uncertainty in camp, the demeanor of both has been such as to excite universal approbation.

I have been sustained in every department with cordiality and promptness.—Never were a better set of men associated, or among whom grew up a stronger fraternal regard and esprit du corps, and it is with no ordinary feelings of regret and pain, that I see men enlisted for the 17th transferred to another command.

We were not to blame that the Regiment was not filled, and were as willing and anxious to do service as were our more fortunate brethren. The facts which overruled and crushed us we have here briefly endeavored to present.

Personally, I have endeavored to follow the path of duty, and being placed in my late position to organize and discipline a Regiment fit to do the State some service. For the officers and soldiers of my former command, I entertain the warmest regards, and upon the public, where its history is at present but partially known, I, in connection with those associated with me, rely with confidence, well assured that both it, and ourselves, will receive justice at its hands.

HENRY O. KENT,
Colonel late 17th Regt. N. H. V.
Concord, N. H., April 23, 1863.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— In the recent battles in Virginia the 5th N. H. regiment had two men killed, five officers and twenty-seven men wounded, and two men are missing. The officers wounded, were Maj. Cross, Capts. Goodwin and Cummings, Lieuts. Hale and Fay. Lieut. Fay was wounded while acting as aid to the brigade commander. The regiment now numbers 174 fighting men; none are sick. The men are in good condition and ready as ever to meet the enemy. During the late engagements Lieut. Col. Chas. F. Hapgood commanded the regiment, Col. Cross being in command of the brigade to which it was attached. The regiment behaved with much gallantry through all the battles, maintaining the positions assigned to it to the last moment, and being the last of the brigade to leave the field.

—— The Granite State News states that the oldest of three brothers residing in Moultonborough, married quite a young girl; his next younger brother married the girl's mother, and the youngest took for his wife the grandmother. Cupid in our times seldom brings about such a curious union of two families.

—— Mrs. George, wife of Col. John H. George, died on Sunday, at Concord, after forty-eight hours' sickness, of malignant typhoid fever, aged about 35 years. Before marriage she was Miss Ann Brigham, and was born in Concord. She was a woman of great energy and activity, and possessed those endearing traits of character which made her universally loved and esteemed.

—— The American states that the 2nd Regiment expects to be paid this week. It has been arranged for them to go to Manchester during the Fair, and visit the halls which are occupied for the exhibitions. It is understood that they are to be provided for by the citizens to such an extent as is practicable.

☞ We learn from Concord that preparations are being made for a grand parade of the Horse Guards at the coming inauguration of Governor Gilmore.

☞ The rebels, it is said, have refused to receive the disloyal citizens, sent South from Newbern, unless they can give security for their ability to take care of themselves.

No Family should be without a bottle in the house. It is only 13 cents, and will be found worth as many dollars for the cure of the above complaints. It is for sale by N. P. FAITH.—There is, says the Economist, no portion of the people more sagacious in reading the signs of the times than capitalists; and when we find them investing funds to the amount of two millions a day in the public securities, we may be sure that they are thoroughly satisfied that the rebellion will be put down. To invest money in these bonds, implies strong faith in the government; and whenever victories are gained, this faith will be still stronger.

☞ Gen. Burnside is acting with great vigor and efficiency in Ohio. The telegraph has already reported that on account of the outrage committed at Dayton by the friends of Vallandigham, upon loyal persons, the whole county has been declared to be under martial law. Gen. Burnside has also ordered the Dayton Empire, Vallandigham's organ, to be suppressed and the editor arrested.

We have it on direct and reliable authority that Secretary Stanton made the statement some time ago that a military camp would be formed at Harper's Ferry for the drill and organization of contrabands, and that it should be called Camp John Brown! Marching on—aren't we?—Oberlin (Ohio) News.

☞ The rebels call General Rosecrans "The Dog." He is a fighting dog, and his name's Holdfast,—a very proper name for a dog that watches Bragg, and fights him, too.

NEWBURYPORT POUDRETTE.

An article so well known as POUDRETTE may need no remarks to show its superiority to any other Fertilizer. The base of this Fertilizer is Night Soil, obtained in Newburyport, from deep vaults—the accumulation in many cases of many years—so that it is highly concentrated. By mechanical means it is rendered very fine and dry, so that no inconvenience can result from its use.

It is very useful in starting the young plants, being fine enough to pass through the seed without burning it. It makes the plant more thrifty, and consequently the crop is greater; this is especially true of corn and garden vegetables.

It contains no noxious weeds or larvæ of insects, which are almost always found in barnyard manure. Insects will not remain in the same hill with Poudrette. Its cheapness cannot fail to recommend it. One barrel of Poudrette being equal to a load of barnyard manure.

From the success met with last season, the subscribers feel emboldened to offer the manufacture an article superior to any in the market.

I shall use as my trade mark the brand, "ESSEX MILLS, POUDRETTE, Newburyport, Ms." All persons should see for themselves that they get the genuine and no other, as every barrel will be branded as above.

HIRAM LITTLEFIELD,
(late NOYES & LITTLEFIELD,)
Newburyport, Mass.

Certificates.

I have received certificates of its value, a few of which are here inserted.

ALFRED HELL, Jr.

Messrs. NOYES & LITTLEFIELD:—

Gents,—Last Spring I obtained of Wm. H. Conant, one barrel of your Poudrette as an experiment, with but little faith in its utility. When I opened it I was fairly sick of it, saying to myself it looks more like loam than any thing else, and is good for nothing; but how mistaken I was, for where I used it I think I got from one-third to one-half more corn than where I used barn yard manure only, the corn being heavier and was ripe two weeks earlier. I think it is just the thing for raising corn in this country. Sometimes a whole crop of corn might be saved by its use.

Yours, truly, WILLIAM JEWELL.

Extract of a letter of P. H. Falls.

SALMON FALLS, N. H., Sept. 28, 1862.

I received the Poudrette and used it nearly all on my place; there were a number of farmers that intended to have some, but were afraid to use it, thought it was a new thing and a humbug, and can't get it at all this year. I used it myself and think it is as good as any Poudrette I have used before. Another year I shall use it more extensively,—also my neighbors will want considerable about here.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., January, 1863.

This may certify that we have used the last season, Noyes & Littlefield's Poudrette, and find it superior to any we ever used before, and should recommend it to the public generally.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. Local.

☞ The body of Lieut. Justin Dimick, U. S. A., who was severly wounded in one of the recent battles in Virginia and subsequently died in the hospital, was brought to this city on Wednesday morning, and interred in the Auburn Street Cemetery.—There was no military display, but the members of the family of the deceased and other friends were present, to pay the last tokens of respect to his memory. Funeral services were held at the grave, being conducted by Rev. Mr. Davies, of St. John's Church, and after the reading of the impressive and beautiful Episcopal burial service the body of the patriot soldier was consigned to its resting place in the tomb.

☞ The performance of the tragedy of 'Macbeth,' by Mr. J. C. Myers' Dramatic Company at the Temple last evening, was very favorably received by quite a full audience. The company is considerably larger than most which have performed here, were well up in their parts, and gave as a whole a very creditable performance. This evening they will give a sensational drama, founded on incidents in the present war, introducing among others a scene in the notorious Libby Prison at Richmond, where so many of our Union soldiers have suffered. See advertisment.

☞ Provost Marshal John S. Godfrey, of the 1st N. H. District, has been ordered to make Portsmouth his headquarters.

CO. K, 13TH N. H. REGIMENT.

A private letter from Capt. M. T. Betton, of Co. K, 13th N. H. Regiment, contains the following additional particulars of the late battle near Suffolk, Va. The letter is dated Camp near Suffolk, Va., May 7th.

"After our regiment had been lying down behind a small rise of ground in the centre of the woods for an hour or so, Capt. Bozzell of Co. F, went up on the bank to look around, when one of the rebel sharpshooters killed him, not ten feet from my company. Our loss was trifling considering the number engaged. My company proved themselves as always ready and willing. Sergeant Fairservice was perfectly at home on the battle field. Only 3 of my men were wounded and these slightly; all the rest are present or accounted for. The 38 men who entered the fight with me, I will set against double their odds of graybacks at any time and feel safe.

"Gen. Corcoran followed the rebels up the next day, and took a large number of prisoners; but the 13th N. H. drove them from Suffolk and they skedaddled across the Blackwater, where they now are.

"We shall probably remain here to guard the place. Major Storer showed himself worthy of the highest praise, as did every officer in this command. We are all in the best of spirits and ready to meet them again. The prisoners are the most pitiable looking objects that I ever saw together; most of them have bare feet."

MAMMOTH EXCURSION TO ENGLAND.—We see by New York papers that Mr. Waldron, the active agent of the world renowned Alleghanian Vocalists and Swiss Bell Ringers, has perfected arrangements for a mammoth excursion to England on the Great Eastern. The excursion is to come off the middle of June. The Alleghanians are to give daily concerts on the trip. A large number of excursion tickets are already engaged for this the most extensive trip of the kind ever known. A trip to England and back on the greatest ship in the world, with daily concerts on board will be a fine thing, and there is no better agent in the world than he, the world-renowned, of the Alleghanians.

FORMER CUSTOMS.—In New England, in the last century and in the beginning of the present century, children were taught the LORD'S PRAYER, the COMMANDMENTS, and the Catechism; and ministers, at stated periods, were in the habit of visiting the school districts in their respective parishes to examine the children in reference to their knowledge of these teachings.

☞ The N. Y. Express says: "It is believed that the ship Mermaid, 147 days out from Shanghae, with 471,000 pounds green tea on board, besides other cargo, has been burnt by the Alabama. The chests of tea noticed by the ship Russell arrived at New York are supposed to have been part of her cargo."

☞ Com'r Donald McN. Fairfax has been detached from the iron-clad Nantucket and ordered to the Montauk, vice Com'r Worden, relieved on account of sickness.

☞ Contracts have been made by the Government for fifteen new light draft monitors, for $395,000 each, if completed in six months, or $386,000 if completed in eight months.

☞ The National debt on the 8th,, it is stated, reached $984,000,000, including $400,000,000 of legal tender notes.

☞ The Administration organ at Washington announces that the draft will take place immediately.

☞ It is officially announced that Gen. Van Dorn died at Spring Hill, Tenn., on the 7th of May.

☞ Nearly 2,200,000 bushels of grain were received at Buffalo on Sunday and Monday last.

☞ A man in Maine, where some of the people are sharp, sold another a horse for a certain number of sheep, to be delivered such a day. They came promptly, but to the purchaser's astonishment, all nicely sheared! It was a cool transaction, especially for the sheep.

☞ A gentleman advertising for a wife says: "It would be well if she were possessed of a competency sufficient to secure her against excessive grief in case of accident occurring to her companion." Very considerate.

☞ A handsome carriage and fine span of horses have been presented to Gen. Rosecrans by a number of his friends and admirers.

☞ See yon fair maiden in another column, picking Sambucl Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

EYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. Swett's PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicine can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have sold as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, etc. and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and had prevailed to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. she had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26tu

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipisseogee, Nov. 10, 1862.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS.—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an increased quantity this next Spring Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crops. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I have this year.

Yours, Respectfully,
ABEL HALEY,
Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H

A PICTURE.

Pleasantly murmured the brook, as they crossed the ford in the forest,
Pleased with the image that passed like a dream of love through its bosom.
Tremulous, floating in air, o'er the depths of the azure abyssal.
Down through the golden leaves the sun was pouring his splendors,
Gleaming on purple grapes, that, from branches
above them suspended,
Mingled their odorous breath with the balm of the pine and the fir tree.
Wild and sweet as the clusters that grew in the valley of Eschol.
LONGFELLOW.

And as the moon from some dark gate of cloud
Throws o'er the sea a floating bridge of light, Across whose trembling planks our souls may cross
Into the realm of mystery and light,—
So from the world of spirits there descends
A bridge of light, connecting it with this,
O'er whose unsteady flow, that sways and bends,
Wander our thoughts above the dark abyss.

All [illegible] God! If he but wave his hand,
The mists collect, the rain falls thick and loud,
Till, with a sudden flash, the spirit sees
Lo! he looks back from the departing cloud.
Angels of Life and Death alike are his;
Without his leave they pass no threshold o'er;
Who, then, would wish or dare, believing this,
Against His messengers to shut the door!
LONGFELLOW.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR
Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Eden, a well-known merchant of Oxford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that published of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Philadelphia, Author of Mrs. Rice's Cookery.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded her relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely-known Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of channelled iron pipe, Albany, N. Y.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my countenance to a fearfully loathsome affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I tried your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form and heal, leaving my face as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Smith, Houston St., New York.

"DR. AYER. I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the extensive use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess can equal the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wolcott, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicine. The ulcers were so bad that the bones became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and cured my poor PULSE. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as my body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Vanguard, Troy, Bradford Co., Pa.

"One only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome scab over his face, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other powerful remedies, but without effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Hearing that your SARSAPARILLA we had buy one bottle, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal soon after we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now healthy and free from as any other child. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Dr. Hiram Stout, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lowell, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"DR. AYER. My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary stages, often effectual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, and could not walk a mile. He grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the surviving use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA relieved him. His raw cases ran to legal more inveterate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by scrofulous Scrofulous Ulcerations, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, in aid of the SARSAPARILLA, the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrill, of Charlestown, Mass.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes from Troy:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia,

when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this ENT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

THE MODEL COOK
FOR WOOD OR COAL.
The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven. For baking (giving an oven nearly 3 feet long) or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time. A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.
E. A. STEVENS,
NO 40 MARKET ST.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than any other. Iron plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove in use, or no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated by the same method as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are forced up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they are lighter than the air, and are generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of section or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a mouth, when Rubber has been used, from one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,
Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.
No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL
Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has mounted the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.
The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no crevices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept sweet and clean.
Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.
Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.
In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country.
S. B. MARDEN.
ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.
I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BERRETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

—— A large number of criminal cases are to come before the S. J. Court, in session at Amherst. The Grand Jury found about thirty indictments, and on Monday twenty-four persons were arraigned,—principally from Manchester and Nashua. Among them was one who has victimized several persons in Manchester, and who is thus spoken of by the Mirror:—

Sarah Colby of Manchester, was arraigned for falsely pretending and thereby obtaining of Rosini Badger, $25 for the purpose of going to Washington to get a permit from President Lincoln to obtain certain papers in the possession of a tribe of Indians at Oldtown, Me., which papers would reveal the place on the Amoskeag Mfg. Co.'s land, near the river in Manchester, where a chest was buried that contain ten millions of dollars,—two millions in sovereigns and eight millions in bars of gold, and also a great number of diamonds and other precious stones; which papers she pretended she had seen, and that the $25 would procure. The contents of the chest, as she promised, were to be divided between herself and Rosini. Plea of guilty of borrowing the money. The reading of the indictment caused much merriment. The subject of it is one of the hardest looking cases imaginable—a thin, poorly-clad, haggard, witch-looking woman of some 60 yrs.

WARRANTED TO WASH.—An ingenious Yankee has contrived a bank note which can be soaked and washed in hot and cold water a dozen times, then wrung out and dried, and still be in as good condition as though it were new. The water-proof paper is made so by a thin and perfectly transparent coating of India-rubber, which is laid on after the bill is printed, and covers and preserves the ink as well as the paper.

FRIDAY, MAY 15, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Grant had a severe battle on Wednesday with Gen. Bowen, at Clinton, 10 miles from Jackson. The fight lasted all day, and Bowen was defeated and driven back towards Jackson. Reinforcements were said to be on the way from Charleston and Mobile to prevent the capture of Jackson and Vicksburg, and Gen. Grant being apprised of the movement has fallen back to the river to await reinforcements.

60 mounted rebels between Woodburn and Franklin, Ky., coming towards the railroad on Wednesday, were met by a detachment of Federal troops from Franklin and defeated. Five are reported killed and several wounded.

Telegrams from Murfreesboro' confirm the capture by the rebels of Col. Straight, of the 51st Indiana Regiment, with 1700 men, near Rome, Ga.

Governor Pettus, of Missisippi, issues a proclamation called on every man capable of bearing arms to take the field.

The Washington Star denies that Gen. Halleck intends to take the field.

The N. Y. Tribune has direct advices from the Army of the Potomac to Tuesday. All reports of movements since Hooker crossed to the north side of the Rappahannock are unfounded. The army occupies its old camps. Stoneman's raid has been overrated. The Richmond and Fredericksburg road was so little damaged that it was repaired in 24 hours. Our losses exceed 17,000 men, while Lee is said to admit the loss of 18,000. The World's Washington letter states that the indications are that the rebel army is swinging round its left on the Gordonsville and Richmond road to Frederick's Hill station, with its right resting on the Fredericksburg and Richmond road at Bowling Green, thus protecting the upper end of the triangle formed by these roads at Hanover Junction, 16 miles from Richmond, and giving the rebels two railroads from Richmond to their army.

The N. Y. Post gives a rumor that fears are entertained of a cavalry raid upon Washington; and that Lee intends to cross the Rappahannock to attack our forces. It says Gen. Hooker last week ordered a portion of his army across the river, but Gen. Halleck countermanded the order. It seems not unlikely that the latter intends to assume command.

The N. Y. Express says McClellan last week sent in a request to the President either to accept his resignation, or to give him active service; and that it was rumored the resignation was not accepted.

Telegrams from Gen. Schenck's headquarters in Baltimore say that Mosby is again in the vicinity of Goose Creek Church, Loudon county, Va., with a force of about 300 guerilla cavalry.

☞ The N. Y. Herald says the Navy Department has made a move in the right quarter, to build vessels with a proper amount of propulive power. Mr. Delano, the naval constructor at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, and Mr. Henry Steers of Greenpoint, are each to build a vessel from their own models, while Mr. Dickinson will furnish the drawings of their engines. These vessels will be about 300 feet long and about 8000 tons burden, and not unlike the famous Niagara in many respects. They will carry eight heavy guns, and, it is believed, will be the fastest vessels of war ever built.

☞ There was a grand celebration in St. Louis on Monday, of the anniversary of Camp Jackson. The procession was immense; all the State and army officers participated; Gen. Curtis reviewed the troops; business was suspended, and the city profusely decorated. There were speeches, patriotic resolutions, and a Committee raised to get up a monument to Gen. Lyon. It is estimated that there were 10,000 persons present.

☞ A marriage is noticed in the Duxbury Times, in which the happy pair are unusually explicit in stating their position. They say—"No cards, no receptions, no wedding tour."

☞ The Secretary of War has directed that while the Army of the Potomac remains in its present position no passes shall be granted to persons to visit it with the view of obtaining the bodies of deceased friends.

☞ Erastus Corning, of Albany, the railroad king, is about to retire from business. He commenced as a clerk at $20 a month, and leaves off with a fortune estimated at $5,000,000.

☞ Gen. Lee has officially communicated to his troops intelligence of the death of Stonewall Jackson, and enjoins them to let his name be a watchword to them.

☞ For knocking a colored man down a Baltimore rowdy has been fined $25 and costs and imprisoned for six months.

☞ The gunboat Sonoma arrived at Havana May 9th.

WHAT SHALL WE DRINK?—First of all, says Uncle Toby, drink water. This is the universal drink for all animals, including man. It is the natural drink; and finally it is the only drink: for if we take tea, coffee or chocolate, beer, cider or wine, rum, brandy or gin, we quench thirst only with the water which they contain; the other matters being the flavor, or seasoning, or spirits they contain. So when we quench thirst with such cooling fruits as the cucumber, melon, apple and orange, the water they contain is the only agent in the quenching. Delicious tastes are connected with the water in the juices of these fruits and others,—and the fruits are good and pleasant food: but they quench thirst only as far as they contain water.

But, then, let us turn the question round, and ask—"What shall we not drink? and why?"

Answer, first of all, let no man drink that which he knows or believes to be hurtful to himself, however much it may gratify his palate, excite his nerves, or please his friends.

In the next place let him avoid all those drinks which he sees or believes to be generally injurious to other persons, even though he may not be conscious that they injure him; because self-indulgence is delusive, and also because he should love his neighbor well enough to set him a good example by abstaining.

There are physical and sanitary effects and defects ascribed to the various artificial drinks; all of which are worthy of consideration: and beyond these in regard to some of them there are moral and social objections to their use. Some of these objections bear so hard against wine and strong drink that some judicious men, in every generation for three thousand years have advised people not to drink them.

In our own century, hundreds of thousands have obeyed the advice, to their own personal advantage, and to the great benefit of the community.

Solomon said, ages ago, (Prov. 23: 29—35) Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eye? They that tarry long at the wine, they that go to seek mixed wine.—Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his color in the cup, when it moveth itself aright: At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder. Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things: Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast. They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it again.

In this extract the sacred writer judges the tree by its fruit, the drink by its effect. This is a safe method of judging, in all practical matters. Some writers tell us that in principle it is all one whether we drink tea and coffee, or rum and brandy and wine.—Why? Because they are all stimulants.—Truly they are so: but did anybody ever know a great tea drinker to beat his wife, make a street brawl, and get into the lock-up? unless he had also had some wine or strong drink. Black pepper, horse radish and cayenne are also stimulants of a high order: and they may be in some quantities injurious in some respects to health: but they never cause a man to murder his best friend by mistake, nor to fall down drunk in the gutter.

Chocolate is a narcotic substance; so is tobacco, and so is opium; yet chocolate does not make men filthy like tobacco, nor delirious like opium.

The tree is and must be judged by its fruits; and all substances used as food or drink must be judged by their effects. Solomon's judgment, above cited, was made up almost 3000 years ago, and never has been reversed. It never can be. U. T.

TOBACCO FAMINE.—The Gloucester Telegraph says:

O, ye chewers of the weed, you must move your jaws a little slower, and not use up your plugs so quick. The Louisville Journal says the tobacco manufacturers of that city have suspended operations in consequence of the high price of leaf tobacco. It is said that there are about five thousand packages of plug tobacco in the four principal cities of the East. The suspension of the Louisville houses will keep about sixteen thousand packages out of the market monthly. This suspension will throw out of employment about three thousand hands.

If a man during fifty years chews every day two inches of solid plug tobacco, (and many do,) it will amount, at the end of that time, to nine thousand three hundred and sixty-six feet, or a mile and a quarter of tobacco, half an inch thick and two inches broad, and will cost $1500.

☞ A New Yorker, in speaking of the explosion of the powder magazine in that city on Monday night, said "it was enough to frighten the Common Council into pious consideration for the future."

☞ The Richmond Hustings Court was still engaged on the 7th, fining and imprisoning women engaged in the recent bread riot in that city.

STRENGTH.—It is stated that Prof. Field, of the Troy Gymnasium, has succeeded in lifting over two thousand pounds. That beats anything but Winship.

☞ Gen. Howard exonerates Carl Schurz from all blame in the flight of the 11th corps.

A MILITARY FAMILY.

Mr. WILLIAM O. SIDES, senior, aged 55 years, a native of Portsmouth, but for several years resident in Massachusetts, and a volunteer in the 50th Ms. Regt., died at Baton Rouge, April 5th. We have been permitted to make public the following letter from Capt. John G. Barnes, (also a native of Portsmouth,) who commanded Co. K of that regiment,—informing Mrs. Sides of the decease of her husband, who was a member of his company. We give it entire, as showing the high character of many of the Union soldiers and officers, and the feeling existing between them:

BATON ROUGE, April 7, '63.

Dear Madame:—It is with feelings of the utmost grief that I find it to be my duty to inform you of the decease of one who sustains to you and your family the sacred and endearing tie of husband and father. About one month since he was seized, in common with nearly every man in the regiment, with the prevailing disease of the climate, viz.: diarrhea. He was accordingly placed in the Regimental Hospital (a dwelling-house adjoining the encampment) where he continued to become reduced, notwithstanding the efforts of the regimental surgeons, Drs. Cogswell and French.

About this time the brigade to which we are attached, was ordered up the river to Port Hudson, and your husband with several others was sent to the General Hospital. Yesterday I visited the Hospital, only to learn that he had just fallen asleep, never more to awake this side of the grave. His body reposes in the hospital burying-ground, in a pleasant spot on the banks of the Mississippi river, to be marked by a simple but neat inscription at the head of his grave.

I beg, madam, to express, in common with my command, our earnest and heartfelt sympathy to one who sustains the relation of wife, as well as those dear ones whose kindred ties have bound him to the family circle.

And we beg you to rest assured that while you mourn the loss of a husband and father, we also mourn the loss of a brother in arms and fellow soldier on the field of strife. Time is but the consort of death, and notwithstanding the fact that he has passed away, we offer you the consolation we find for ourselves,—that if you trust Him who has passed through the grave and burst the bands of death, you shall one day meet him where sickness and death are never known.

That Heaven may bless you and give you the support that you need in this terrible hour of affliction, is the heartfelt wish of his comrades and fellow soldiers, of Co. K, 50th Regt. Mass. Vols.

JOHN C. BARNES, Capt. Commanding,
In behalf of the Company.

And, further, in conversation with the mutual friend of the deceased and ourselves, who informed us of his death—we have learned a few curious and commendable facts concerning his connections here, which we think will interest many readers at this time. So far as they know and believe, this is the only family of the name in the country. The late Mr. Samuel Sides, of this city, a native of England, was impressed on board a British man-of-war when but a boy; and after serving there nine years, escaped and made his home here. He shipped on board the famous privateer Fox, from this port, in the war of 1812, and being captured from a prize, was immured in Dartmoor prison, and was there at the time of the great insurrection and massacre.

He had five sons, of whom but two are now living—Messrs. Nath'l B. and Robert C. Sides, both resident here. At the time of the Aroostook troubles, three of the five were enrolled in the Maine militia,—Nathaniel being Orderly Sergeant of a Company at Kittery and York, and receiving the appointment of Paymaster, with the rank of 2d Lieut., of the 1st Regt., under Gov. Fairfield, in 1839. All the three were drafted as minute men, and were ready to do their country service, when the hash was settled.

And in the present war—of fifteen bearing the name old enough to bear arms, twelve have volunteered to shoulder arms, and all been under fire, most of them repeatedly; and strange to say, none has been wounded, so far as is known, though three have now died of disease.

He whose death we record above left a widow and nine children to mourn his loss. One son lies near him at Baton Rouge; another is still in the army there; another in the 17th Mass., and was with Gen. Foster through the three days' battle at Kinston, has been with the regiment all the while in N. C. Another is in the 33d Mass. Himself, these three sons, and six sons-in-law, have enlisted to quell the rebellion; besides nine nephews—six in the 2nd N. H., 2 in the 13th N. H., and one in the 6th N. H. Of these, four, as is well known, are sons of Mr. N. B. Sides, and one a son of Mr. Robert C. Sides, of this city, two of whom, with a brother-in-law, are still in the service. The above, we think, may be termed a very honorable military and patriotic record.

☞ Gov. Morton, of Indiana, has requested the Secretary of War to order the confinement of 800 rebel prisoners, that they may be held as hostages for the exchange and return of the 400 Alabamians belonging to Col. Straight's regiment, who, it is reported, were not paroled with the other troops belonging to the command of Col. S., recently captured, but were sent to Richmond and denounced as renegade Alabamians.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The clothing store of Mr. W. H. Earle, on Franklin Square, Dover, was broken into on Monday night. About $5 in scrip were taken from the money drawer and some fancy goods carried off. An entrance was effected by breaking a large pane of plate glass in a front window.—Richard Petty, suspected of being the perpetrator, has been arrested and committed to jail.

—— Capt. L. H. Buzzell, of the 13th regiment, killed at Suffolk on the 3d inst., was son of Mr. Ebenezer Buzzell of Barrington. He was a young man of much promise and a fine officer, beloved and respected by his men.

—— Mr. Benjamin Mills, of Chester, a respectable and well-to-do farmer, aged 70 years, was burned to death Friday, the 1st inst., while engaged in burning brush in his pasture. The fire was observed burning on his land all day, and as it spread quite extensively to the adjoining farms the citizens were called out to extinguish it. The body of the unfortunate man, who the people supposed was at home, was found burned to a crisp, lying where the fire had been very hot. An inquest was held on the body, and the jury rendered a verdict that he came to his death from suffocation after having become exhausted by trying to prevent the spreading of the fire.

—— The 7th N. H. Regiment has left St. Augustine, Fla., and gone to Fernandina.

—— Col. Potter of the 12th Regiment, reported wounded and missing, it is thought was taken prisoner at Chancellorsville.

—— A day or two since one of the prisoners in the Manchester lock-up became thirsty, and a friend outside relieved him by placing through the keyhole a piece of paper twisted into the form of a tunnel, and by this means turning the contents of a bottle into the mouth of the fellow within.

—— At Dartmouth College on class day, in July, Frank A. Spencer will give the oration; Wm. L. Flagg the poem; N. H. Clement, formerly of Portsmouth, the chronicles; David E. Bradley the prophecies, and S. D. Dodge the address to the President.

NEWBURYPORT POUDRETTE.
An article so well known as POUDRETTE may need no remarks to show its superiority to any other Fertilizer. The basis of this Fertilizer is Night Soil, obtained in Newburyport, from deep vaults—the accumulation in many cases of many years—so that it is highly concentrated. By mechanical means it is rendered very fine and dry, so that no inconvenience can result from its use.
It is very useful in starting the young plants, being just warm enough to sprout the seed without burning it. It makes the plant more thrifty, and consequently the crop is greater; this is especially true of corn and garden vegetables.
It contains no worms or grubs or larve of insects, which are almost always found in barnyard manure. Insects will not remain in the same hill with Poudrette. Its cheapness cannot fail to recommend it. One barrel of Poudrette being equal to a load of barnyard manure.
From the success met with last season, the subscriber flatters himself that he can manufacture an article superior to any in the market.
I shall use as my trade mark the brand, "ESSEX MILLS, POUDRETTE, Newburyport, Ms." All persons should see for themselves that they get the genuine and no other, as every barrel will be branded as above.
HIRAM LITTLEFIELD,

Newburyport, Mass.

Certificates.
I have received certificates of its value, a few of which are here inserted.
ALFRED, Me., Dec. 29, 1863.
Messrs. NOYES & LITTLEFIELD:—
Gents,—Last Spring I obtained of Wm. H. Conant, one barrel of your Poudrette as an experiment, with but little faith in its utility. When I opened it it was fairly sick of it, saying to myself it looks more like loam than any thing else, and is good for nothing; but how mistaken I was, for where I used it I think I got from one-third to one-half more corn than where I used barn yard maunre only, the corn being heavier and was ripe two weeks earlier. I think it is just the thing for raising corn in this country. Sometimes a whole crop of corn might be saved by its use.
Yours, truly, WILLIAM JEWETT.
Extract of a letter of P. H. Falls.
SALMON FALLS, N. H., Sept. 23, 1862.
I received the Poudrette and used it nearly all on my place; there were a number of farmers that intended to have sent for it, but were afraid to use it, thought it was a new thing and a humbug, and did not take any. I used it myself and think it is as good as any manure I have used before. Another year I shall use it more extensively,—also my neighbors will want considerable about here.
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., January, 1863.
This may certify that we have used the last season, Noyes & Littlefield's Poudrette, and find it superior to any we ever used before, and would recommend it to the public generally.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be cared, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL AND ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declaration by true results.

☞ Among the visitors in town on Thursday was Senator John P. Hale. We are also pleased to see the venerable Elder Howe, in his usual good health and spirits.

☞ The machinery for the screw steamer Nipsic, now on the stocks at the Navy Yard, is on its way hither from South Boston, Mass. The vessel will be ready for launching in a few days.

HARRINGTON, the celebrated Boston Ventriloquist, is to perform in Kittery Monday and Tuesday evenings, and will soon appear before his Portsmouth friends.

'CARD.—The subscriber hereby acknowledges from the citizens of Portsmouth a cash subscription of $186.13 in aid of the National Freedmen's Relief Association,—also the receipt of 3 tierces, 2 cases and 1 barrel of second hand clothes, books, &c.

We mention with gratitude the welcome given him by the people, the ready and efficient aid of the ladies, and especially the very cheerful co-operation of the Sabbath Schools, who so readily volunteered to aid us. Mention is also made of the free conveyance of the goods to New York by Messrs. Eldridge & Son.

A committee of gentlemen, regularly organized, will attend to the great work of our association, who will be aided by efficient ladies, who will also organize and carry the work along which has been so auspiciously begun.

Mr. Benjamin Cheever will continue to receive contributions of money and clothes.

JOHN DUDLEY, Dist. Secretary.

☞ It is authoritatively stated that "the amount of legal tender notes and postal currency issued up to the first day of May is as follows:—Legal tenders, about $380,000,000; Postal currency, about $18,000,000. There can be about twenty-five or thirty millions more issued under the resolution of Congress to pay soldiers. Nearly half a million per day is now being issued, and will probably continue until the balance of the twenty-five or thirty millions is issued. Should the war continue for two years more twice the amount will have to be issued to carry the war on, exclusive of certificates of indebtedness, two or three hundred millions of which will be kept afloat nearly all the time."

☞ By the explosion of the powder magazine in the upper part of New York, on Monday night, a large amount of property in the vicinity was destroyed, and much damage done to the public buildings on Randall's and Ward's Islands. The force of the concussion was such as to awaken persons at their houses fifteen miles from the scene of the explosion. Several persons are known to have been seriously injured. In New Haven the effect was sensibly felt, and there as well as in many other places, it was believed to be an earthquake.

☞ Charleston papers are very silent about the injuries done to Fort Sumter in the late attack by the iron-clads, but a letter from a correspondent on board the Iron sides, to the Baltimore American, says that as soon as the fleet withdrew, staging and scaffolding were erected on the outside of the fort, and for more than a month past the rebels have been at work repairing damages, and are still at work. There are large holes in the walls very distinctly seen.

☞ The London Times, referring to Mr. Adams's letter, says: "It is believed that the relations between our Cabinet and the United States Legation in London will continue on a friendly footing—a result which in a personal sense will afford unmixed satisfaction, since the individual and historical claims of Mr. Adams to respect and esteem have never been disputed in any quarter."

☞ Some "sentilized" photographic paper was lately carried up in a balloon in England, and exposed to the full rays of the sun, with this extraordinary result: that at three miles high, the paper did not color so much in half an hour as in the grounds of the Royal Observatory in one minute. This would seem to indicate that the chemical effects of light are largely due to its passage through the atmosphere, or at least, to the density of the atmosphere through which it has recently passed.

☞ The Post states that in the Boston Police Court on Wednesday, Timothy N. Harris, charged with passing a counterfeit $8 bill on the Mechanics & Traders' Bank, of Portsmouth, to Oliver Cobb, in October last, was held in $1000 for appearance at the Superior Court.

☞ Capt. Chas. Boggs, commanding U. S. steamer Sacramento, reports that on the night of Apr. 15th, he captured in the vicinity of the entrance to Wilmington, N. C., the English schooner Wanderer, from Nassau, while endeavoring to run the blockade. She was cleared for Beaufort, N. C., and was loaded with salt and herrings.

☞ The Wall street money writers say the money market is again abundantly supplied, and borrowers have no difficulty in obtaining all they need at 5 a 6 per cent., while some transactions have been made as low as 4 per cent. with leading borrowers.

☞ The Roman Catholic Bishop Smith, of Dubuque, Iowa, has threatened to excommunicate those of his flock who actively sympathize with secession—declaring that such connection was against the rules of the Church, and that those members organized as Copperheads were ipso facto out of its pale.

☞ Between two and three millions of dollars a day are passing into the national treasury, and the rate of interest averages less than 5 per cent.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambucl Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. ly.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N.H., Feb. 20, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH VENNERS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without the natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the probability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Subscriber, by his own proof, can prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE TRUE TEST OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sureof having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Read the following recommendation from the Cashier of the Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H.

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipisogee, Nov. 10, 1861.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS:—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an increased quantity this next Spring Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crops. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, Respectfully,
ABEL HALEY,
Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.
By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies which have already proved, in the hands of thousands, failed to cure the most alarming cases of
GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal disease, Impotency, Seminal Weakness, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, pains and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Rheumatism, Gravel, Humors, Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr. D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases arising from a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, entailing the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are some of the prominent ills. Young persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.
Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charge for board moderate.
Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for their use, by addressing his office, post paid. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important!
To Females in Delicate Health.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system, Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days, and invariably certain in the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the affected person restored to health in a few weeks.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and delicate cases of every name and nature, sparing by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow has prepared his for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

Its baking oven is oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly, at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are provided with plates, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats can be prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove, because any person, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness, and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moistened and pleasant—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headaches so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air beyond the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the best in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they require from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry K. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions, in this, be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.
DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,
Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.
Portsmouth, Jan. 1, 1863.

DENTISTRY.
No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.
DR. GOODALL
Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public generally, that he has made ready to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to make sets, either on RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.
The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.
Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.
Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the entire teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.
This is now the fashion, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.
ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do as well and as cheap as any. I will be no more than my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.
I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BERRY, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention—in whole and partial Sets of Teeth required with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

I DON'T LIKE MY BUSINESS.—There is no greater fallacy in the world than that entertained by many young men, that some pursuit in life can be found wholly suited to their tastes, whims and fancies. This philosopher's stone can never be discovered, and every one who makes his life a search for it will be ruined. Much truth is contained in the Irishman's remark; "It is never aisy to work hard." Let, therefore, the fact be always remembered by the young, that no life work can be found entirely agreeable to man. Success always lies at the top of a hill; if we would reach it we can do so only by hard persevering effort, while beset with difficulties of every kind. Genius paints nothing in the battle of life! Determined, obstinate perseverance in one single channel, is everything.

Hence, should any one of our young readers be debating in his mind a change of business, imagining he has a genius for some other, let him at once dismiss the thought as he would a temptation to do evil. If you think you made a mistake in choosing the pursuit or profession you did, don't make another by leaving it. Spend all your energies in working for, and clinging to it as you would to the lifeboat that sustained you in the midst of the ocean. If you leave it, it is almost certain that you will go down; but if you cling to it, informing yourself about it until you are its master, bending your every energy to the work, success is certain. Good, hard, honest effort, steadily persevered in, will make your love for business or profession grow; since no one should expect to reach a period when he can feel that his life work is just the one he could have done best and would have liked best. We are allowed to see and feel the roughness in our pathway, but none in others; yet all have them.—Hunt's Merchants' Magazine.

SATURDAY, MAY 16, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Grant is reported to have been encamped of the 7th near Big Black river, 15 miles from Grand Gulf. He was receiving heavy reinforcements, but it was thought no great battle had been fought.

Our troops, all the way from Memphis to Young's Point, are moving to reinforce Gen. Grant. Judge Kellogg, who left Gen. Grant's Headquarters on Thursday last, says the report of a fight at Clinton is untrue. Gen. Grant will endeavor to cut the railroad between Vicksburg and Jackson, and a battle is expected in the vicinity of Black River bridge. The Jackson (Miss) Appeal says Gen. Bowen's loss at Bayou Pierre was about 1000. The rebel killed and wounded were left on the field. Gen. Tracy, Lt. Col. Pettis and Maj. Tuckerman were killed, and Col. Garnett and Maj. Hurley were severely wounded.

A dispatch from Somerset, Ky., 13th, reports the rebels in force across the Cumberland. Morgan, with Wheeler and Forrest's commands, is at Monticello.

The Richmond Sentinel contains a Jackson, Miss., dispatch, which says the Natchez Courier professes to have information that Kirby Smith, with 10,000 raw troops, had badly beaten Gen. Banks, driving him out of Washington, La. When it comes in a less roundabout way we may credit it.

It is stated that four of the six corps commanders urged Gen. Hooker to make an immediate advance on the rebel army and not to cross the river, previous to his withdrawal. Lee's headquarters are now in Fredericksburg, and Gen. Barksdale, of Mississippi, is in command there. It is reported that Gen. A. P. Hill has been placed in command of Stonewall Jackson's corps. Gen. Hooker was in Washington on Friday on official business. It is stated that an independent cavalry command will at once be given to Col. Kilpatrick. The N. Y. Post's dispatch states that it is said there is a serious disagreement between Halleck and Hooker, and that it was positively said Hooker's new movement was countermanded by Halleck. Prominent Congressmen have united in a vigorous protest to the President, against the latter's taking the field. Gen. Burnside was in Washington on Thursday, consulting with the President.

At the presentation of the complimentary resolutions from the Washington City Council to Gen. McClellan, in New York, on Thursday, he declared that the rumor of his resignation was false.

Col. Mulligan has fallen back to Moundville, Western Virginia, 12 miles below Wheeling, and one wing of the rebel army has taken Middlebourne, Tyler county.—The other wing are threatening Parkersburg. The rebels are moving off all the cattle, stock, &c. Most of the able-bodied men in Wheeling have gone out with the militia.

☞ Washington dispatches say: The President has received from the headquarters of the army of the Potomac an original letter of Jeff. Davis, addressed to one of his Colonels, in which he speaks despondingly of affairs in the Southwest, and on the Rappahannock. The letter was found in a rebel camp at Fredericksburg, and is dated May 2.

☞ The rebels are remarkably well clothed this Spring. An officer of Barksdale's staff informed one of our surgeons that a steamer loaded with clothing had lately arrived at a Southern port, and 60,000 suits had been distributed among the army in Virginia.

☞ The new rebel flag is described to be as follows:—The field to be white, length double the width, with the Union now used as the battle flag to be a square of two-thirds the width of the flag, having the ground red thereon, a broad saltire of blue bordered with white and emblazoned with mullets or five pointed stars, corresponding to the number of Confederate States.

☞ The removal of Chief Justice Kinney of Utah and the appointment of John Titus, of Pennsylvania, is regarded as indicative of a less forbearing course towards the Mormons than has heretofore been pursued. The change was made from motives of public policy.

☞ The British pirate Alabama is reported to have burnt another American vessel April 10th, ten miles south of the equator, in lon. 29 40. Previously, on the same day, she spoke the British ship Victory, pretended to be the U. S. steamer Iroquois, and was anxious to know if the Victory had seen any American vessels.

☞ The Navy Department has received information that the steamship Cherokee was captured off Charleston while endeavoring to run the blockade.

☞ The Warden of the Maine State Prison was instantly killed by a convict on Thursday morning, who stabbed him in the neck, severing the jugular vein.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The American states that wounded men of the 12th regiment, who passed through Manchester on Wednesday, report the losses in their regiment to have been greatly exaggerated. Not half the number reported missing are either killed, wounded or missing, but in the heat of conflict and the retreat many left the ranks, who were turning up in numbers every day since the return of the army to their old ground on this side of the river.

—— A letter received in Manchester from the Battery, states that in all the perils of the nine days' battles, not a horse belonging to the corps was killed or in the slightest degree injured.

—— The great Union Fair in Manchester opened finely on Wednesday, and on Thursday the success was even more complete. The local papers are filled with glowing accounts of the affair; the crowd was very great, visitors being present from "all 'round about."

—— Joseph Warren, who was fined $20 for an assault in Warren, decided that it would be more satisfactory to him to go to jail than to pay that amount for the privilege of exposure to the draft.

MISPRONUNCIATION.—The New Hampshire Gazette good-naturedly cavils at our remarks about queer mispronunciations, and declares it to be "a pretty broad assertion," to say that half the inhabitants of Portsmouth call it Porchmouth. Well, we can, perhaps, afford to narrow the assertion so as to satisfy our cotemporary, especially as he furnishes us with a new mispronunciation there, namely, Porchsmith. * * * It may console our cotemporaries in other States to know that we have got cases of queer mispronunciations in New York, as well as they. Up the river they call the village of Coxsackie, Cooksackie, and Shawangunk they call Shongum; and we presume there are plenty more cases of the same sort.—N. Y. Argus.

For the benefit of our friends of the sharp-eyed Argus, we will state that a list of the mis-spellings even, of the name of our good city, which we received from our Postmaster, and published a few years ago, we think embraced more than thirty different modes of writing "Portsmouth," all actually copied from letters! We doubt if anybody can beat this.

And, speaking of names—a Traveller correspondent gives some from Louisiana.—Teche and Atchafalaya (pronounced Tesh and Chef-a-lya) and Attakapas country, (pronounced Tuckapaw.)

☞ The N. Y. Tribune, in speaking of the death of Jackson, says:

Ben. McCulloch—Felix K. Zollicoffer—Albert Sidney Johnson—Maxcy Gregg—and now Earl Van Dorn and Stonewall Jackson—the master-spirits of the Great Rebellion are passing away. Cobb, Toombs, Wise, Floyd, Humphrey Marshall, and other Generals of the first batch, have resigned or been quietly shelved—even Joseph E. Johnston, who was long Commander-in-Chief, has recovered no active service since he fell from his horse, shot through the body at Fair Oaks, and is probable an invalid for life. The Rebellion is devouring its authors.

☞ The Washington Chronicle says the minority of the Vallandigham Court Martial were in favor of sending him South, not to return till the war is over; and the correspondent of the Philadelphia Enquirer says the President has thus changed his sentence.

☞ The N. Y. Tribune states that Gen. Sigel has returned from Washington after an ineffectual effort to be assigned to duty, if no more than Aid on the staff of the General commanding the Army of the Potomac.

☞ Arrangements have already been completed by Col. Hoffman for the exchange of all Union officers and soldiers captured by the rebels in the late battles on the Rappahannock. Nearly all the rebel prisoners have been sent to City Point.

☞ A letter received by a secessionist in Washington from a rebel Major confined in Fort Delaware, says the rebel force in the recent engagement at Chancellorsville did not exceed 70,000. The writer admits that the rebel loss is much greater than the Federal.

☞ The children of the late Senator Douglas relinquished their Memphis estate long ago by choosing to espouse the cause of their country. One of the boys is upon Gen. Burnside's staff.

☞ A Washington dispatch says the censorship over telegraphic messages, instead of being relaxed, has, if possible, become more stringent.

☞ A fire in the woods near River Head, Long Island, has covered an area of 5 miles square, or about 16,000 acres of land. It was caused by sparks from a locomotive.—The rain on Tuesday night probably extinguished the fire.

☞ The sister and niece of Jackson, who killed Ellsworth, have been arrested in Georgetown. They are charged with aiding the rebels by forwarding rebel mails, and in other ways. They will probably be sent south immediately.

☞ The exportation of horses and mules from this country during the war has been prohibited. Any intended for export are to be seized.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated — By UNCLE TOBY.

Reunion of New Hampshire with Massachusetts, 1690—Indian troubles—Rev. Seaborn Cotton.—The New Hampshire Convention recommended a reunion with Massachusetts, until the King's pleasure should be known. Application was made to that government and readily agreed to; the union took place on the 12th of March, 1690. Mr. Richard Waldron and Capt. John Pickering were elected and sent Representatives to the General Court from Portsmouth.

The town "voted that Mr. William Vaughan, Mr. Richard Martyn, and Mr. Nathaniel Fryer, who were formerly chosen by this town and confirmed as Magistrates by the Governor and Council of Massachusetts' Bay, be the persons that are to attend to that work according to their oaths taken."

The Indians continued the war with unabated zeal. They made an attack on Fox Point, where they burned several houses, killed fourteen people and carried away six captives. The settlements on the frontiers suffered most. Forty persons were killed in one week between Lamprey river and Amesbury. On the 26th of November, the Indians requested a cessation of hostilities; they brought in ten captives and agreed upon a truce until the 1st of the next May, which they observed till the 9th of June, 1691, when they attacked Storer's garrison at Wells, but were bravely repulsed. About the same time they killed two men in Exeter, and on the 29th of September, a party of them came from the eastward in canoes to Sandy Beach, (Rye) where they killed and captivated twenty persons. Captain Sherburne of Portsmouth, a worthy officer, was this year killed at Maquoit.

The Faulkland, a fifty-four gun ship, was built here by order of the British Government.

The town, at a general meeting held on the 30th of March, 1691, voted to give the Rev. John Cotton (son of Rev. Seaborn Cotton, of Hampton) a call to settle here in the ministry, and offered him eighty pounds per year.

Mr. Moodey, having seen the foregoing vote, wrote to the town on the 20th of May, informing them that he would return if it were their wish; that they had been hasty in giving the call to Mr. Cotton, but whether he returned or not, he should do everything in his power to promote their welfare. He had previously written to the church, stating his willingness to return and renew his pastoral relation with them if it were thought best, and proposed that a council should be called to advise them how to proceed. The selectmen did not think proper to call a town meeting to lay this letter before them, but wrote Mr. Moodey that they had consulted many individuals respecting it; that they did not see the necessity of a council; that his leaving them destitute so many years, especially after their repeated invitations to him to return, was evidence of his intention of quitting them altogether; and that since the town had given a call to Mr. Cotton, they were not at liberty to act, until they had received his answer.

Mr. Cotton advised them to make another application to Mr. Moodey, and if he did not accept this invitation, "they might honestly provide for themselves such persons as they judge fittest to supply the place of the ministry here." The town accordingly voted on the 8th of October to send another messenger to Mr. Moodey and request his return, and to inform him "that in consequence of his absence, part of the town had withdrawn and provided themselves with a minister, and that they were not able to maintain a minister as they had formerly done. Notwithstanding which, they engage, provided he return forthwith, to pay him eighty pounds a year, and let him have the use of the glebe and parsonage house. But if he did not take up with the above propositions, the church and town are resolved to concern themselves no further with Mr. Moodey, but look upon ourselves clear from him and he from us."

At the same meeting they confirmed their former vote respecting Mr. Cotton, and empowered the selectmen to renew their invitation to him; "provided Mr. Moodey did not come within a fortnight from that time and remain here in supplying the place of the ministry as formerly."

Mr. Moodey thought the intervention of a council of great importance, and was unwilling to return without their advice. The town and church being of a contrary opinion a council was not called, and Mr. Moodey concluded to remain in Boston. Mr. Cotton came to this town and preached here three months. He was afterward settled at Hampton, as successor of his father.

The first planters of Massachusetts left their native country for the sake of enjoying here a greater degree of civil and religious liberty, then they were indulged with in England. The settlers of New Hampshire were influenced by very different motives. Capt. Smith, in the account he published of New England, speaks highly of the importance of the fisheries, and concludes his observations in the following manner: "Therefore, honorable and worthy countrymen, let not the meanness of the word fish distaste you, for it will afford you as good gold as the mines of Potosi and Guiana; with less hazard and charge, and more certainty and facility." Many of the first settlers of New Hampshire confirmed the truth of this remark. They diligently pursued the business which naturally introduced other branches of commerce, and led to opulence.

A reverend divine (probably Mr. Cotton) preaching against the depravity of the times said, "You have forsaken the pious habits of your forefathers, who left the ease and comfort which they possessed in their native land, and came to this howling wilderness to enjoy without molestation the exercise of their pure principles of religion." One of the congregation interrupted him: Sir you are mistaken in this matter; our ancestors did not come here on account of their religion, but to fish and trade.

MEDITATIONS ON DEATH AND ETERNITY,

TRANSLATED FROM THE GERMAN OF ZSCHOKKE.

The circumstances under which this volume has been produced are very peculiar and interesting. It was a favorite book with Prince Albert, and he was constantly in the habit of having the "Meditations" read to him. After his death the Queen found much comfort in their perusal, and employed Miss Rowan to translate them, for private circulation among her own immediate family. The volume is now reprinted in America, where so many afflicted hearts are in deep and overwhelming sorrow, and need consolation.

NEWBURYPORT POUDRETTE.

An article so well known as POUDRETTE may need no remarks to show its superiority to any other Fertilizer. The basis of this Fertilizer is Night Soil, obtained in Newburyport, from deep vaults—the accumulation in many cases of many years—so that it is highly concentrated. By mechanical means it is rendered very fine and dry, so that no inconvenience can result from its use.

It is very useful in starting the young plants, being just warm enough to forward them, without burning it. It makes the plant more thrifty, and consequently the crop is greater; this is especially true of corn and garden vegetables.

It contains no noxious seeds, nor of insects, which are almost always found in barnyard manure. Insects will not remain in the same hill with Poudrette. The experiment cannot fail to recommend it. One barrel of Poudrette being equal to a load of barnyard manure.

From the success met with last season, the subscriber flatters himself that he can manufacture an article superior to any in the market.

I shall use as my trade mark the brand, "ESSEX MILLS, POUDRETTE, Newburyport, Ms." All persons should see for themselves that they get the genuine and no other, as every barrel will be branded as above.

HIRAM LITTLEFIELD,

(late NOYES & LITTLEFIELD,)

Newburyport, Mass.

Certificates.

I have received certificates of its value, a few of which are here inserted.

ALFRED, Me., Dec. 29, 1862.

Messrs. NOYES & LITTLEFIELD:—

Gents,—Last Spring I obtained of Wm. H. Conant, one barrel of your Poudrette as an experiment, with but little faith in its utility. When I opened it I was fairly sick of it, saying to myself it looks more like loam than any thing else, and is good for nothing; but how mistaken I was, for where I used it I think I got from one-third to one-half more corn than where I used barn yard manure only, the corn being heavier and the ears more matured by a week or ten days earlier. I think it is just the thing for raising corn in this country. Sometimes a whole crop of corn might be saved by its use.

Yours, truly, WILLIAM JEWETT.

Extract of a letter of P. H. Falls.

SALMON FALLS, N. H., Sept. 28, 1862.

I received the Poudrette and used it nearly all on my piece; there were a number of farmers that tried it, and some were doubtful about its use at, thought it was a new thing and a humbug, and did not take any. I used it myself and think it as good as any Poudrette I have used before. Another year I shall use it more extensively,—also my neighbors will want considerable about here.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., January, 1863.

This may certify that we have used the last season, Noyes & Littlefield's Poudrette, and find it superior to any we ever used before, and would recommend it to the public generally.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive testimonials, I would ask confidence which will be accorded in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

RECEPTION OF GEN. WHIPPLE'S BODY.

It is expected that the remains of the late Gen. A. W. Whipple, who died from wounds received at Chancellorsville, will arrive in this city this afternoon. Intelligence was received here on Friday afternoon that the body was then in New York City, and, accompanied by four members of Gen. Whipple's late staff, would be taken by the Fall River boat on the same evening to Boston. It will be received at the depot, on the arrival of the afternoon train from Boston, by the City Authorities, and conducted by them to the tomb in the Auburn street Cemetery.

The escort will consist of the National Guard, under command of Col. A. J. Beck; a detachment of the Second N. H. Regiment, from Fort Constitution, under Capt. Sayles; and a detachment of Marines from the Portsmouth Navy Yard,—the Portsmouth Cornet Band furnishing the music.

The line will be formed on Market Square at half past four o'clock, with the right resting on Piscataqua Bank. The citizens generally are invited to join the City Government in the procession. Capt. W. O. Sides will act as Chief Marshal.

The bells will toll one hour, commencing at half past five o'clock, and the flags will be displayed at half mast during the remainder of the day. The citizens are requested to close their stores during the movements of the procession. PER ORDER.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, on Thursday evening, the petition of J. E. Ham and others for a walk across Water street, at the foot of Pleasant street, was referred to the Committee on Streets.

An application from Eben. Haines to have sidewalks in Cass street and Penhallow street relaid, and an application from Joseph D. Pillow to have sidewalk relaid on Islington Street, were referred to Committee on Streets with power to act.

An ordinance relative to the assessment and collection of taxes, and an ordinance for the protection of shade trees, were read and referred to the Committee on bills on their second reading.

The Committee to whom was referred the petition of the Selectmen of Newcastle relative to annexing that town to this city, reported the result of an interview with the Selectmen of Newcastle, stating in particular some of the advantages which they anticipated would result to their own town from the annexation.

☞ The captain and crew of the schooner "Union Flag"—which brought a cargo of lumber to the Portsmouth Navy Yard, and is now discharging—are not allowed to set foot on the yard on account of their secesh proclivities. The vessel arrived about the time the great battle between Hooker and Lee was going on; and in speaking of it some one of the crew remarked that he hoped Lee would succeed in whipping Joe Hooker's army so completely that he never would rally, or something to that effect. The rest of the crew expressed similar sentiments, which warranted the officers of the Yard in prohibiting the traitors from polluting the soil of the Navy Yard. Accordingly, two watchmen are stationed on the wharf to execute the order. We believe that they should be sent "beyond our lines."

☞ After the members of the City Government were notified, on Friday evening, to meet this morning, a dispatch was received stating that Gen. Whipple's remains would not reach this city until this afternoon; and we have been requested to notify the City Authorities to meet at the City Rooms this afternoon at half-past 4 o'clock, instead of at 10 A. M., as previously directed.

☞ It is reported that the sailing line-of-battle ships of the Navy are to be examined, and the sound ones be converted into steamers. Among those on the stocks is the Alabama at the Portsmouth Navy Yard; but it is not probable that she will ever be "converted into a steamer." She ought to be broken up, as Senator Hale labored to have done during the last session of Congress.

☞ We regret to learn that Conductor Noyes, of the Concord Railroad, is still suffering from that jam he got between two cars, at Newmarket Junction, four years ago, and has been obliged to lay off duty for a couple of weeks—and Jones, of the C. & P. Road, has been trying to fill his place, meantime; and no doubt he is big enough to do it—and in fact, a correspondent of the Manchester Mirror says "everything goes on smooth as—as water."

☞ Br. Whittem, of the Ballot, says we of this Chronicle think it strange that he, said W., can't digest our jokes. We never said so, at any rate,—or intimated that we expected he could appreciate a joke at his own expense; nor, of all things, did we look to such unfortunates as he, for an explanation of a pun whose end, "where the joke comes in," is matrimony: Court, courting, court-"ed."

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

EYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1863.

I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and had previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had supplied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

Read the following recommendation from the Cashier of the Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H.

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipiscogee, Nov. 10, 1862.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS.:—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an increased quantity this next Spring. Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crops. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, Respectfully,
ABEL HALEY,
Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro, N. H

ODD FISHING.—An army correspondent of the Cape Ann Light, writes as follows from camp Dale, Carolina City, N. C.:—

"It would amuse our fishermen some to see the style of fishing here. The men wade into the water, taking their boats with them, one man remaining in the boat to throw out the net. They usually fish where the water is three feet deep. After the net is set, they beat the water with poles to drive the fish into the net. Huge porpoises are rolling about among the men and boats, and it is amusing to see them head off a porpoise, who is making for their net, by beating him with a pole; they waddle after him like a woman driving a cow out of a patch of tall grass."

Navy Tobacco.

We would invite the attention of dealers to the above Tobacco made by us. It is warranted to be of better quality than any in the market and as good as the best from Virginia. Those desired to encourage HOME MANUFACTURES, and suffer want of good Tobacco in place of the very inferior quality with which the market is flooded, can obtain it in any quantity for trial.

THE MODEL COOK
FOR WOOD OR COAL

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven for baking; giving an oven nearly 3 feet long; or large enough to bake six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would, especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plumber, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the exception top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as testified to by families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This may be done away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as in solutions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a spoon, as when finished it has a work polish, and can be polished.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon this BASE, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently it is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no crevices for food or gum joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept sweet and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same fit (in blocks) that this would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, $5. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

THE BATTLE OF BLENHEIM.

It was a summer evening—
Old Kaspar's work was done,
And he, before his cottage door
Was sitting in the sun;
And by him sported on the green,
His little grandchild, Wilhelmine.

She saw her brother Peterkin
Roll something large and round,
Which he beside the rivulet,
In playing there had found;
And came to ask what he had found,
That was so large and smooth and round.

Old Kaspar took it from the boy,
Who stood expectant by;
And then the old man shook his head,
And, with a natural sigh—
"This some poor fellow's skull," said he,
"Who fell in the great victory."

"I find them in the garden,
For there's many hereabout;
And often when I go to plough,
The ploughshare turns them out.
For many thousand men," said he,
"Were slain in the great victory."

"Now tell us what 'twas all about,"
Young Peterkin he cries;
And little Wilhelmine looks up
With wonder-waiting eyes—
"Now tell us all about the war,
"And what they fought each other for."

"It was the English," Kaspar cried,
"Who put the French to rout;
But what they fought each other for
I could not well make out;
But everybody said," quoth he,
"That 'twas a famous victory."

"My father lived at Blenheim then,
Yon little stream hard by;
They burned his dwelling to the ground,
And he was forced to fly;
So with his wife and child he fled,
Nor had he where to lay his head.

With fire and sword the country round
Was wasted far and wide;
And many a childing mother there,
And newborn baby died;
But things like these, you know, must be
At every famous victory.

They say it was a shocking sight
After the field was won—
For many thousand bodies here
Lay rotting in the sun;
But things like these, you know, must be
At every famous victory.

Great praise the Duke of Marlboro' won,
And our good Prince Eugene,"
"Why 'twas a very wicked thing!"
Said little Wilhelmine.
"Nay, nay, my little girl," quoth he,
"It was a famous victory."

"And everybody praised the Duke,
Who this great fight did win."
"But what good came of it at last?"
Quoth little Peterkin.
"Why that I cannot tell," said he,
"But 'twas a famous victory."

MONDAY, MAY 18, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

A Louisville dispatch says Morgan's proposed raid into Kentucky has been defeated by the forces of Col. Boyle and Holman and the 20th Michigan regiment under Col. Jacobs at the Narrows.

Gen. Grant states that Port Hudson is undoubtedly evacuated except by a small garrison and their heavy artillery, which does not seem to be much of an evacuation after all. The Cairo dispatch of the 13th, and the Jackson, Miss., (rebel) dispatch of the 6th, were positively untrue—the former having represented that Gen. Grant had beaten Bowen's rebel army on the 6th inst., and the latter that Bowen's had repulsed him on the 4th.

1000 of Gen. Grant's cavalry entered and burned Crystal Spring, Miss., on the New Orleans R. R., on the 11th.

Gen. Burnside was not in Washington on Thursday.

Richmond papers of the 14th, contain a Charleston dispatch of the 12th which states that the Federals are unusually active and have built formidable batteries on Folly Island, bearing on the extremity of Morris Island. Several Yankee regiments are fortifying Seabrook Island. Five ironclads and a number of transports are at North Edisto. Several steamers have arrived from Nassau, and several that are due, are missing.

Gen. Kelly telegraphs from Grafton, Western Virginia, that the rebels have left the line of the Parkersburg road and retreated South.

The N. Y. World's dispatch says Hooker is to retain command of the army, and will make an advance maided by Gen. Halleck. Gen. Hooker has issued a general order, paying a handsome yet deserved tribute to the troops of his army, whose term of service has expired.

The Richmond Enquirer reports our troops to be throwing up entrenchments at West Point, from the Mattapony to the Pamunkey rivers.

Latest rebel advices make no mention of the reported defeat of Gen. Banks, and the whole story was probably false.

By Telegraph, Sunday, to Messrs. Hutchings, Tilley, and others.

Information just received by the Commissioner for the exchange of prisoners, shows that the whole number of our officers and men taken at Fredericksburg will not exceed 4500.

The Richmond Enquirer, 15th, says that fighting was going on in Mississippi. The Federals on the 14th advanced 1000 strong on Raymond, where Gen. Gregg had 4100 infantry and some cavalry. Skirmishing commenced at 9 A. M. The Federals were continually reinforced until 1 P. M., when the rebels opened the battle heavily with musketry. Knowing that the Federals had been heavily reinforced and that they were ready to engage them in full force, the rebels retired through Raymond, making a stand at Mississippi Springs, where they had reinforcements. The firing on Thursday was heavy, and was continued towards Jackson.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 15th says:—

There is evidently to be an active summer campaign. The plan of the Federals seems to be to keep our attention continually excited at every point, so that no part of our frontier shall be free from the immediate urgent apprehension of an attack. Then they can strike where they think our line is weakest, and where our defences are least prepared for them. It is hard to say at what point the Federals are most active just now. If we look south-west, it would seem that the state of Mississippi is to be the region of the most extensive operations. Immense armies are gathering around Vicksburg. At the same instant Charleston is threatened by the energetic preparations for another attack by land and naval forces. Burnside threatens East Tennessee, while Hooker, largely reinforced, is expected to re-cross the Rappahannock.—The death of Stonewall Jackson is worse for the Confederates than the loss of the whole army under Hooker would be for the Federals!

☞ Gov. Seymour wrote a letter to the Democratic indignation meeting at Albany on Saturday evening, in which he condemned the arrest of Vallandigham in unstinted terms. The meeting was large, and decided in the expression of its feelings.

"If a man speaks or writes against our Confederate cause, he is branded and expelled as a traitor or public enemy."—Mobile Register.

"We manage these things differently up this way. The bitterest and most insidious defamers of the war for the Union are made Governors; the next worst are sent to Congress.—N. Y. Tribune.

☞ Private advices state that the ironclad vessels of the South Atlantic fleet were on the 10th inst. thoroughly repaired. The armor on the hull and turrets is now perfect. It was generally believed that the 15-inch guns would be replaced by others of smaller bore.

STONEWALL JACKSON.—A Richmond paper, in an account of the death of Jackson, says Jackson was struck by three balls in the left arm and hand. This occurred after dark on Saturday evening. He had given orders to fire at anything coming up the road. Before he left the lines Federal skirmishers approached ahead of him and he turned to ride back. Just then some one cried "cavalry charge," when the rebel regiment fired and wounded him as above. The funeral was a most tumultuous outburst of mourning. The body lay in state at the Capitol until the morning of the 13th, when it was sent to Lexington. A statue of Jackson is to be erected in the capitol.

☞ Last Wednesday, at noon, the Burnside Rifles at Camp Sprague, Staten Island, were making preparations to leave in a body, when Col. Levy, in command there, called out a strong guard to defend the entrance through which the mutineers were determined to pass. They came on, armed with clubs, stones, spades, and pickaxes, and when Col. Levy, pistol in hand, commanded them to return to their duty, he was met with a yell of defiance and hit by a stone hurled by one of the party. He throttled the assailant and the mutineers endeavored to escape in another direction, when a fight ensued, in which one man was killed and others wounded. Twenty-eight of the mutineers escaped, but were afterward captured, and taken in irons to Governor's Island.

☞ A Charleston despatch, 12th, says the steamer Britain, with merchandise, had arrived through the blockade. She started from Nassau on Thursday in company with the steamer Horseman, which had not yet been heard from. The steamer Pet from Wilmington had arrived at Nassau. The steamers Calypso and Antonica were also there, about to sail. A dispatch from Wilmington, 13th, says, the steamers Basha and Pet arrived that morning from Nassau.

☞ The ship Mermaid, with a cargo of teas from China, which it was feared had been captured by the English pirate Alabama, arrived safely at New York on Saturday. Capt. Meacon, her late commander, died at sea on the 2nd inst.

EXTRA GENERALS.—Gen. McClellan is reported as having recently sent to the President a request that he be either assigned to duty or mustered out of the service. This request does him honor. There are now quite a number of Major-Generals standing idle—Fremont, Butler, Sigel, McClellan, and others—who are costing the nation quite a sum which they do not earn—and it is no fault of theirs. It is not their choice to eat the bread of idleness, however well buttered; and they should either be set to work or sent about their private business. We beg the President to take early action in the premises, so that those he does not want as Major Generals may be at liberty to enter the service afresh as Colonels or Captains should they see fit. Any of these Major Generals could raise a picked regiment of veterans if he saw fit, and some of them might see fit. At all events, give them work or leave them free to find work for themselves.—N. Y. Tribune.

ASCENSION DAY.—On the morning of "Ascension Day," the 13th inst., a service of peculiar interest was held in Trinity Church, New York. The array of surpliced clergy and choristers in the chancel, was most imposing. The chants, anthems, &c., were sung by the united choirs of Trinity and St. George. The vocal parts were apportioned as follows:—38 sopranos, 8 altos, 8 tenors and 12 basses; the most imposing choir of male voices ever assembled in this country. The day was also celebrated as the 17th anniversary of the consecration of the church.—Trav.

☞ A few days ago a number of slaves belonging to John Minor Botts came within our lines at Union Mills. Mr. Botts requested the commander of the post to return them to him as he was a loyal man. The commander immediately telegraphed to Gen. Heintzelman to know what course to pursue. Col. Lathrop of the General's staff replied that they were free the moment they entered our lines and could not be remanded to slavery.

It was cold enough here on Friday for snow, but none came. In the country, however, there was quite a snow storm.—At Skowhegan, Conductor Mitchel informs us, three or four inches had fallen by nine o'clock, and in Oxford County, we learn, there was also a fall of several inches.—Portland Argus.

☞ The New York Tribune prays the President to pardon Mr. Vallandigham.—The Evening Post advises the same thing.

The Newburyport Herald considers Gen. Stoneman a sort of Moses. He was permitted to view the coveted land, but not to enter in. But who is the Joshua? That is what we would like to know.—Portland Advertiser.

HIGH PRICE FOR CHAIRS.—Two ivory inlaid chairs, captured by Warren Hastings, from the palace of an Indian Prince, were recently sold at auction in England for $2050.

☞ The legal rate of interest in Kansas is now 12 per cent. Hereafter, 12 per cent. will only be allowed on "written contracts."

☞ The writ of Habeas Corpus in the Vallandigham case has been refused.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Peterborough Transcript states that a business man in that town having a note due at one of the principal banks in Boston, enclosed the amount ($211.00) in a letter, directed to the cashier, and mailed it Dec. 17, 1862. Neither the money nor letter having been received, efforts were made to detect the thief. Special mail agent Ordway, the Boston Postmaster, the bank officers and the sender of the money, were all engaged in the pursuit. A correct memorandum of all the bills sent had been taken, and the name of the person sending written across the back of the larger bills. But no success attended their efforts. The bills nor the thieves made their appearance, and all parties seemed to regard it as certain that the money was lost, and thief safe from detection, when by the mail of March 28, 1863, just one hundred and one days from the time the letter was mailed, a letter from Boston brought the three identical bills, one $100 and two $50 bills sent and the balance in different bills. The name and date had been skilfully erased from the back of the large bills. But no success attended their efforts. The bills nor the thieves made their appearance, and all parties seemed to regard it as certain that the money was lost, and thief safe from detection, when by the mail of March 28, 1863, just one hundred and one days from the time the letter was mailed, a letter from Boston brought the three identical bills, one $100 and two $50 bills sent and the balance in different bills. The name and date had been skilfully erased from the back of the large bills.

—— The Dover Gazette states that arrangements have been entered into with the Eastern Railroad to lease the Dover and Winnipiseogee railroad at 6 per cent. on the bonds. An application is to be made to the next Legislature for a charter for a road from Dover to Portsmouth, to be leased at six per cent. by the Eastern Railroad.

—— The Statesman says an aged citizen of Concord died within two years, leaving a clear property of between 60 and $100,000, who began life with "the clothes upon his back, a jackknife and a pistareen (20 cents) in his pocket." His first work was as a laborer on the Londonderry Turnpike. He never held an office that could be called lucrative, and had a family as early in life as most other men; but accumulation became his chief object and study, which was unremittingly pursued until the end of his days.

—— Lt. Col. S. G. Langley, late of the 5th regiment, and H. S. M. Farnum, formerly of Contoocookville, have leased the fine establishment recently occupied by Senator Trumbull, near the Patent Office in Washington, and are about opening a first-class eating-house. They have called it the Waverly House.

—— A silly young woman in Hampstead has written a threatening letter, anonymously, to Gen. Butler. She had previously written one to President Lincoln.—A short time ago she was declaring she would kill Jeff. Davis.

—— New Hampshire is getting to be a great State. At the depot in Dover, on Tuesday, a small "mill" took place between two "ladies," one round, one knock-down, much hair pulled, no blood drawn, fierce looks and vigorous talk.

—— Ex-Lieutenant E. M. Emerson, of Nashua, has been appointed Commissary of Subsistence, with the rank of Captain, and ordered to report at once to Gen. Banks at New Orleans.

—— They fired a salute and rang the bells in Claremont on Sunday, 10th inst., in the belief that Richmond was taken.

—— Rev. Mr. Banks of St. Luke's Church in Nashua, has accepted a call to settle over a society in Norwich, Conn.

—— A correspondent of the Concord Statesman thus explains the mystery connected with the chimney in the parsonage at Boscawen:—

The house in Boscawen, in which it is supposed counterfeit coin was manufactured, was built about 1795 to 1798, by David Burbank, a blacksmith. In 1840 the property passed into the hands of Jeremiah Gerrish, who occupied it until his death—about 1846, when, by his will, it passed into the possession of the religious society for a parsonage. Either of its preceding occupants would no sooner have been guilty of counterfeiting than the clergyman who occupied it after it became the parsonage. Mr. Gerrish was a blacksmith; but being in very easy circumstances, he gave up that business, and went into that of cleaning watches, and performing other little jobs, such as repairing guns, &c. Possibly he had a furnace in that place for fusing silver. That was before the days of iron safes, and it is said he had a fire-proof one in his chimney, where not only himself, but sometimes his neighbors deposited articles of value when about to journey. It is altogether probable, as he was a man of property, and his wealth consisted mostly in money and stocks, that that was the place in which he kept his effects safe from robbers and fire.

☞ The New York Historical Society will celebrate on Wednesday next the 200th birthday of Wm. Bradford, who introduced the art of printing into the American colonies. The tomb erected to his memory is to be restored by Trinity Church Corporation, and a special service is to be held on the occasion.

☞ Col. Davis, so often mentioned in the history of Stoneman's foray, is a son of "Honest John Davis," the former distinguished Massachusetts Senator. He graduated at Williams College, in 1845, and subsequently studied for the ministry, and was settled over the Unitarian parish at Watertown, Mass. Leaving the pulpit he became a lawyer, and moved to Chicago, when he was made Lt. Col. of the 12th Illinois Cavalry, and entered the service last year. He is a man of fine personal appearance, large form, is always in earnest, and is as "honest" with his sword as his revered father was in politics.

☞ H. R. Helper, author of the "Impending Crisis," and U. S. Consul at Buenos Ayres, has married a Portuguese lady, Miss Mary Rodriguez, who is said to be beautiful, accomplished and rich. She was educated in New York.

NEWBURYPORT POUDRETTE.

An article so well known as POUDRETTE may need no remarks to show its superiority to any other Fertilizer. The basis of this Fertilizer is Night Soil, obtained in Newburyport, from deep vaults—the accumulation in many cases of many years—so that it is highly concentrated. By mechanical means it is rendered very fine and dry, so that no inconvenience can result from its use.

It is very useful in starting the young plants, being just warm enough to sprout the seed without burning it. It makes the plant more thrifty, and consequently the fruit greater; this is especially true of corn and garden vegetables.

It contains no noxious weeds or larvæ of insects, which are almost always found in barnyard manure. Insects will not remain in the same hill with Poudrette. Its cheapness cannot fail to recommend it. One barrel of Poudrette being equal to a load of barnyard manure.

From the success met with last season, the subscriber flatters himself that he can manufacture an article superior to any in the market.

I shall use as my trade mark the brand, "ESSEX MILLS, POUDRETTE, Newburyport, Ms." All persons should see for themselves that they get the genuine and no other, as every barrel will be branded as above.

HIRAM LITTLEFIELD,
(late NOYES & LITTLEFIELD,)
Newburyport, Mass.

Certificates.

I have received certificates of its value, a few of which are here inserted.

ALFRED, Me., Dec. 29, 1862.

Messrs. NOYES & LITTLEFIELD:—

Gents,—Last Spring I obtained of Wm. H. Conant, one barrel of your Poudrette as an experiment, with but little faith in its utility. When I opened it I was fairly sick of it, saying to myself it looks more like Poudrette than any thing else, and is good for nothing; but how mistaken I was, for where I used it I think I got from one-third to one-half more corn than where I used barn yard maunre only, the corn being heavier and was ripe two weeks earlier. I think it is just the thing for raising corn in this country. Sometimes a whole crop of corn might be saved by its use.

Yours, truly, WILLIAM JEWETT.

Extract of a letter of P. H. Falls.

SALMON FALLS, N. H., Sept. 28, 1862.

I received the Poudrette and used it nearly all on my place; there were a number of farmers that intended to have some, but were afraid to use it, thought it was a new thing and a humbug, and did not take any. I used it myself and think it is as good as any Poudrette I have used before. Another year I shall use it more extensively.—also my neighbors will want considerable about here.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., January, 1863.

This may certify that we have used the last season, Noyes & Littlefield's Poudrette, and find it superior to any we ever used before, and would recommend it to the public generally.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. RECEPTION OF GEN. WHIPPLE'S BODY.—The public ceremonies on Saturday evening at the reception of the remains of Gen. A. W. Whipple were conducted substantially as announced in our paper of that morning. The military escort consisted of a platoon of Company C, Governor's Horse Guards, Lieut. A. L. Bennett; the National Guard, Capt. A. J. Beck; a detachment of the 2d N. H. Regiment, under Capt. Sayles; and a detachment of U. S. Marines from the Portsmouth Navy Yard, under Capt. Reynolds.

These companies, with members of the City Government and a large number of citizens, made a procession of considerable length; which, forming on Market Square, proceeded to the depot on the arrival of the train, and received the body. The coffin was placed in the hearse, which was simply and tastefully decorated with the national red, white and blue. In the carriages rode the four members of Gen. Whipple's staff who accompanied the remains to this city; Ex-Gov. Goodwin; and the following officers of the U. S. Navy in full uniform—Rear Admiral Storer, Com. Pearson, Surgeon Delaney, Chaplain Wood, Lieut. Col. Marston, Lieut. J. M. Bradford, and perhaps one or two others. Six officers of the Volunteer Army acted as pall bearers. The music was furnished by the Portsmouth Cornet Band.

The military portion of the display was very fine, and much credit attaches itself to those in command. The flags were everywhere displayed at half-mast; the bells were tolled for one hour; places of business were closed; and our citizens, generally, united in paying the last sad tokens of respect to the memory of a faithful and patriotic soldier, who had laid down his life in the performance of his duty to his country.

☞ A communication, which appeared in the Chronicle on Saturday morning, reflected in general terms upon the captain and crew of the schooner "Union Flag," now discharging at the Portsmouth Navy Yard. The captain of the schooner has called upon us, naturally feeling aggrieved by such reflections upon himself. He asserts that he is now and has always been a truly Union man; he has long been employed by the U. S. authorities, and never before have any imputations been cast upon him for lack of loyalty to the government, under whose flag he sails. We desire to bring no man unjustly under the suspicion of disloyalty, especially at such a time as this, and most willingly do we give the Captain an opportunity to make this public denial of the statements of our correspondent, so far as they related to himself personally. He admitts that some one of the men did make some objectionable remarks; just what they were he is unable to state, as the remarks were made while he was away from his vessel. But whatever the remarks may have been, he feels that he should, in no wise, be held responsible for them.

☞ It has been stated in the city newspapers that Mrs. Mary Rider, of Portsmouth, lately deceased, bequeathed to St. John's Church, one thousand dollars. This amount was bequeathed in trust, to be permanently invested, and the annual income of the same to be paid by the church for the following objects named in her will:—

Towards the salary of the Bishop of the P. E. Church in New Hampshire,	$10
For the poor of said Church,	30
For support of Domestic Missions,	6
For the benefit of the Bible Society,	6
For support of destitute ministers of the P.E. Church in New Hampshire,	6
For support of Foreign Missions,	6
For support of destitute parishes in the diocese of New Hampshire,	6
Yearly,	$60

Communication.

Allow me to call the attention of the citizens of Portsmouth who feel an interest in its general welfare, to the lot of ground adjoining the Court House, which for twenty-five years previous to the last two, has been occupied as a play ground for the school kept in the basement.

This good playground was in part an offset for the inconvenience of the room; but lately a committee of three from the city council have selected the upper part of the lot as the site of a building for a Hook and Ladder House, with a stable to be attached to the same, sufficiently large so as to fill the square on the eastern side, within twelve or fifteen feet, shading and dampening the school room, so that it will have to be abandoned at once, thus causing the expense of erecting a new school house to fill its place.

Besides shading the court room, it will also shade several of its neighbors, causing a general reduction in the value of the property in that neighborhood.

But above all other reasons why it should not be located there, is the great value of the lot for city buildings, hall, court room, &c., with a prospect of opening a road across the mill pond at some future time.

TAX PAYER.

☞ A movement is on foot in Great Britain for the fusion of Congregationalists, Baptists and Presbyterians into one denomination, and many leading men of the three denominations, among them Spurgeon, are in favor of the movement.

[Communication.]

A DIFFERENCE.—"It makes a great deal of difference whose ox does the goring," as was truly remarked, the other day, in speaking of a mob of Mr. Vallandigham's friends who burnt a printing office and set the town of Dayton on fire. If we would but let our self love guide and rule our action toward our neighbors,—and if they would but do the same toward us, on the large scale,—there could be no mobs, no treason, no rebellion, no war, no slavery. All those bad fruits grow on the corrupt tree of selfishness, breaking the tenth command, and contradicting the gospel.

There is, however, as great a difference in the character of mobs, as in that of human laws and governments. A mob in Boston destroyed the tea, in the revolution, —a mob in London punished Haynau the woman-whipper,—and a mob in San Francisco sustained the Vigilance Committee, and hung some scoundrels who were too big or too crafty for the courts to handle! No man in his senses would set these mobs down in the same condemnation with the Baltimore mob of 50 years ago, with the other Baltimore mob that destroyed Reverdy Johnson's property, or with the Boston mob that abused the Irish in Broad street.

The persons and presses that now make the loudest outcry because disloyal papers and speakers are mobbed and suppressed, are in many cases the same that used to chuckle over the mobbing of Thompson, Garrison, Lovejoy and Sumner. One of these papers says, "we cannot forbear the remark that this mobbing of newspapers is a thing of Republican origin!" On which Uncle Toby remarked, as he put in the admiration point, that the poor man could not forbear telling a falsehood,—for Lovejoy was shot at Alton, Illinois, and his newspaper office destroyed, by a mob, not of Republicans surely, as there was no such party then, nor for a number of years after. The Alton mob was composed in part of slave traders and hunters from another State, and partly of their tools in Illinois. Similar mobs destroyed other presses near the same time: and mobs in at least a hundred places, assailed anti-slavery speakers, drove away audiences, and closed halls against them by frightening owners with threats to destroy buildings by mobs.

The Mob Ox was a very fine animal, gored beautifully, made havoc among the abolitionists, and delighted the Five Pointers. He was not a republican beast, but was the peculiar pet of the unterrified, and was fed by them at the public crib.

Now the scene changes, and the Mob Ox occasionally "pitches into" his old friends and drivers—they are indignant—and the conservatives say it makes some difference whose Ox it is that gores. So it does, says Uncle T.—and these new victims make a great ado about it. U. T.

Some of the rebels made prisoners by Gen. Hooker's army are in good condition, certainly well clothed, and seemingly well fed; while others present a shabby appearance. This is what might have been expected, and is what is seen in any army been long in service. We may be sure, too that the Southern soldiery will be fed and clothed so long as food and clothing can be obtained for them, while the people may be suffering from hunger and cold. Men with arms in their hands can get what they need, if it is obtainable; and the Confederate government is a despotism, and helps itself to everything that power can place at the command of men who are totally without the sense of responsibility.—Trav.

MAKE A BEGINNING—Remember in all things, that if you do not begin, you will never come to an end. The first weed pulled up in the garden, the first seed set in the ground, the first shilling put in the savings bank, and the first mile travelled on a journey are all important things; they make a beginning and thereby a hope, a promise, a pledge, an assurance that you are in earnest with what you have undertaken. How many a poor, idle, erring, hesitating outcast is now creeping and crawling his way through the world, who might have held up his head and prospered, if, instead of putting off his resolutions of industry and amendment, he had only made a beginning.

MEDITATIONS OR
DEATH AND ETERNITY,

TRANSLATED FROM THE GERMAN OF ESCHOKKE.

The circumstances under which this volume has been produced are very peculiar and interesting. It was a favorite book with Prince Albert, and he was constantly in the habit of having the "Meditations" read to him. After his death the Queen found much comfort in their perusal, and employed Miss Rowan to translate them, for private circulation among her own immediate family. The volume is now reprinted in America, where so many afflicted hearts are in deep and overwhelming sorrow, and need consolation.

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipisseogee, Nov. 10, 1862.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS.—I have used The Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an increased quantity the next Spring. Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crops. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, Respectfully,
ABEL HALEY,
Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. A single draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper boiler for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly come into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of its kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would call the time about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objection aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing little advantage over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of fresh air through the Air Chamber, which fills them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 25 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Gill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber.

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building on the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easily as any other, when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages. It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the tender parts of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertions or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the articles are made much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth until I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $50.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the ablest Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and finish, the best manufacturer in the country, for less money.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. HARVEY, for particulars in relation to inserting Teeth. Teeth extracted or inserted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Reputation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

Daily Morning Chronicle

VOL. 22. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. TUESDAY MAY 19, 1863. NO. 77.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every lim fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

FOR THE UNION.

The New York Journal of Commerce, commenting on the recent failure on the Rappahannock, and on the effect which that event should have on the progress of the war, says that some persons seem driven to despair by this misfortune, and already begin to whisper about "settling the matter and dividing the Union." Upon this point the Journal says:

"We protest against all such suggestions. We call on conservative men in all parts of the land to raise their voices now against every proposal for peace and disunion. It is the time when lofty patriotism demands the greatest sacrifices; when the American heart must be roused to the noblest actions. We know that the future is dark with the leadership which we have, and must have; but we know that the true, the only principle of action now is firm, unwavering support of the Constitution, and the constitutional authorities; and if the people speak out in their might to-day, their voice will be heard, and the war will yet be made to result in the overthrow of rebellion, while the peaceful contents of the ballot-box will result in the everlasting demolition of the radicalism which has plunged us into this new abyss of sorrow. Every energy must now be strengthened and exerted. What will you do if you think of disunion? Do you know what will become of Missouri, of brave, noble, faithful old Kentucky, of Maryland, of Washington itself? If you could do nothing more than stand on the defensive and hold your lines from the Atlantic to the Pacific against the hosts of our enemies for two years, until we can place a stronger Administration in power, you must do that. But you can do more than that. It is not a party war, it is not a radical war, it is not an abolition war, strong as the efforts have been, of the radical party to make it such. It is your country's war, and the peace to be won is a Union peace. That and that alone must be the aim, the desire, the vow of every true man."

A HEART THAT CAN FEEL FOR ANOTHER.—"I give and bequeath to Mary, my wife, the sum of one hundred pounds a year," said an old farmer. "Is that written down, master?"

"Yes," replied the lawyer; "but she is not so old; she may marry again. Won't you make any change in that case? Most people do."

"Do, do they?" said the farmer; "well, write again; and say, and if my wife marries again, I will give and bequeath to her the sum of two hundred pounds a year. That'll do, wont it, master?"

"Why, it's double the sum she would have if she remained unmarried," said the lawyer; "it is generally the other way—the legacy is lessened if the widow marries again."

"Ay," said the farmer, "but him as gets her'll deserve it."

Seth Luther is dead, at the age of about seventy years. He was a noted agitator; and in any country where the masses are miserable he would have been a formidable personage; but in America men can't afford to follow agitation as a business, or to have agitators for leaders. The last time we saw Mr. Luther, he was without a shirt, and in so far resembled Solomon, Alexander the Great, Hannibal, Cicero, and Cæsar Augustus. He had not even that one shirt which the addition of eleven shirts converts into the regular decent dozen; and means were taken to put him once more en rapport with civilization. We believe that he was a well meaning man, and we know that he had talent,—whom constant disappointment had soured, turning his share of the milk of human kindness into very hard cheese. He died in an insane hospital; and for some time before he was sent to that asylum for the distressed his condition may best be described by the words in which Macaulay describes George Fox, when he says that his intellect was "in the most unhappy of all states, that is to say, too much disordered for liberty, and not sufficiently disordered for Bedlam." Such were the last days, and such was the end, of a man who, with an ounce of common sense, might have made a very distinguished figure, and died largely lamented.—Tran.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, MAY 19, 1863.

UNWARRANTED TAXATION.—The "ancient and time-honored commonwealth of Massachusetts" was formerly considered by the people of her sister states as one of eminent respectability and sound institutions. Of late the people have seemed to either ignore their great men, or else they do not find such within their borders.

This seems to be peculiarly the case with the legislature of the Bay State, which is generally noted for its long sessions, and its extravagant amount of useless legislation.—We remember that at one time during the past winter an attempt was made to interfere with the par value of certain manufacturing stocks, and some curious propositions were made by some distinguished member of that body relative to proxy voting in Corporations. Massachusetts corporations have generally been considered well managed concerns, about which the stockholders under the charters and reasonable laws of the commonwealth, knew full as much, and were as competent in the management, as any set of men that might possibly find themselves in the General Court. They have stood high in the estimation of capitalists and others out of that State, and the former stability of the laws of Massachusetts, of course, contributed in no small degree, to increase this confidence. Much capital has found its way into Massachusetts, and become invested in its Railroad, Bank and Manufacturing Corporations; while Massachusetts capital, in like manner, has found its way into other States, and sought new fields of enterprise and investment.

In these days, when the ties that bind States together in Union are strained to their utmost, we are surprised to find the law makers in Massachusetts pass such an impolitic measure as is the recent law taxing for the benefit of that State the dividend on stocks owned in the corporations of Massachusetts by persons residing in other States. Granting this measure to be perfectly legal and constitutional, its suicidal effect must at once be discovered, in the withdrawal by non residents of their investments in Massachusetts.

Our neighbor of the Journal hints that retaliatory measures may be enacted by our Legislature. We hope not. New Hampshire should ever be ready to foster and protect the capital of non-residents invested within her borders. Let us act in no sectional or selfish spirit, and seek to drive capital from our State, that would otherwise find location here. The people of Massachusetts, sooner or later, will see the folly of too much legislation, and will send better men to their General Court. The long winter sessions of that State provoke all the natural consequences of idleness, and but few such ridiculous laws as the one just passed, making all stockholders out of the State pay 6 2-3 per cent. of their dividends to support such a set of men as compose the Massachusetts Legislature, will be required to convince her people that a thorough reform is needed in her politics. In the meantime many nice legal questions must spring up before this law can be made to work harmoniously.

☞ The St. Christopher Gazette says that the pirate Retribution lately took a Federal vessel—the A. P. Ellicott—as a prize, put a prize crew on board, and ordered her to run the Charleston blockade. A mutiny broke out among the crew, who overpowered the officers and run the vessel off St. Thomas, when the U. S. steamer Alabama picked her up, put the crew in prison and gave back the Ellicott to her commander, who, with his crew, had been previously landed by the pirates at Dominica.

☞ The N. O. Era, 6th, gives the particulars of the burning of the sloop-of-war Preble at Pensacola on the 26th of April. The fire caught accidentally from an open light carried into the store-room. All hands were saved. The Preble, after burning a number of hours, blew up with a terrific explosion.

☞ A bridal party awaited the train at Elmira, N. Y., which would bring a returning regiment. The happy, richly dressed betrothed, was to marry the Colonel, but alas! he came a corpse. Her anguish may be imagined.

☞ It is said that the dying words of Stonewall Jackson were a request that Gen. Ewell might be assigned to the command of his troops.

☞ The Marshal of the District of Columbia has seized the real and personal estate of Captain J. N. Maffitt, commander of a rebel privateer, under the confiscation act. It is located in Washington.

☞ A Cincinnati dispatch says it is believed that Vallandigham left that city on Sunday night involuntarily—it was rumored for Fort Warren.

☞ The Holman Opera Troupe are playing an engagement of two weeks at the Tremont Theatre, Boston. They are well worth hearing.

THE REBELLION.

Alexandria, La., was captured on the 6th by Adms. Porter and Farragut. Prior to its capture, Fort De Russey, on Red river, was demolished after a fight, and a rebel gunboat captured; and after the capture the advance cavalry of Brig. General Dwight entered the place, thus forming a junction between Farragut's and General Banks's forces. Col. Grierson's raid was another brilliant cavalry achievement. He left Lagrange April 16th, burnt the rebel stores and railroad depot at Okolona, the depot and two heavily laden freight and commissary trains add an ordnance train at Newton, on the Charleston and Vicksburg Railroad. The ordnance train contained 3000 loaded shells for the Vicksburg batteries, which exploded terrifically. From Newton they followed the railroad to Meridian, burning all the bridges, thence south on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad to Enterprise, where they destroyed the rebel ordnance works. They went back to Newton, burning all the bridges from thence to Jackson, including the great bridge over Pearl river and near Jackson, and tore up two miles of the track. Thence they followed the Jackson and New Orleans Railroad south to Louisiana. A rebel force of 3000 men, at Clinton, was evaded by making a circuit around them, our forces destroying their camp equipage, stores, &c., and capturing 300 prisoners. Ten miles from Baton Rouge they captured a rebel cavalry picket of 160 men and horses. Every railroad in Mississippi has been cut by them. They have supplied themselves with fresh horses on the route, and brought in over 300 contrabands on horses, nearly all of the latter also leading horses.

Lt. Col. Davis' official report of his late cavalry raid towards Richmond, May 10th, states that they travelled a distance of over 200 miles, much of it through Southern lands never disturbed by the presence of an enemy. Our loss was 2 commissioned officers and 33 enlisted men. They brought in 100 mules and 75 horses captured from the enemy, and took in the course of the march a much larger number which could not be brought in. The amount of property destroyed is estimated at over a million of dollars.

Stuart is said to be for the present in command of Jackson's corps, which consists of four full divisions of 15,000 men each. During the night of the 14th inst., the enemy threw up new and extensive earthworks along the ridge of hills in the rear and to the left of Fredericksburg.

A company of U. S. cavalry was surprised and captured at Charlestown, Jefferson Co., Western Virginia, on Friday night. By orders from Gen. Schenck, Gen. Milroy sent out a force on the same night, who recaptured them and also 40 rebels with their horses.

Our Suffolk forces are tearing up the Seabrook and Roanoke Railroad between Cariville and the junction with the Petersburg railroad.

The N. Y. Tribune's dispatch says a movement is on foot in and out of the Cabinet for the appointment of Gen. Butler to the command of the Department of the West. It also says that the Provost Marshals have been directed to proceed forthwith with the draft, but it is supposed to be doubtful whether any can be made before the middle of July. Volunteers may be called for before that time.

The Charleston Mercury says the guns of the Keokuk, two long 11-inch Columbiads, have been raised and are now on South Commercial Wharf, in that city. A New York dispatch to the Boston Merchants' Exchange announces the arrival of the steamer Convoy from Port Royal, S. C., which reports, when passing Charleston harbor heard heavy firing, and supposed our iron clads were engaging the rebel batteries at Morris' Island.

A dispatch received in this city on Monday evening, states that a Mobile dispatch, of the 14th, says Jackson, Miss., is occupied by the Federal troops. The rebels fought hard all day, but could not hold the city.—Gen. Grant is evidently marching on, gloriously. Jackson is in the rear of Vicksburg, on the Mississippi Central Railroad.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

ABOUT BOURBON WHISKEY.—Our readers will notice the advertisement in today's paper headed "Wheat, Rye, Corn." The "Golden Sheaf Whiskey" is, without doubt, a reliable article, and we have no hesitation in recommending it to those who require a pure and nutritious stimulant for family and medicinal use. It is made from choice selected grain, in Bourbon County, Kentucky, and is supplied by the exclusive agent, C. A. Richards, Esq., 91 Washington st., Boston. Mr. Richards has had a large experience in the manufacture and sale of Bourbon Whiskey, and he stakes his reputation on the excellence and purity of the "Golden Sheaf Whiskey." It is put up in bottles, in a convenient and useful style, and purchasers will neither be deceived nor disappointed, should they try it. It has met with a large demand in Boston, where its merits have been tested by many chemists, and others of well known ability to judge.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

EDITORIAL JOTTINGS.

A ride to Manchester and Concord Friday evening; thence to Boston Saturday morning, and home same evening, gave about as much railroading as is enjoyable in twenty-four hours. Not much incident on the way. The country is beginning to look beautifully, and the scenery on the new part of the C. & P. route, along the Merrimack valley is diversified and very lovely.

At Manchester a fat old woman whom nobody knew, was struck by the corner of a baggage car and very severely bruised on the face and head. She saw the train and stepped back for it; but persons who were looking at her say that as it passed, she seemed momentarily overcome or bewildered, and fell against it. And those who have stood near a train as it rushed swiftly by, can readily understand her fatal confusion for the time.

The Union Fair closed on that evening, but we could not stop to see the complimentary invitation politely sent us. The Portsmouth City Government was represented in our train by a stirring young Democratic Alderman, who is "pushing his way through the world" by means of those first requisites of genius, indomitable perseverance and ceaseless industry, and who while never neglecting his own business, is always equally sure to attend to any public matter of business or pleasure which is allotted to him.

At Concord, the Horse Guards were convened in the nice spacious Armory of Company B, making arrangements for their coming June Parade, which will no doubt be the most extensive and imposing turnout they have yet made. Gov. Gilmore (like ex-Gov. Goodwin) has always displayed a commendable public spirit and liberality towards the Guards, as well as all other worthy State institutions, and they will "delight to honor" him at his inauguration. It is universally regretted that Gov. Goodwin's health would not admit of his accepting the Colonelcy of the Guards, whose organization he virtually accomplished. Lt. Col. Bellows will therefore be in command.

We also "found time" (as we have repeatedly before on similar occasions, and as any other man can—by going without supper,) to call on Mr. James R. Hill, the famous extensive harness maker, and look over his splendid new block, and his immense stock of goods, a little. Since the fire which burnt him out a couple of years ago, in his little unpretentious black wooden building, (but in which, nevertheless,—to give an idea of his stock, there was burnt, among other things, a pile of seven hundred horse collars,)—since that he has put up on the same site on Main street, two large, substantial and very handsome brick blocks, probably not excelled by any buildings in the State, except our splendid Portsmouth Post Office. In one are the new Post Office accommodations and several large stores, and the other is mostly occupied by himself. Mr. Hill has satisfactorily fulfilled several large contracts for State and Government work; and fills large orders for Australia, and also for California, our enterprising and successful townsmen, Main & Winchester, being dealers in his work there. And by the way, we scarcely ever talked with an extensive carriage or harness maker who did not have Australian orders. Mr. Hill is one of the smartest business men in the State or anywhere else, and can furnish any kind of good harness work in any quantity, at the shortest notice, and "J. R. Hill, maker, Concord, N. H.," is as good as Downing or Abbott on a wagon, or Hallet, Davis & Co. on a piano.

Then a chat with old Concord friends, before that great luxury, an open wood fire, at the Phenix Hotel, while they of the light fantastic toe tripped it overhead, till the staunch building shook and rattled again—till, till we went to bed and to sleep; till a rap at our door, a few minutes after, (seemingly) calls us to breakfast at five o'clock. Before train starting, we had a moment to look in at the window of our ever-cheerful old friend Plummer Whipple's ticket office, where he hauls in the money for his 163 different kinds of railroad tickets, with the air of a man who is conferring a favor—as indeed he is.

Then down that lovely valley again, amid the white frost and ice, and the mists rolling away on the wings of the morning, before the stranger sun, while we in the train also "rolled away," shivering, on our iron wheels, with steam for our steed—past sparkling streams, and foaming water falls, over picturesque bridges, among stump-studded or verdure-clad hills, through woods, or under shadow of mountains and crags—then along villages, hamlets, towns and cities—the entire ride to Boston was charming.

Four times we saw a crowd of people, in different places, in Boston. One was at a dry goods store, where the stock, damaged by fire, was "selling off," and policemen actually had to be employed to keep the ladies from going in too fast, and to make them go in at one door and out at another, while scores, if not hundreds, thronged the sidewalk, impatiently but persistently waiting their turn to make "bargains." Then at a toy-shop, where the patent walking-dolls were for sale, quite an animated group of the curious were gathered, to see the amusing clock-work motion of the dolls. A fellow in State street, who sold the flying tops almost as fast as he could spin them as high as the house-tops, for exhibition, kept almost as large and interested a crowd about him, as were gathered elsewhere on 'Change. But there is always fun alive at the Boston horse-auctions. Passing one of these marts at the South End, we saw animals of all sorts being knocked off—varying in price from ten dollars to ten hundred. Yes, we actually saw a handsome and fast bay horse sold for a round thousand; a black, family mare for $450, another for $270, and so on. And although it is very fashionable and very common to consider and call every man who sells horses—every "horse-jockey," a thief and a cheat, yet the word of no merchant in Boston will go farther with their customers than the horse auctioneers of Boston with the mongrel crowds which always gather on Saturdays.

The amount of the piano trade is truly astonishing, and the leading Boston manufacturers are overrun with orders. Prices are very high, and good workmen scarce; yet probably double as many instruments per week are being turned out, as were made last year. Messrs. Hallet, Davis & Co. inform us that they find it impossible to keep within weeks of the orders for their new short seven octave piano-fortes; and when it is remembered that it takes about four months to manufacture a first class instrument, it will readily be understood that such calls cannot well be hurried up.

MEDITATIONS

DEATH AND ETERNITY,

TRANSLATED FROM THE GERMAN OF ZSCHOKKE.

The circumstances under which this volume has been produced are very peculiar and interesting. It was a favorite book with Prince Albert, and he was constantly in the habit of having the "Meditations" read to him After his death the Queen found much comfort in their perusal, and employed Miss Rowan to translate them, for private circulation among her own immediate family. The volume is now reprinted in America, where so many afflicted hearts are in deep and overwhelming sorrow, and need consolation.

NEWBURYPORT POUDRETTE.

An article so well known as POUDRETTE may need no remarks to show its superiority to any other Fertilizer. The basis of this Fertilizer is Night Soil, obtained in Newburyport, from deep vaults—the accumulation in many cases of many years—so that it is highly concentrated. By mechanical means it is rendered very fine and dry, so that no inconvenience can result from its use.

It is very useful in starting the young plants, being just warm enough to sprout the seed without burning it. It makes the plant more thrifty, and consequently the crop is greater; this is especially true of all garden vegetables.

It contains no noxious weeds or larvæ of insects, which are almost always found in barnyard manure. Insects will not remain in the same hill with Poudrette. Its cheapness cannot fail to recommend it. One barrel of Poudrette being equal to a load of barnyard manure.

From the success met with last season, the subscriber flatters himself that he can manufacture an article superior to any in the market.

I shall use as my trade mark the brand, "ES' SEX MILLS POUDRETTE, Newburyport, Ms." All persons should see for themselves that they get the genuine and no other, as every barrel will be branded as above

IRAM LITTLEFIELD,

Newburyport, Mass.

Certificates.

I have received certificates of its value, a few of which are here inserted.

NEWBURYPORT, Dec. 29, 1862.

Messrs. NOYES & LITTLEFIELD—

Gents,—Last Spring I obtained of Wm. H. Coman, one barrel of your Poudrette as an experiment, with but little faith in its efficacy. When I opened it I was fairly sick of it, saying to myself it looks more like loam than any thing else, and is good for nothing; but how mistaken I was, for where I used it I think I got from one-third to one-half more corn than where I used barn yard manure on the same hills, heavier and was ripe two weeks earlier. I think it is just the thing for raising corn in this country. Sometimes a whole crop of corn might be saved by its use.

Yours, truly, WILLIAM JEWETT.

Extract of a letter of P. H. Falls.

SALMON FALLS, N. H., Sept. 28, 1862.

I received the Poudrette and used it nearly all on my place this season, for a number of farmers that intended to have some, but were afraid to use it, thought it was a new thing and a humbug, and did not take any. I used it myself and think it is as good as any Poudrette I have used before. Another year I shall use it more extensively,—also my neighbors will want considerable about here.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., January, 1863.

This may certify that we have used the last season, Noyes & Littlefield's Poudrette, and find it superior to any we ever used before, and would recommend it to the public generally.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. Local.

☞ Mr. Davis, of Concord, with a club of ladies and gentlemen, Mr. Morey pianist, and Mr. Ingalls a favorite singer of Manchester, will give their Concert at the Temple on Wednesday evening. Mr. Davis has for several years been very successful in teaching singing in and about Concord; and some parents and other lovers of music here, who think that vocal music is too much neglected among us, have requested him to try and awaken an interest in the cause—so all concerned will do well to countenance the movement.

Messrs. Editors:—The views of your correspondent "Tax payer," relative to the proposed location of the new Hook & Ladder Building, are entitled to much weight. It seems that for a building that could be placed in many other spots equally convenient, yet not in quite so public a locality, we are sacrificing too much, by depriving the young children of sunshine, and giving up the spot where on occasions like the reception of the Sons of Portsmouth, we have been glad to meet each other in festivity.—No, let us keep what few bright spots of verdant soil we have, now owned by the city. Let us not, for the sake of a building, not to be occupied daily by persons, but used for storage and horse-keeping, depreciate our Court House and school house.—We want all the air and sunshine now around the building, and it cannot be that there is no other spot in our territorial limits that might be obtained for that purpose. It is to be hoped that our city authorities will not permit the erection of a building that will drive away the Courts, when another spot can be as well selected. A remonstrance against the location is being circulated. Let every one sign it.

CANTHARIDES.

☞ Mr. Eldridge, the "Young American Roscius," is to give a dramatic entertainment at the Temple, this evening, similar to those he has given in many other places. He has strong testimonials of his ability, from Edwin Forrest, the actor, and other highly competent judges.

☞ A little boy, about 8 years of age, a son of Mr. Silas Philbrook, fell overboard while playing on Pier wharf on Monday forenoon, but was rescued from drowning by Rev. Mr. Patterson, by means of a plank.

—— The Manchester Union thinks it is "interesting" to see a good looking young woman walking down Elm street with a gentleman's coat on, and appropriating the whole sidewalk to her own use.

—— A young friend of ours avows his intention to commence the study of the Law, under the impression that he may become qualified to fill the position of Attorney General about the time the Governor and Council conclude to fill the vacancy.

—— The Manchester American states that a woman who had stolen $20 from her employer in Nashua, put back $1 and pleaded guilty to stealing $19, but the Court would not take plea, and she was found guilty and sentenced to the State Prison for two years. Another woman who stole $28 from the pockets of her employer, claimed that he owed her $9, pleaded guilty to stealing $19, and the Court sent her to the County Jail for nine months.

—— The Northern N. H. Railroad has declared a dividend of $2 per share, net, payable May 25th, to holders 11th inst.

—— As the train from this city was approaching Manchester about 7 o'clock on Friday night, a woman, who had been walking on the track, was struck by the baggage car, which inflicted a severe blow on her, breaking the skull, and otherwise seriously wounding her. She was immediately taken into the watch room, and Dr. Buck, of Manchester was called to make an examination of the wound. She was insensible, and so badly injured that the surgeon had no hopes of her recovery, and deemed it unnecessary to perform an operation. Her name was Mrs. Sarah Plumpton, wife of Thomas Plumpton, who died some two months since. She was a native of England, about 54 years of age, and has one son in Manchester, and one or two in the army.

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipisseogee,
Nov. 10, 1862.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS:—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 100 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an increased quantity the next Spring. Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crop. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, Respectfully,
ABEL HALEY,

NEW EASTERN R.R. DEPOT IN PORTSMOUTH.

It is gratifying to us to record the commencement of the new Station House in Portsmouth, which has been so long needed. We have examined the handsome designs and drawings made by Messrs. Lord and Fuller, of Salem, who bear a high reputation as architects, and are satisfied that the style of the building and accommodations afforded will be such as will be not only satisfactory, but also as tasteful and ornamental, as the old one has been hideous and inconvenient.

The front of the Depot on the east, which is surmounted with a handsome belfry, will be on the line of the old one, and will extend west 28 2 feet—being 67 feet longer than the present building. The new building is to be of brick (pressed to be used in front) with framed roof, covered with slate. The main building to be about 49 feet wide—5 feet wider than the present, extending that distance on the north side beyond the present building.

On the south side, is an extension from the main building which is entered under three arches on a line with the eastern front, and making a portion of it. A Piazza extends down the south side of the building 55 feet. It is 9 feet wide on the east, and 7 feet at the west end. From this Piazza there is an entrance first into the gentlemen's room—next into the hall and stairway to the Telegraph office; and the third door opens to the ladies' room. Through these rooms passengers can retire from the cars, or pass directly out without entering them. The ticket office, which is lighted by a skylight, is between the Ladies' and Gentlemen's rooms. The latter rooms are about 25 by 20 feet. They are warmed by a furnace in the basement. Connected with the ladies's room is a toilet room. Next east is the Station Master's room—then the baggage room.

Messrs. H. D. Clement and L. F. Cressey, of Lawrence, Mass. are the contractors. The work under the special superintendence of the architects, is to be completed by October next.

MASSACHUSETTS STOCK TAX.—At the late session of the Massachusetts Legislature a law levying tax on the Stock of Corporations held by persons out of the State, was passed, which will affect the interests of many in New Hampshire. The law enacts, that "every corporation organized under a charter or under General Statutes, paying dividends in scrip, stock, or money, shall reserve from each and every dividend, one fifteenth part of that portion due and payable to its stockholders residing out of the Commonwealth, and shall pay the same, as a tax, or excise, on such estate or commodity, to the treasurer of the Commonwealth, within ten days after such dividend is declared payable."

Thus every stockholder in the Eastern Railroad resident in New Hampshire, will be failure to tax in Massachusetts $6,67 cents on every hundred dollars of dividends declared. And so on all other stock investments made in Massachusetts. As Massachusetts probably has more capital invested in New Hampshire than our State invests there, our State may not be a loser in the enactment of a similar law in June.

DOVER AND PORTSMOUTH RAILROAD.—Public notice is given by the President of the Dover & Winnipiseogee Railroad, that that Road will make application to the Legislature of New Hampshire, at the next June session for leave to extend their Railroad from Dover, its present terminus, to Portsmouth—there to connect with the Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire.

Among those wounded in the recent battles before Fredericksburg, was Charles W. Merrill of West Newbury, a member of Company A. of the Massachusetts Nineteenth. A "spherical case" loaded with ounce balls, exploded just above him, one ball entering the outer corner of his right eye and passing through his head, to be extracted just behind his left ear, while another ball had been inflicted a mortal wound, had it not been arrested by a Testament, into which it embedded itself. The Testament was a parting gift from the young man's pastor, Rev. Davis Foster, and since he has been in one of the Washington hospitals it has been examined with much interest. Among those who have seen this "book of salvation" was the President, who sent to the hospital a handsome pocket Bible, in which was written, "Charles W. Merrill, Co. A. 19th Massachusetts, from A. Lincoln."

The Newburyport Herald regrets to add to the above, that C. W. Merrill is now no more. His wound was not thought dangerous; and on Tuesday afternoon his father, Mr. William Merrill, was in the city, in hopes that his son might arrive in the cars. But while he was here a messenger had gone to his house with the sad news that his son had been prostrated by internal hemorrage, and died in Washington in twenty minutes after it occurred.

GEN. A. W. WHIPPLE.—Gen Amiel W. Whipple, who was wounded in the battles near Chancellorville, and died at Washington on Tuesday afternoon, was born in Greenfield, Mass., graduated at West Point in 1841, was commissioned brevet 2d Lieutenant in the 1st Artillery, and then transferred to the Topographical Engineers. In 1841, he was engaged in the hydrographical survey of the Patapsco River, and in 1842 in surveying the approaches to New Orleans and the harbor of Portsmouth, N. H. In 1844 he was detailed as assistant astronomer on the Texas and Southern boundary survey, and in 1845 was employed in determining the northern boundaries of New York, Vermont and New Hampshire. In 1849, he was appointed assistant astronomer on the Mexican Boundary Commission, and became 1st Lieutenant in 1851. His journal while in Mexico was published by order of Congress. He returned to Washington in the Spring of 1853, was then ordered to direct the Southern Pacific Railroad Survey, and was employed one year in this service.

In July, 1855, he was promoted to be Captain of Topographical Engineers, and in January, 1856, was appointed Light House Engineer, Inspector of the 10th Light-House District, and afterward Superintendent of the Construction of St. Augustine Fales near St. Mary's River. In the Spring of 1861, he was made Chief Engineer on the staff of Gen. McDowell, was at the first battle of Bull Run, and was afterward employed on surveys for fortifications. He was promoted to be Major of Engineers Sept. 9, 1861. Upon the second advance of the army, he was attached to the staff of Gen. McClellan, made Brigadier General of Volunteers, May, 1862, and placed in charge of all the fortifications and garrisons on the south side of the Potomac. Shortly afterward, he was promoted to the command of a division in the 9th Army Corps. He subsequently had command of an independent division, and at the time of his death was in command of the 3d Division of the 3d Corps. He was universally regarded as an excellent officer.—New York Tribune.

A check draft is applied to this stove by means of which the consumption of fuel is greatly lessened, and a steady fire can be kept day and night if desired.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the casting being heavier, and the oven larger than usual, and the oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats is prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of kindling every night.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of reaction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. We think in all cases it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz: It is very highly elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertions or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

By this method the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set of Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, $5 a set.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TEBBETTS, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all:
Exalt the right, though every inn fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

TOADS UNEARTHED.—Sir A. P. Gordon Cumming writes to the Elgin Courier: "In cutting the Inverness and Perth Railway through the Lochmavandah Park on Altyre, we have unceremoniously trespassed on the privacy and retirement of a numerous colony of ancient toads. The cutting is here from 20 to 25 feet deep, the lowest part being through from 10 to 16 feet of freestone, and red conglomerate.—The interesting old residents are found in the red freestone, about 15 to 20 feet below the surface, where they certainly must have been several nineteen years' leases out on the land above them. They are sometimes turned out by the heavy hand-pick, or the great iron crowbar; but a blast of powder, of which a vast amount is here expended, seems to cause the greatest upset in the establishment, as a shot is sometimes the means of exposing as many as a dozen of the sleepy old fellows. They seem none the worse for their long repose, but after giving a few winks at the 'new light' thus suddenly let in upon them, and taking several gasps of the unwonted air, they leisurely and deliberately proceed to hop and crawl down the line along the small water-course towards the lower fields. I have seen them in numbers, and some of the men have counted above forty at once."

PETRIFIED HUMANITY.—A writer of the Melbourne Argus says: "I have lately discovered in a stony creek 15 miles from Castlemaine, the bodies of three aboriginals, quite whole, and not wanting in the smallest details, but which are petrified into solid marble. When first I saw them I thought they were actually alive, until, on going closer, I noticed the eyes. They are in a sitting posture, and the veins, muscles, &c., may be distinctly traced, through what is now a group of stone blocks; they are in a splendid state of preservation; even the finger nails, teeth, &c., are as perfect as they were 500 years ago. One of these has a stone axe by his side without any haft."

☞ The State Teachers' Association of Indiana, numbering 170 teachers, at their late meeting summed up the political situation in very few words by unanimously adopting the following platform:—

Resolved, That the Union Government is right and the Rebellion wrong.

Resolved, That we will sustain the right and oppose the wrong by all the legitimate means God has placed in our power.

☞ Two thousand dollars of Newburyport 5 per cent. scrip sold in Boston, Saturday, at a premium of 1 1-2 per cent.

☞ The New Bedford Standard, and Boston Commonwealth, disapprove of the course of Gen. Burnside in regard to Mr. Vallandigham.

☞ Religious revivals are increasing in intensity in various towns in New York.

No man can avoid his own company—so he had best make it as good as possible.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 20, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

It is represented as coming from rebel sources, that Gen. George E. Pickett, formerly of the U. S. infantry, will succeed Jackson. He is now second in command of Longstreet's corps.

The rebels admit their loss at Raymond, Miss., on Tuesday, the 12th, to have been 700. On Wednesday, Gregg was reinforced by Gen. W. H. T. Walker, of Georgia. On Thursday Gen. Grant attacked them at Mississippi Springs, and drove them towards Jackson, which place was subsequently taken by our troops after a hard fight. The rebels are seeking to send all the troops available to Vicksburg. Gen. Joseph Johnson arrived at Jackson on the 13th, with three brigades, and moved towards Vicksburg.

Direct advices from Gen. Grant to the 11th, state that Gen. Logan and Osterhaus were there marching toward Jackson, driving Bowen, with a force reported at 15,000, before them; while Gen. Grant was marching upon the Black river and expecting to engage Pembelton at the bridge over that stream. Pemberton's force was estimated at 50,000, and were said to be strongly intrenched near the bridge.

A severe infantry fight took place near Suffolk, Va., on the 15th. The rebels, who had driven in our pickets at Beaver Dam Church, were repulsed, and our troops now occupy a strong position in and around Carrsville. Our loss was 2 killed, 21 wounded and 6 missing. Our forces were busy removing the rails from the railroad, and the whole track is being taken up.—The N. H. regiments were not engaged.

By the last accounts from Port Royal, Col. Montgomery was engaged in fitting out steamers preparatory to an important expedition of all the colored troops in that vicinity.

☞ Capt. Howard Dwight, of Boston, Adj. General on Brig. Gen. Andrews' staff, was murdered by three guerrillas while going with dispatches to Gen. Banks, from Alexandria to Franklin. He was unarmed, yet they barbarously shot him after he had surrendered. His body was recovered, and will be sent home to Boston.

Gen. Banks has issued an order for the arrest and imprisonment of all white male persons residing in the vicinity of the spot where Capt. Dwight was massacred. They will be kept as hostages for the delivery of the murderers.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald states that "steamer Cherokee, recently captured as she was running the blockade, turns out to be the Thistle, and is a Clyde built steamer, which, it will be recollected, was overhauled near the Western Islands by the Tuscarora; but so skillfully had her true character been concealed that no evidence could be found sufficient to warrant her detention, and she was accordingly permitted to proceed on her voyage. She is an iron steamer, and represented to be able to make fifteen knots per hour. If such is the case she will, immediately upon her arrival at Boston, be taken by the Navy Department for the use of that Department." The Cherokee arrived at Boston on Monday.

☞ A large number of the prisoners recently captured from the rebel army have expressed a desire to take the oath of allegiance, and have requested to be sent North instead of being returned to rebeldom. To this the objection arises that the benefit of their exchange for Union soldiers who have fallen into rebel hands is lost, and the number of these applications is becoming so great as to constitute the continuance of the granting such requests, except in peculiar cases, a matter of serious inconvenience.

☞ Emerson Etheridge, in his recent speech at Nashville, said: "I am not superstitious, gentlemen, yet allow me to tell you that I shall always keep clear of the initials 'J. B.' J. B. stands for John Breckinridge; J. B. stands for James Buchanan; J. B. stands for Judah Benjamin; J. B. stands for John Bell; and, without intending to be offensive, I will remind you that J. B. stands for John Brown." He might have added John Bull likewise.

☞ Nearly a thousand complaints have been filed by the United States Collectors in New York, for violations of the Internal Revenue Law. Most of them are against parties who refused or neglected to take out licenses, after proper notification.

☞ Henry Sawyer, Esq., U. S. Consul at Paramaribo, South America, has presented to the Government his salary for one year, amounting to nearly $2000, to help crush out the rebellion.

☞ A new and excellent organ is being set up in the Baptist church, Biddeford.—It is presented by a member of the society.

☞ The Cincinnati Gazette has information from Little Rock that Albert Pike is under arrest for defrauding soldiers.

THE MUSIC OF FIFTY YEARS.

NO. FIVE. (BY UNCLE TOBY.)

The Methodist Society in Portsmouth secured a house of worship in 1808. The house was a very plain building, which had been used by the Universalist society for several years; but it was convenient, and very easy to speak and sing in. The Methodists sung a great deal, and much of their singing was very good. They had no prejudices against a choir, and none against instruments. Two of their early ministers, Brodhead and Metcalf, were good singers, Brodhead sing ng a full, mellow bass, and Metcalf a sweet tenor. Nearly all their ministers sung, and some of them would sing a hymn alone: and there was a large proportion of singers in their not very large congregation, who often joined their voices with the preacher or the choir. We have rarely heard the American Continental Harmony performed better anywhere, than in that old house.

Sometimes, though not often, we have seen the five brothers Marden and their one sister in this choir, and then, with the others who were sure to be there, we heard excellent vocal music, with plainly spoken words. There were usually three or four of this family in the choir, for some years.

This choir was led, at different times, by Messrs. David Marden, J. Plummer Dennett, Henry C. Gerrish, and Daniel Philbrick.—There, as elsewhere, the performance was not uniformly good, but it was generally so.

And now, as we have said a little something about the music in all the old religious societies in Portsmouth,—it may not be amiss to add a few words of comparison between the church music of fifty years ago, and that of to-day.

It was the fashion, in singing, to speak the words as plainly as possible,—and as in a great many choirs there was no instrument but a bass viol, and in some none at all, the words were generally understood.

It is the fashion, to a great extent, copied, we suppose, from opera singers, to sing so that the words cannot be easily understood,—and so that when we have a book in hand, we can hardly tell which verse of a hymn a choir is singing. The organ accompaniment, though excellent for sustaining the voice, does not, as usually managed, favor distinctness in hearing words.

There is no question, however, that the choir singing of this day might be greatly improved by more distinct and emphatic utterance of words.

There is also no doubt that a good organ is the best support for steady, solid church music. The organ will never go out of use: but there is no good reason why we should not have an orchestra with the organ, and a great choir with both, in every large religious society. A good quartette is desirable;—and besides this we like a strong choir of a dozen or more; and then, once in a day or service, let the congregation join the choir in a familiar tune with a grand hymn.

ANOTHER STATE OF VIRGINIA.—We were somewhat surprised that the Republican Union Convention in Western Virginia did not nominate the present Gov. Pierpont for the first Governor of that State, but the riddle is solved. Gov. Pierpont was elected Governor of the State of Virginia, and the national government recognized him as such. The setting off of a portion of the State does not inequality him for duty in the remainder, and after the Governor of Western Virginia shall be chosen and inaugurated, he will remove to Eastern Virginia, with Mr. Hogan, Secretary of State, where they will continue to exercise the functions of their offices, and probably at once convene a Legislature to choose a Senator as colleague to Mr. Carlisle, and make preparations for the election of members of Congress, and do and perform all they would, if the entire State acknowledged them. We shall therefore have three Virginias; one with a rebel Governor, refusing to submit to the national authority; another with Gov. Pierpont at its head; and a third, Western Virginia. This is a singular result of revolution.—Newburyport Herald.

We the people of the United States, by our representatives in Congress, have recognized loyal Virginia as the State, and Gov. Pierpont as its Governor;—and have admitted West Virginia in due form as a new State. We do not recognize the men who run the rebel machine, as being in any State at all, except the "state of sin and misery." U. T.

☞ The Boston Advertiser calls on the President to announce that the United States will protect loyal citizens of rebel States or other Slave States who are volunteers in our armies, whether white or black, —against hanging or other punishment threatened by the rebels, when taken prisoners by them. The Advertiser suggests that the rebel prisoners often coming into our hands should be held as hostages, especially such as belonged to Maryland, Missouri, Kentucky, and similar States.

☞ Dr. Blunderbore professes his willingness to have Vallandigham, et id omne genus, all sent within the rebel lines, "where they belong," on condition that Horace Greeley, Wendell Phillips and a few more of the same sort may at the same sort, may be sent to Africa, where they belong.

☞ The Chattanooga Rebel contains a mournful editorial over the Bragg and Breckinridge difficulty.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— On Friday morning last they had quite a snow storm in Warner, the ground being completely covered with snow.

—— The great Union Fair in Manchester closed on Saturday, having been continued one day longer than was at first intended. The remaining articles were sold at auction, or disposed of by raffles. One gentleman invested $60 in tickets for raffles, and drew only blanks. The result of the Fair has been all that the most ardent friends anticipated. The halls have been filled to excess with visitors; the amusements were of the most gratifying character, and the articles exhibited beautiful and abundant. The amount of the receipts is not accurately known, but the American says it cannot fall short of $5000. On Monday, as an ultimatum, they had a grand levee and ball in Smyth's Hall.

—— The accident which occurred on the C. & P. railroad, on Friday evening, proved fatal, Mrs. Plumpton dying on Saturday afternoon. She had seemed much oppressed by the recent death of her husband, and the Mirror states that circumstances give slight indication that she was not in her right mind at the time of the accident and that she did not try to avoid the car.

—— A little boy, 5 years old, in Manchester on Sunday evening, jumped from a block of hewn stone on which he had been standing, when it fell after him and came with full force upon his foot and lower part of his leg, breaking the bone of the latter in two places, so that the bone protruded. A little boy present pulled him out from underneath the stone, which was a heavy one.

—— Col. Cross, of the 5th Regiment, in the recent battles in Virginia, commanded a brigade composed of the 5th N. H., 66th and 88th N. Y., and 81st Penn. This brigade was on the front lines and under fire sixty hours. A part of the time the 5th and 88th formed the skirmish line of the 2nd corps. In the great battle of Sunday, Col. Cross's brigade supported the three batteries that covered the retreat of the enemy, and were under the hottest fire of grape and shell they ever experienced. The loss by artillery fire alone of the 5th was 21 officers and 27 men. Twice the batteries were compelled to withdraw, but the brigade remained until the rebel line of infantry was within 300 yards, and had fired a volley. When the gunners of our battery were nearly all killed or wounded, Col. Cross sighted some of the guns himself and fired them into advancing ranks of the rebels. The 5th regiment was the last body of infantry that left the field. It marched from the battle field to its old camp with only one man missing, and is now in good condition, with 150 men fit for duty.

—— Col. Cross' "wound" in the recent battles in Virginia was a scratch on his left hand, and the loss of a portion of the skirt of his coat.

—— Hon. J. W. Patterson's majority in the 3d district is 376 and not 276, as stated by an error of the telegraphic operator.

☞ The Baptist press are discussing with much warmth the novel views of Mrs. Mason, the Baptist missionary in Burmah, wife of Dr. Mason the linguist and translator. This lady professes to have discovered what she calls a "God language." This she discerns not only in works of God as in the starry heavens, but in the works of man as well, such as carpets and figured cloths.

☞ Louisiana may once more be considered as restored to the control of the United States. The small portion still in possession of the enemy is of no possible service to them now, and must soon be evacuated.

☞ Edmond About, the French novelist, is about to marry an heiress. She is said to have about $100,000 in money, about as much more in diamonds, and about twice as much in expectancy.

☞ The Wall street money writers say never in the history of the Stock Exchange has the volume of its business been as large as it is at present; never, in the history of the American people, did there appear to be so much money to invest, or so much to hazard in speculation.

☞ A large portion of Salem, Oregon, was destroyed by fire on the 10th.

☞ Mr. Davis, of Concord, with a club of ladies and gentlemen, Mr. Morey pianist, and Mr. Ingalls a favorite singer of Manchester, will give their Concert at the Temple on Wednesday evening. Mr. Davis has for several years been very successful in teaching singing in and about Concord; and some parents and other lovers of music here, who think that vocal music is too much neglected among us, have requested him to try and awaken an interest in the cause—so all concerned will do well to countenance the movement.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

☞ The Oxford, Me., Democrat says the statement was recently made, in the Commissioners' Court, that at one of the ferries on the Androscoggin, the property is valued at $500. This is underlet so as to realize a net income of $300 per year to the owners.

"NO CARDS."—These words appended to a marriage notice, which is generally inserted gratis, is an advertisement, which cuts off card printing without bringing any return to the printer. The only way for newspapers to manage that, is to charge the same for the "no cards" appendage that they would to print the cards. A hint on this head is sufficient.—Exchange.

FOR THE WAR.—The Portland Press learns that Lieut. Col. Greene, with most of the officers and men at Fort Preble, have been ordered to the field and will leave on Wednesday.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, for June, contains four fashion-plates furnished by the house of A. T. Stewart & Co., the celebrated importers. The articles in this number are good, and the engravings excellent.

☞ The Portland Press says a patient has been granted to Wm. Carr, of Bath, for improved medicine for piles; which may not be such a bad idea,—except for the patient.

MEDITATIONS
ON
DEATH AND ETERNITY.
TRANSLATED FROM THE GERMAN OF ZSCHOKKE.

The circumstances under which this volume has been produced are very peculiar and interesting. It was a favorite book with Prince Albert, and he was constantly in the habit of having the "Meditations" read to him. After his death the Queen found much comfort in their perusal, and employed Miss Rowan to translate them, for private circulation among her own immediate inmates. The volume is now reprinted in America, where so many afflicted hearts are in deep and overwhelming sorrow, and need consolation.

NEWBURYPORT POUDRETTE.

An article so well known as POUDRETTE may need no remarks to show its superiority to any other Fertilizer. The basis of this Fertilizer is Night Soil, obtained in Newburyport, from deep vaults—the accumulation in many cases of many years—so that it is highly concentrated. By mechanical means it is rendered very fine and dry, so that no inconvenience can result from its use.

It is very useful in starting the young plants, being just warm enough to sprout the seed without burning it. It makes the plant more thrifty, and consequently the crop is greater; this is especially true of corn and garden vegetables.

It contains no noxious weeds or larvæ of insects, which are almost always found in barnyard manure. Instead will find Poudrette in the same hill with Poudrette. Its cheapness cannot fail to recommend it. One barrel of Poudrette being equal to a load of barnyard manure.

From the success met with last season, the subscriber flatters himself that he can manufacture an article superior to any in the market.

I shall use as my trade mark the brand, "ESSEX MILLS, POUDRETTE, Newburyport, Ms." All persons should see for themselves that they get the genuine and no other, as every barrel will be branded as above.

HIRAM LITTLEFIELD,

I have received certificates of its value, a few of which are here inserted.

ALFRED, Me., Dec. 29, 1862.

MESSRS. NOYES & LITTLEFIELD:—

Gents,—Last Spring I obtained of Wm. H. Conant, one barrel of your Poudrette as an experiment, with but little faith in its utility. When I opened it I was fairly sick of it, saying to myself it looks more like loam than any thing else, and is good for nothing; but how mistaken I was, for where I used it I think I got from one-third to one-half more. Some parts where I used barn yard manure only, the corn being heavier and was ripe two weeks earlier. I think it is just the thing for raising corn in this country. Sometimes a wagon or two of it might be saved by its use.

Yours, truly, WILLIAM JEWETT.

Extract of a letter of P. H. Falls.

SALMON FALLS, N. H., Sept. 28, 1862.

I received the Poudrette and used it nearly all on my place; there were a number of farmers that intended to have some, but were afraid to use it, thought it was a new thing and a humbug, and did not take any. I used it myself and think it is as good as any Poudrette I have used before. Another year I shall use it more extensively,—also my neighbors will want considerable about here.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., January, 1863.

This may certify that we have used the last season, Noyes & Littlefield's Poudrette, and find it superior to any we ever used before, and would recommend it to the public generally.

Local.

THE CONCERT TO-NIGHT, at the Temple, offers more than one strong inducement for attendance. It is so seldom we have such an entertainment here, that one which promises so many excellencies, would seem to be attractive to all who love good glees, songs, duets, &c. The programme, as we see it circulated in bills, is a fine one, and nothing would seem to be lacking to complete the performances. Mr. Morey is reported to be a player of much skill and good taste, and he certainly has a superb instrument. Mr. Ingalls is very highly spoken of as a balladist; and the quartet is said to be very powerful and well trained. Of course all music-lovers will be in attendance.

Concerning the concert, and the proposed singing classes, a musical citizen sends us the following remarks:

Prof. Davis, of Concord, with his choir, are invited to visit Portsmouth on Wednesday evening. Let every one who has the least interest in good music, be present at their concert. Mr. Davis has been a very successful teacher in the Capital of our Granite State, and if a sufficient number of pupils offer, he will undertake to teach the rudiments of music to children one afternoon of each week, and a class of adults in the evening. It is long since such an opportunity has been presented here. Let all parents, therefore, be present at the concert; and let every boy and girl who can, be there to register their names for the afternoon, where they will have a weekly entertainment, and at the same time acquire the foundation of an accomplishment so worthy of their efforts, and so remunerative in the harvest of pleasant hours which it will add to their lives. A PARENT.

☞ For some time past, copper, iron and other articles have been missed from the Portsmouth Navy Yard, and the suspicions of the authorities of the Yard induced them to set a watch for the offender, which resulted in the detection of a yardsman named Allen in the act of stealing copper. He was arrested and placed in confinement to await a trial by court martial.

Another case of a similar character occurred on Saturday last. One of the crew of the schooner Boston, lying at the Navy Yard, was caught in the act of purloining a coil of rope—about 15 fathoms—having cut it in the middle to secure one end in order to haul it on board. Watchmen were stationed to prevent the crew from coming ashore, and they will not again be allowed the privileges of the Yard.

☞ As Mr. William Berry, of Newington, was riding in a wagon through Elm street in this city on Tuesday morning, his horse became frightened by a passing wheelbarrow and started to run. Mr. Berry endeavored to check him, when some portion of the harness broke, letting the wagon upon the horse, which kicked, striking Mr. Berry in the right leg below the knee, fracturing both bones. He also received some other injuries. He was removed from the wagon, and carried into a neighboring house, where he was attended by Doctors Laighton and Oliver; after which he was removed to his home, being there left in as comfortable a condition as could be anticipated. The horse dashed through a fence, breaking the wagon very much, but was stopped by the wheels striking a post.

☞ Gen. Burnside has issued a general order reciting the proceedings of the Valandigham court-martial, the finding of which is a sentence to close imprisonment during the war in some fortress to be selected by the Commander of the Department. The order names Fort Warren as the place of confinement.

☞ The frigate Ticonderoga sailed from New York on Monday, easily making, it is said, 14 knots an hour on going out of the bay.

A newspaper published in New Castle, England, says that a short time since a carpenter residing in that town received an order to make a child's coffin, one of the conditions being that it should have a lock and key. The father wished to preserve some tangible memorial of the last resting place of his child, and his intention was to wear the key of its coffin around his neck.

☞ A gentleman visiting a hospital at Washington since the late battles, heard an occupant of one of the beds laughing and talking about Joe Hooker. He seemed in such good spirits that the gentleman remarked, "You must be very slightly wounded?" "Yes," said the brave fellow, "very slightly,—I have only lost one leg."

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the best health for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. We can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can truly be ascribed by it since it has been free from its of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed only the cures effected by it since I first sold it as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. BY LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rise quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named. Yours, &c.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

Read the following recommendation from the Cashier of the Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H.

WOLFBORO, N. H., Lake Winnipisseogee, Nov. 10, 1862.

Agents Lodi Manufacturing Co., Boston.

GENTS.—I have used the Poudrette made by your Co. for two years. The first year I used four barrels, and experimented with it on both corn and potatoes. I was pleased and satisfied with the result, and the past season purchased over 200 barrels for my own use, and my neighbors. I think some twenty-five different farmers tried and used the Poudrette on my recommendation, and all have this Fall expressed themselves entirely satisfied to use each an increased quantity this next Spring. Planting season comes late, and we have very early frosts, and the Poudrette ripens our corn from two to three weeks earlier. We have also found it a preventative of the wire worm, which oftentimes destroys our entire crops. Our mode of applying the Poudrette is, to put about a handful in each hill, and place the seed in direct contact. I think I shall want double the quantity next Spring that I had this year.

Yours, Respectfully,
ABEL HALEY,
Cashier Lake Bank, Wolfboro', N. H
